TARS CONTINUE WINNING STREAK

Although Getting Most Hits, Goobers Are Unable to Win From Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., April 24.—Twelve hits netted Busch's Goobers but two runs, while the Tars converted eight bingles into six counters in the second clash of the series here this afternoon.

Norfolk drove "Lefty" Austin, who started the game for Petersburg, from the mound in the first inning, when a pass and three singles in a row resulted in two runs. Nolan relieved him, and another run came over in the same inning on Allen's single. Burden kept the Goobers' hits well scattered, and two brilliant double plays by the Tars' infield killed off incipient rallies. Another contributing factor to the Mary Jane's victory was the heady base-running of Tennant, Cleveland and Stein. Keller, the Petersburg left fielder, led with the stick. He went to the bat five times and combed Burden for three singles and a double. The score:

GENERALS CLOSE WITH A VICTORY

Successful Season Ends for Washington and Lee With Defeat of Trinity.

Lexington, Va., April 24.—The curtain on a successful season fell this afternoon for Washington and Lee when they triumphed over Trinity, 9 to 1. The Generals solved Kanipe easily and secured an early lead. Bryan opened on the mound, but grew wild in the third, filling the bases. Southpaw Jennings relieved the slabman and struck out the first six men to face him. Jennings twirled sensationally, retiring eleven on strikes and yielding but two hits. The lone tally resulted from Bryan's pass, Rives's error and an infield out in the second. The Generals rallied in the second scoring five tallies on five hits and one error. Lancaster's double scored three runners. Captain Donahue concluded his college career a brilliant one of four years, to-day. Lancaster also played his farewell game. The score:

MANASSAS SCHOOL GRABS HONORS

Manassas, Va., April 23.—Nearly 100 boy athletes, representing twelve schools in Prince William County, assembled on Round Athletic Field this afternoon to compete in the big annual county meet of the public schools. The affair included seventeen events—four high jumps, four broad jumps, shot put, four dashes, one distance run and three relay races. The Manassas graded schools were the victors, they capturing 94 points, with Haymarket second with 51 1-4. Other schools were as follows: Greenwich, 3; Occoquan, 16; Cherry Hill, 7 1-2; Catharpin, 4, and Gainesville, 3. Manassas took first in eight firsts, and seven seconds.

CERTAINTIES ARE GIVEN AWFUL JOLT

Havre de Grace Race Track, April 24.—The proverbial ninepins never fell with more consistency than the absolute certainties did to-day at Havre de Grace. Briar Path, Isidora and Holiday, all supposedly immortal, were bowled over, and the day marked the first real big day the Bookville knights have had since racing convened in these parts.

Briar Path was played in the out-of-town poolrooms by the Holland-Williams contingent, while the clockers and the boys that know it all, fell with a sickening thud on Isidora and Holiday. All three good things ran races worth remembering, but incidentally not good enough to fatten up the boys' bank rolls.

PORTSMOUTH WINS AGAINST ROANOKE

Pirates Land First Victory of Season Over Tigers—Divide Batting Honors.

Roanoke, Va., April 24.—Jesse Tannehill's Pirates went at Mills's Tigers this afternoon and secured revenge for yesterday's defeat by winning from the home team by a score of 5 to 1. It was decidedly a better game than that of yesterday, and the victory of the visitors was the first recorded by that team this season. Both teams divided the batting evenly, but the Pirates hit the pill at times when they were needed. Roanoke scored its only run in the eighth frame—a base on balls, a hit and an error, followed by another pass to first station, forced Manager Mills home. Schwartzje had a shade the better of the argument, holding the home batsmen in the pinches. The score:

Coffey waited his chance, shooting right after right to the head, landing clean and hard. Flynn was up and down like a jack in the box, finally being forced to the mat for the fatal ten seconds.

WINNING RUN IN TWELFTH

St. Louis, April 24.—Pitcher Hall and Catcher Stanage collided chasing Austin's pop fly in the twelfth inning of to-day's game, and when the ball fell out of Hall's hand Shotten scored the winning run from second. STRAIN GOES TO HUNTINGTON

Charlie Strain is no longer a Colt. He has been sent by Manager Ryan to the Huntington club, of the Ohio State League, and will leave to-day for his new home. Strain is one of the best youngsters ever recruited from the local sandlots, but has been unable to get into condition. He should make the Huntington team a valuable man. Manager Ryan is still on the watch for pitchers—not one, but many—and until he gets them he will not be satisfied. The arrival of Rohe is awaited, and it is hoped that he will round out the infield.

