UNJUST RATES ALLEGED

Dates Set by Commission for Two Important Virginia Hearings.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Washington, December 19.—Announcement was made here yesterday by the Interstate Commerce Commission of two important Virginia hearings. On January 12, Special Examiner Disque will take testimony at Bristol in the case of the Reynolds Corporation against the Norfolk and Western Railroad, and Morley Brothers against the Southern.

On January 26, Special Examiner Gibson will take testimony in this city in the case of the Page Milling Company against the Norfolk and Western, and the Stuarts Draft Milling Company against the Southern. The latter case involves flour rates. It is claimed that many flour mills in Virginia cannot compete with those elsewhere, because of unjust freight rates. P. H. McG.

BANKRUPT SALE
VALUABLE REAL ESTATE AT PUBLIC AUCTION.

Pursuant to an order of the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Virginia, entered on the 16th day of December, 1913, in the matter of Arthur D. Sprenkle, bankrupt, the undersigned will offer for sale at public auction, on the respective premises, on beginning at 4 o'clock P. M., and continuing, in the order named below, that part of the real estate described in said order as follows:

(A) "Lot of land, with improvements thereon, known as No. 1106 St. John Street, on the west side of St. John Street, between Federal and Courts Streets, beginning seventy-nine (79) feet north of Federal Street and running northwardly along and fronting on St. John Street sixty-six (66) feet, and back westwardly between parallel lines one hundred and sixteen (116) feet six (6) inches, being the same property conveyed to A. D. Sprenkle by deed from R. St. P. Smith and wife, dated February 5, 1913, and recorded in D. B. 220-B, page 447.

(B) "Lot of land, with improvements thereon, known as Nos. 1013 and 1015 Catherine Street, beginning at a point ninety-two (92) feet east of the southeast corner of Hancock and Catherine Streets, and running westwardly along and fronting on Catherine Street thirty (30) feet, and back southwardly between parallel lines one hundred (100) feet, being the same property conveyed to A. D. Sprenkle by George Mayo April 24, 1913, and recorded in D. B. 221-C, page 355."

The above described real estate will be sold free and clear of all liens thereon. Said sale shall be subject to the confirmation of the court.

TERMS: One-third of the purchase money in cash, and the residue in two equal installments at six and twelve months from date of sale, deferred payments to be evidenced by negotiable notes of the purchaser, with interest added at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, and secured by deed of trust on said real estate; or all cash, at the option of the purchaser.
