

REVIVAL OF THE SLAVE TRADE.—If Governor Adams, of South Carolina, had recommended in his recent message the enactment of a law reviving the practice of burning witches, it would not have been more universally condemned than his proposition to revive the Slave Trade. The press of the South has opposed the project with a unanimity rarely exhibited upon any political subject. We have seen enough of such articles to fill our paper. In South Carolina, too, the proposition has met with very decided opposition, not only from the press, but in the Legislature. So general has been the condemnation of this project, and so universal the prevalence of a desire to secure the ascendancy of wise and conservative counsels, that the Black Republicans have been utterly filled in their efforts to excite new alarm and ill-feeling in reference to the ill-timed project.

PHYSIC DISARMED OF ITS TERRORS.—Every person is interested in hearing that Dr. Clickener, of New York, has invented a medicine of the most certain and powerful purgative qualities, which is yet so gentle that its operations on the system are entirely unfeeling. Its action is altogether unattended with griping or nausea, and still more to enhance its value, it is coated with white sugar, so that it leaves no unpleasant taste in the mouth. In fact its flavor is so unlike physic, and its action is so perfectly gentle, that any person may swallow a dose without suspecting that he has taken physic at all, unless through its ultimate effect, which is powerful and positive, even on the most costive constitutions. We need not comment on those great advantages of Clickener's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Purgative Pills, over other medicines, as they must be obvious to all, for there are few persons who do not require physic occasionally, and fewer still who have not a rooted aversion to the nauseous and racking compounds which, before the appearance of these pills, were the only characters which physic ever assumed. In less than five years, Clickener's Sugar-Coated Vegetable Pills will supersede all other purgative medicines, for no person will consent to have his stomach turned, and his bowels racked with these old-fashioned preparations, when he might have the desired object accomplished much more thoroughly by a new one, whose effect is unaccompanied by the slightest offensive sensation. [2w.]

These Pills may be had of Store-keepers in every city, town, village, or place in the United States.
