Philadelphia, April 17.—The Phillies again humbled the Giants to-day, this time by a score of 3 to 1. Mayer, one of Dooin's recruits, pitched a splendid game for the locals, holding the Giants to five scattered hits. Merkle did his best to get the Meriwax men started by clouting the ball into the centre field bleachers for a home run in the fourth frame. His comrades, however, could not respond, and this was the only New York tally. Tesreau allowed the Phillies eight singles. Score:

SPIDERS FURNISH BIG SURPRISE TO TECHS

V. P. I.'s Victorious March Stopped by Local Collegians—Flannagan Pitches Star Game, and Dobson's Demons Show Wonderful Improvement.

Prying off the lid of their home season in a very forcible and encouraging manner, the Richmond College Spiders took the strong aggregation of ball tossers from V. P. I. into camp by the score of 7 to 5. And it was some game, from start to finish. The Spider nine took the lead in the first inning, and were never headed thereafter. To say that the result was a great surprise is putting it in a very mild form, for almost everybody had come out with the idea that the game was merely a question of how high the Techs would roll up the score. But from the very start of the clash it became evident to all that the Spiders were there with the stuff, and were out to win. "Hoss" Flannagan was on the mound for the local boys throughout, and pitched a fine game. He showed little trace of wildness, only three men going to first on free tickets, and he struck out nine of the Techs' batters. His work was a source of much gratification to those who are looking to him to do great work this season.

In all but two innings he had complete control of the situation, and succeeded in pulling out of several nasty positions. The game was jam full of snap and pepper, and many thrilling plays were pulled off. Powell, of the Techs, got two three baggers, and also Robbins, of the Spiders, connected for three sacks, sending in Scales ahead of him. A feature of the game was a spectacular stab by Wicker of a slashing drive by Legge, that would have been good for a home run had its course not been stopped.

The real noticeable feature of the game was the consistent teamwork of the Spiders, which snowed up all through the game. Especially was the sacrificing of the local outfit in the limelight. There was never a time that a man got on base that some Spider did not immediately send him on a sack or two with a timely sacrifice, and then when the time came, they uncorked some hits that completed the work.

The V. P. I. nine played a very fast and pretty game, and put up a very creditable showing. They were somewhat hampered owing to the fact that their uniforms failed to arrive until after 4 o'clock, when the game should have been started. Of their two pitchers, the Spiders seemed to take a great liking to the slants of "Connie" Macon, who occupied the slab for the first four innings, and then gave way to Bibb. While the latter did a little better, he failed to stem the onslaught. The fact that V. P. I. has very recently beaten all three of the other teams in the Eastern Intercollegiate League—Hampden-Sidney, Randolph-Macon and William and Mary—augues well for the chances of the local contingent. However, it must be borne in mind that the Spiders got most of the breaks of luck yesterday, and when they run up against the teams in their own league, they are apt to have the luck break the other way.

The result of yesterday's game, coupled with the way the Spiders handled themselves throughout the contest, showed that they were under a master hand, and that Frank Dobson has already worked wonders with the material he had. It looks as if Coach Dobson has made a good start toward his specialty of developing "something out of nothing." For the Techs, Legge, their big second baseman, was the bright light, and did good work both at the bat and in the field. Score:

Baltimore, Md., April 17.—Despite a burning ninth-inning finish, the Baltimore Federals this afternoon went down to defeat before Buffalo by a score of 4 to 3. Over 4,000 fans turned out to see the game. The first protest of the season has arisen, and President Gilmore will have to decide. In the fifth, with Downey, of Buffalo, on first, Bannin hit into the right field bleachers for a home run. As Bannin was rounding third, Manager Schlafly patted him on the back, and Umpire Manmassau called the runner out. As the ball was out of play when it went into the bleachers, it is believed Schlafly's protest will be sustained. Score:

Petersburg, Va., April 17.—The fans of Petersburg turned out en-masse this afternoon to cheer the Goobers on to their first victory over their old-time enemy, the Colts. The grandstand and bleachers were filled with old familiar faces, and roues had to be stretched in the left garden to keep the crowd off the diamond.

Pearson was selected by Manager Busch to do the twirling for the Goobers. Manager Ryan's selection was a left-hander, Shipe by name. The Colts were cheered when Newton, the first up, hit safely and went to second on Jackel's boot of Berger's slow grounder. Snyder sacrificed, and Newton and Berger scored on Gray's single to left. Gray was out on a helder's choice, when Snyder was safe at first and Bunting ended the inning, Jackel to Barnett.

Keller, the first up for the Goobers, flied to Gray. Laval was given a base on balls, Busch struck out, Craven and Jackel were given their bases on balls. With the bases full Damrau hit to deep centre, clearing the bases and going to second. Barnett ended the inning by flying out to Bunting.

In the second a base on balls and a two-bagger by Woerth scored a run for the Colts. In the third a base on balls, another two-bagger by Damrau and a triple by Barnett added two runs to the locals' column, and Manager Ryan sent in Ramey to take the place of Shipe. After this inning the Colts settled down to ball playing, and the Goobers were only able to hit Ramey for three singles during the rest of the game and made but one run.

The Colts scored in the fifth and seventh inning, and had the bases filled in the sixth, but the best that Berger could do was to strike out. Gray and Woerth proved themselves to be hitters of ability, while Damrau, with two doubles and a single, and Craven, with two singles, carried off the batting honors for the Goobers.

The Colts played a beautiful fielding game, and accepted everything that came their way, not an error being made by them. The score:

Boston, April 17.—Washington got away with the big end of the series by taking to-day's game, 1 to 0. Both Leonard and Boehling pitched high-class ball, the latter allowing but two hits, one of the scratch order. But for Speaker's attempt to catch a fly ball in the ninth instead of playing it safe, the game would have gone into extra innings. Score:
