DIED.
Of croup, April 16, 1856, MALVINO, youngest daughter of Henry J. and Amanda M. Brunner, aged 2 years, 7 months, and 16 days. Malvino was an unusually interesting child; she was loved by all that knew her. In an unexpected moment, she was taken away from the embrace of fond parents, and the sorrows to which humanity is exposed, to dwell in a better home in heaven.