Ryan had not decided last night just who would oppose the Builders to-day, though it will probably be Harry Griffin.

MONK BROWN EARNS CREDIT FOR VICTORY

His Pitching is Big Factor in Defeat of John Marshall High School by Richmond Academy—Public School Lads Now in Second Place.

STANDING OF THE TEAMS.

	Won.	Lost.	P. C.
Academy	2	1	.666
John Marshall	2	2	.500
McGuire's	1	1	.500
Benedictine	1	2	.333

Displaying the best form they have shown this year, the Academy team had little trouble in defeating John Marshall High School yesterday afternoon at Byrd Park by the score of 6 to 2. This victory puts the Orange and Blue team at the head of the crowd and gives them a good chance for the pennant. The losers played far below the form they have displayed in former games, and were unable to connect with the brand of twirling that Brown handed out.

All praise for the victory should go to "Monk" Brown, as he was never in better form, and, after the disastrous opening session, had the public school team completely at his mercy. Although the was wild, he pulled himself out of every tight hole that his wildness got him into. T. Miller, in centre for the winners, helped considerably, as he nailed several drives that looked like safe ones.

E. Roden, the first man up for the Academy in the opening inning, was given free transportation by Kimbrough, went to second on Matthews's error, advanced to third on Miller's neat sacrifice, but died there, when E. W. Miller struck out, and D. Roden flew out to Matthews.

"Dutch" Kuyk, the first man up in the second, connected with one of Kimbrough's fast ones for a homer to left in the third frame Pitt was safe on Pulliam's errors, went to second on Miller's out, and scored on E. Miller's safe clout. Miller was safe at second when Matthews dropped Sale's toss of D. Roden's fielders choice. Both runners scored when Wharton let Shackelford's hit get by him. Shackelford scored a moment later on Whitlock's fluke hit over short. This ended the scoring for the Academy until the eighth, when Kuyk singled with two out, went to second on a balk, and scored on Shackelford's safe drive.

All of the Marshallites' runs came in the first frame, when Wharton was walked, took third on Matthews's hit, Matthews taking second on the play. Tinsley was safe when Whitlock dropped his easy loft. With the bases loaded, Brown gave Sale free transportation, forcing Wharton home with the first tally. Asher laid down a pretty bunt, that scored Matthews, but Tinsley was called out at the plate on a rather questionable decision. This was all that the public school lads could do in the scoring line, though they had two men on in the ninth when Wood got an infield hit, stole second, and went to third on Blankenship's out. Woodward, batting for Atkinson, was walked, stole second, and with one gone, Brown caused Wharton to whiff the ozone, and Matthews drove one at Eddie Roden that the latter managed to nab with one hand, finishing the agony.

The features of the game were the pitching of Brown, Kuyk's four-ply swat, and the general bang-up game played by the Academy team. For the losers the batting of Captain Tinsley and the fielding of Wharton were the bright redeeming features. The most sensational event of the afternoon was Sale's catch of Whitlock's loft in the fifth frame. The ball was hit to centre, and "Chunky," going after it with a vengeance, stumbled just as he passed second, but caught the ball while stretched out on the ground. The score:

BRAVES PLAY LISTLESSLY

Boston, April 24.—The Brooklyns put it all over the Braves in a long-drawn-out game, and won by the score of 8 to 1. They drove Hub Perdue out of the box in four innings. Cocreham, who relieved him, was very wild, but got by except in the seventh, when a pass to Cutshaw was followed by Wheat's terrific drive in the seats in the right field corner for a home run. Three more bases on balls followed in this inning, and a single brought in another tally. The Braves played listlessly. Leslie Mann made one of the greatest throws ever seen on the grounds when he caught a fly in deep centre and doubled a runner at third base. The score:

GAME CLINCHED IN FIRST

New York, April 24.—The Phillies fell upon Fromme in the first inning of their game with the Giants to-day, driving in five runs and clinching the contest. The final score was 8 to 2. Marquard replaced him, and lasted until the seventh, when Wilhe finished. McGraw used sixteen men in a fruitless attempt to overcome the big lead.

The fielding of both teams, with the exception of Murphy, the Philly shortstop, was fast, two double plays and one triple being pulled off. The score:
