SOME STRENGTH SHOWN BY PRICES

Increased Volume of Business Carries Day's Sales Over 200,000 Share Mark.

GAINS IN MANY CASES SHARP

Study of President Wilson's Message Apparently Is Without Effect.

BY BROAHAN WALL.

New York, December 3.—On an increased volume of business that carried the day's sales over the 200,000-share mark, prices developed strength in the stock market and showed a number of cheerful features. Transactions in the first hour exceeded 100,000 shares, and 10 per cent of the initial business was attributed to buying for Boston accounts, which was accompanied by short covering. The bulk of the purchases was in Steel, Copper and Union Pacific. Gains in many cases were sharp. Steel was forced ahead fractionally, touching 69, Reading, Lehigh Valley and Amalgamated Copper 2 points, Union Pacific 1 and Northern Pacific, Canadian Pacific and Rock Island 1 point from Saturday's close, where it met heavy selling of stock for London account. Wall Street has been hungry for a rise, this instance the advance in Erie was attributed to a change in control. To verify this, it was whispered that the Erie interests had received orders to strip the road free from speculation, which would be easier to substitute the name of the new controlling company. The reader may ill Great Northern or Canadian Pacific. The advances scored in the first hour reflected selling for foreign account, which appears to have been strong during the first three weeks. Some 15,000 shares were sold Steel, Amalgamated Copper and Erie predominating.

California Petroleum shares advanced from 1½ points on expectation that the regular dividend on the preferred stock would shortly be declared, and Can shares were firm on the rumor that the directors might meet within the next ten days to discuss bank dividends on the stock.

Prices Not Affected.

President Wilson's message was delivered on the floor of the Stock Exchange promptly at 1 o'clock. As bankers had already studied its phrasing, prices were not affected when the floor brokers studied the document.

A somewhat better tone developed in foreign markets. The action of the French Chamber of Deputies in approving the $500,000,000 government loan was as favorable in London as in Paris. In London it was thought of the $500,000 gold arriving from South Africa, and discounts were reported easier. Call money renewed at 3¾ per cent, and time money was virtually unchanged. The loan of $25,000,000 certificates was retired in San Francisco. The end of this movement is now believed to be in sight, and no further shipments are expected to Canada.

Erie's gross earnings for October decreased $67,000 with a net decrease of $70,000. The Reading company reports for October, after charges of $2,216,000, a decrease of $92,000.

To-day the Interstate Commerce Commission published the preliminary earnings of all the companies for the month of October, showing a loss of $6,000,000 in gross and ten times that amount in net.

The losses in net were due largely to increase of conducting transportation. This item is made up of wages and fuel.

In the late selling prices in the active stocks fell from fractions to points in the day. The advance was attributed to covering of short contracts rather than any idea that traders saw a turn for the better in speculative conditions.

New York, December 2.—More business was done in the first hour of today's stock market than during yesterday's entire session. All foreign the market led by the Coalers, displayed strength and activity such as selling there had not been for some days. Many thousands were purchased in Erie block, and there was a substantial rise. In the afternoon trading became quiet and gains pared down.

The final position of the market was decidedly firm, and traders worked considerably on the long side. Shorts were given to understand that the market is in no mood to be bear raided. Amalgamated Copper 2½, Erie 1½, Union Pacific 1½, Lehigh Valley 1½ and Amalgamated Copper 2½, Erie 1½ into activity and numbers from 3½ to 5½, where it met heavy supply of stock for London account. COTTON MARKETS.

New York, December 2.—Today cotton market appeared to be fluctuating between the influence of bullish crop estimates and reports of very full ginning returns for the last half of November, but neither factor seemed to inspire much fresh business. Trading remained comparatively quiet, with prices showing little inclination to move far either way between months. Unfavorable trade advices from Liverpool and increased apprehensions of labor troubles in Fall River may have contributed somewhat to reactions from the early high level, but closing prices were steady at a net gain of from 3 to 8 points.

Larger English spot sales and a private crop estimate of 13,800,000 bales appeared chiefly responsible for the early advance, first prices were 4 points higher. The market showed a net gain of from 15 to 18 points at the high level of the morning on covering and scattered buying from Wall Street and Southern sources. The demand, however, was not aggressive enough to follow the market up in any great volume, and profit taking offerings were encountered around 13c for March.

Reports that a prominent Memphis statistician estimated a ginning to December 13 of 1,600,000 bales were followed by rumors that a Government statistician whom a bureau official at Washington said is within points of this same figure from the Census Bureau next Monday would indicate the largest ginning for the first half of November on record, and the full mate returns probably according to trade expectations. The market opened steady, with prices unchanged to 2 points higher on the strength of the Liverpool cables, but soon yielded 8 to 10 points in the afternoon selling on profit taking and price weakness developed in the late session, equal at a net gain of 3 to 5 points.

