

VIOLENT STORM OF WIND AND RAIN.
Frightful Accident.—This latitude was visited about five o'clock yesterday afternoon by one of the most violent tornadoes which has occurred for a long time. The wind was high during the greater part of the day, and increased in the afternoon to a perfect gale, the rain at the same time falling in perfect torrents. We have heard of much damage by the wind. A new building, on West Saratoga street, between Cary and Calhoun streets, was blown down, burying beneath the ruins three men engaged thereon. The unfortunate men were Mr. John Lynch, a boss bricklayer, who resides in Poppleton street, near Saratoga, a young man named Nicholas McKew, aged about twenty years, an apprentice of Lynch, with whom he resides, and a colored laborer named David Matthews, who resided in Sarah Ann street, near Fremont.—The first two named were upon the third story scaffolding, which was thrown into the street by a side wall, they falling beneath the same.—They are all very seriously hurt, but the colored man, (Matthews,) being in the lower part of the buildings was completely buried beneath the ruins, and his faint hopes are entertained of his recovery.—Bull. Patriot, 18th.

LANCASTER, June 5.—The Lancaster Savings Institution of this city, has failed, and Boughter, the Treasurer, has been committed to prison for embezzlement. The deficit is stated at $300,000, and the assets $12,000. The Institution is of course closed. Much excitement prevails among depositors and other interested.

DEATH OF CHILDREN.—One of our judges, speaking of the death of a little friend, in a letter says, with equal simplicity and truth:—"My heart is full of the sad thoughts which this melancholy event has occasioned. Nothing links me more than the death of children.—Like the flowers of spring, blighted by an untimely frost, they fall having yielded no fruit, and cause a grief which nothing can assuage, but the belief that they have ascended, and are glorified spirits in the presence of God!"

A DUTCH KNOW-NOTHING WANTED.—It appears that the Know-Nothing of Berks county are about establishing a German organ in the city of Reading, and are anxious to secure the services of a German Know-Nothing printer to do their dirty work. The Harrisburg Union says:—"A man named RICHARDS has very effectually scoured our town in search of one—but, to the honor and glory of the noble German character, he is said, none have been found who could be employed to aid in promulgating his proscriptive principles. Alas! poor RICHARDS!"

ATTENTION RIFLEMEN!
You are hereby notified that a parade will take place on Thursday the 21st inst., at 10 o'clock, A.M. at the Court House, in the Borough, in summer uniform. A full turn out is particularly requested.

ALLEGHENY MALE AND FEMALE SEMINARY!
This Institution is located at Rainburg, Bedford county, Pa. 10 miles from Bedford and 8 miles from the celebrated Mineral Springs. Being situated in a pleasant and retired village, free from many of the alluring views that so often corrupt the minds of youth, and in the midst of one of the most healthy portions of the State, we trust it will receive the liberal patronage its friends have anticipated.

It will be under the charge of the Rev. JOHN POLLOCK, of the M. E. Church, a gentleman who has been for a number of years engaged in teaching, and whose recommendations from abroad, as well as the high style of teaching he is exhibiting in this place at present, fully satisfy us that he is such a man as we need. He will be assisted by Mrs. E. E. Pollock as Preceptor, and such other teachers as the school may require.

The year will be divided into two sessions of 22 weeks each. The first Session will commence on Tuesday the 7th day of August next. Each session will be divided into two terms of 11 weeks, but without any vacation, as the school will be re-organized on the next day after the close of the first term of the session. It will be very important for students to be in attendance as near the beginning of the term as possible, in order to gain a thorough knowledge of elementary principles.

Rates of Tuition will be as follows:—For common English, per term, $3, to which will be added for higher branches, including higher Mathematics, each 50 cents. For each ancient or modern language, $1 25. The entire amount of the above shall not exceed six dollars.

Extra Lessons on Piano, per term, $10.—Drawing and Painting of the different varieties from 3 to $5.—Vocal music, two lessons per week, $1.—Incidentals, 25 cents.

Special attention will be given to those intending to engage in teaching, both by affording them a thorough drilling in the branches necessary to be taught, and by Lectures on the best methods of teaching and discipline.

Board can be procured at various places in the village on the most reasonable terms. Conversations will be in readiness at the stage office in Bedford on the day previous to commencement, between the hours of 4 and 5 P. M. for the conveyance of any that may not be otherwise provided for, free of expense. Arrangements will also be made for their return to the same place.

Bedford Academy
AND
FEMALE SEMINARY.
W. W. CAMPBELL, Principal.
This Institution, hitherto under the care of Rev. John Lyon, will henceforth be conducted by the present Principal. The past history of the Academy will, we trust, be a sufficient guaranty of its future efficiency. The branches taught will be the same as heretofore. To secure success it will be considered the most important pursuit of the pupils; and while it will be the constant business of the Instructor to impart knowledge, it will also be his aim to lead his pupils to make a practical application of their acquisitions. To load the mind with unnumbered formulas, without causing it to use them, would be like placing a bow in a child's hand, without teaching him how to bend it. In fine, it shall be our object, as it has ever been, to lead the pupil to think.
We look forward confidently to the patronage of this community, which has thus far been so generously extended, and by an undiminished assiduity, we hope to merit your support.