The weather map and private reports indicated considerable rain overnight. Features of the trade were the heavy selling of spot cotton, the liquidation of Jan. and March, and the buying of May and July by Southern and Western interests. Cotton futures closed steady.

New Orleans, December 2.—Cotton was again quiet and steady to-day. Prices advanced moderately on a small volume of trade trading for long account. Shorts bought freely for fears that the Government report would show a strong, aggressive ginning to date. Spinners bought cotton freely on the opening the tone was steady and unfavorable weather helped along a little rallying movement, but the outside was quiet and prices drifted lower. Spinners were the principal buyers yesterday, but quite a large amount of cotton changed hands from the speculative interests to the spinners, and the market closed steady at the highest prices of the day, 3 to 5 points net higher than last Friday's close. The opening was steady at a net gain of 2 to 4 points, and the market ruled quiet and steady at a net gain of 3 to 5 points.

OFFICERS FIND POSSE DID WORK

Eagerness to Capture Prize Money Is Shown in Carroll County Moonshining Circles.

Christmas liquor-making has turned the hand of every man against his neighbor in the mountains of Southwest Virginia. At all events, that is one interpretation placed on the revenue raids in Carroll, Henry and Grayson Counties.

On general principles the informer is well content to remain in the background, while the revenue officers raid a moonshine plant. Mountain air is not healthy for the informer when the mountain folk connect him with a successful revenue raid. This retiring disposition is not at all noticeable just now in Carroll, according to the official reports coming in to Revenue Agent W. H. Chapman. In the mad fight for the prize money given the informer after a successful raid, that half of the Carroll population not engaged in moonshining is earning Christmas money by breaking up the liquor business of the other half.

Instances in which the informers outran the revenue officers and made the raids without awaiting their arrival are recounted in reports received here yesterday. Writing from Galax, Carroll County, Deputy Collectors Hunt and Dotson say that, starting out with a posse to seize a still near Dug Spur, one morning last week, they arrived at the spot only to find that the still had been seized by E. D. Worrell and J. Blaine Crockett. These two turned the plant over to the officers for destruction.

On the next day, say the officers, they expected to go to Woodlawn, Grayson County, to seize another moonshine plant. Half-way on their journey Hurt and Dotson were informed that their posseman, T. A. Higgins, had already captured the still and conveyed it to the home of a friend. Higgins conducted the officers to the house and watched them destroy the still.

The claims of Worrell, Crockett and Higgins for posse duty will be indorsed by Revenue Agent Chapman.

CUT IN TARIFF HURTS CUSTOMS

While Volume of Entries Increase, Duty Collected Here Shows Decrease.

Customs receipts in the local customhouse during the first full month under the new tariff law show an appreciable decrease. Although the quantity of entries made through this port is somewhat larger than in November, 1912, the amount of duty collected is $11,000 less. Most of the decrease is attributable to the placing of burlap on the free list. Under the Payne-Aldrich tariff burlap was one of the largest items of revenue in the local customhouse.

The figures given out yesterday by Special Deputy Collector Smith are as follows: total duty collected in November, 1913, $99,129.71; total duty collected in November, 1912, $110,171.61; decrease, $11,041.90.

Despite increased revenue from certain classes of taxable manufactured articles, the monthly collections of the internal revenue office for the Second District of Virginia were less in November, 1913, than in the same month of last year. Collector M. K. Lowry's figures are as follows: total collections in November, 1913, $635,262.50; total collections in November, 1912, $668,-156.74; decrease, $32,894.24.

Examination of the itemized receipts show at once that the entire decrease is due to a falling off in the manufacture of chewing and smoking tobacco in this district. In November, 1912, the sale of tobacco stamps amounted to $90,596.72, while in the same month of last year it reached a total of $126,649.48.

The collections for the month fall into the following chief subdivisions: tobacco, $80,506.72; cigars, $92,130.21; cigarettes, $336,126.25; spirits, $107,-247.50; beer, $4,750.

During the latter part of November and the month of December the sale of spirit stamps is particularly large, owing to the fact that the distilleries are shipping the holiday supply of liquor. The liquor stamp sales on December 1 amounted to $7,041.17, and on December 2 to $8,635.99.

DEALERS WARNED

Police Ban Is Put on Big Firecrackers and Torpedo Canes.

Orders were issued yesterday by Chief of Police Werner instructing all members of his department to notify dealers that no firecrackers larger than what is known as a "No. 5" will be allowed to be sold in the city.

The sale of torpedo canes, which for many years have been the cause of a great deal of complaint, also comes under the police ban. Major Werner has expressed his determination to prosecute all persons who do not adhere to the law in this respect.
