St. Louis, May 8.—Herzog's home run in the fourth won for Cincinnati to-day, 3 to 0. With two out and Hoblitzel on second, the manager lined over Magee's head for the circuit. Moran's daring base running in the fifth, when he scored from first on Groh's single, counted the final Red tally. Ames pitched a beautiful game, allowing but four well distributed hits. The score:

THE MASQUERADER EQUALS PIMLICO TRACK RECORD

Attendance at Maryland Course Falling Off for No Accountable Reason.

Pimlico, May 8.—Romping home by several lengths in 48 2-5 seconds, Ral Parr's two-year-old, The Masquerader, exhibited the quality of a rare runner, and equaled the half-mile track record, held jointly by Little King and Molsant. Had Jockey Butwell so willed he could easily have won by a dozen lengths. For some unaccountable reason Pimlico's attendance has fallen off materially, for speculations in the mutuels are much lighter than last fall. It was common to have the mutuels take in aggregate over $100,000. Up to date the largest handling figures less than $90,000.

Bally Bay, excellently ridden by Jockey Allen, scored an exciting finish with Thomas Hitchcock's Bryndor in the Baltimore steeplechase. The talent played Bally Bay and Garth heavily.

CHASE CITY HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATS SOUTH HILL TEAM

Chase City, Va., May 8.—The Chase City High School nine romped away with the long end of a 10 to 7 score in a return game with the South Hill team yesterday afternoon, and incidentally added another link to their unbroken chain of victories. Allen, for Chase City, had the visitors entirely at his mercy, allowing only four scattered hits and issuing but two free passes, and this, together with superior team work, blanked the visitors for eight innings. A single and stolen base by Carrol and a single by Vaden in the ninth inning saved the South Hill boys from a shutout. Chase City was materially aided in the scoring by the numerous errors of the visitors, who had thirteen miscues to their credit. Northington's splendid work behind the bat was a feature of the game.

HURLINGHAM COMMITTEE TAKES CHARGE OF TEAM

London, May 8.—The Hurlingham committee has taken entire charge of the polo challenge situation, and it will undoubtedly be represented at Meadowbrook by the strongest team ever sent out of the country. All hands have agreed to sink their party differences and co-operate to give the Americans the polo fight of their lives.

A round robin was hastily drawn up to-day and signed by nearly every prominent English polo player, asking Captain Harry Lloyd to take charge of the challenging team. He is the finest man obtainable for the post. He played in America three years ago. He is now doing military duty in Ireland. A special messenger left London to-night to deliver the robin to him.

It is now certain that Captain Leslie Cheape, P. M. Freake and Major Barrett will play on the team. Other probabilities are Captain Dennis Bingham, Rivington Grenfell and Lord Wodehouse. Walter Huckmaster has again refused to participate.

Lord Wilbmoine has agreed to loan his string of seventy mounts and to continue his financial support of the team, which will be known as the Hurlingham team. To-morrow's practice at Hurlingham is being awaited with keen interest.

McKee Dunn Wins.

McKee Dunn, of the Country Club of Virginia, won his match at the Chevy Chase tennis tournament in Washington yesterday by default.

Washington, May 8.—"Doc" Ayers, former Richmond, Virginia League, mainstay, was not in his usual form in his appearance against the Athletics to-day, in which the Nationals and Mackmen finished on even terms, after ten innings of play, 9 to 9.

Ayers worked the first five innings, and was found for three runs. Of these, but one was earned, but there was more hitting against the youngster than is usually the case. The second ball he served over was driven to the scoreboard for a triple by Eddie Murphy. During the five periods he allowed seven hits, two sacrifice flies and passed three.

At that Ayers's record was great compared with that of the redoubtable Walter Johnson, who succeeded him. Johnson worked three innings, allowed seven hits, including a double and a triple, passed three, uncorked a wild pitch, made an error, all of which went a long way in sending six runs across the plate for his opponents.

A triple play, the second made by the Nationals in two weeks, saved the day in the ninth. Engel was pitching, and two errors and a fluke hit filled the sacks. It was up to Catcher Lapp. However, the big fellow caught one on the handle of his bat. It hit in front of the plate, and Henry caught it on the rebound, touching the plate, lining the ball to Gandil, who retired Lapp, and returned the ball in time to make another play at the plate.

In the tenth Gedeon was hit by a pitched ball, and stole second. There were two out at the time as a result of strikeouts by Bush. Foster, who has been hitting like a house afire this season, was retired on strikes. The score:

LEONARD IS INVINCIBLE

Boston, May 8.—The Red Sox scored their second successive shutout over the Yanks to-day by taking the game, 3 to 0. Leonard was almost invincible from start to finish, striking out eleven men and allowing three scattered hits. Except for one inning, the eighth, Keating pitched steady ball. In this frame a series of hits, assisted by a Yankee bobble, put over three runs for the locals and broke up the contest. The score:

TIGERS' HITTING TELLS

Chicago, May 8.—The terrific hitting of the Tigers enabled them to win a loosely played game from the White Sox to-day, 10 to 8. Three Chicago pitchers essayed in vain to stop the onslaught of the visitors, who piled up eighteen hits, Crawford leading with four, including a triple. Dubuc was none too effective, but his team's stick work kept him in the game. The fielding was poor on both sides. The score:

MANY TURF NOTABLES TO WITNESS KENTUCKY DERBY

Largest Purse in History of Event Will Be Hung Out.

Louisville, Ky., May 8.—Many notables in turf circles of the United States are gathered in Louisville tonight to witness the fortieth annual Kentucky derby at a one mile and a quarter, which will be run to-morrow afternoon at Churchill Downs track. Interest in the event this year appears greater than ever before, owing to the fact that the purse is the largest in the history of the derby, and horsemen declare the entries comprise one of the most remarkable bands of three-year-olds ever brought together in a race in this country.

With $10,000 added, the purse this year will reach approximately $13,500, or about $10,500 to the winner. Out of forty-seven eligibles, there are ten horses which their owners have declared are certain to start, and two or three others which may go to the post.

The favorite appears to be Old Rosebud, owned by H. C. Applegate, of Louisville, which will carry 114 pounds, and is quoted at about 7 to 5. Ivan Gardner, owned by C. S. Wilson, Chicago, is assigned top weight, 122 pounds, due to winning this season's palmetto derby. Among other entries favored in the betting are Hodge, owned by Kay Spence, Missouri; Surprising, owned by R. F. Carman, New York, and Belloc, owned by James Mackmanus, the California turfman.

Among the doubtful starters are August Belmont's Thornhill, Stake and Cap, owned by Thomas F. Ryan, of New York, and W. Gerst's Brickley.

Holds Petersburg to One Hit for Six Innings, and Then Tumbles.

Roanoke, Va., May 8.—Pitcher Malloy held the Bushmen to one hit and one run through the first six innings of to-day's game, but in the seventh he lost his form, and Petersburg went after him with a vengeance, making ten hits, in addition to securing several free bases, and thus scored eight runs in the three rounds.

Swing was on the mound for Petersburg, and was steady at all times. Burke, of Roanoke, made the first home run of the season, hitting to the race track, scoring two men on. The score:

WILLIAM AND MARY IS READY FOR JACKETS

Deciding Game in Eastern Collegiate Association Will Be Played To-Day.

Williamsburg, Va., May 8.—Everything is ready in the Orange and Black camp for the battle with the Yellow Jackets from Ashland here to-morrow.

Though the team was wallowing in a miserable slump last week, the past few days' hard practice has brought the boys back into true form. The big hurler, Garnett, is going well, and if his teammates can score just a few runs it looks hard for the Randolph-Macon baseball artists.

The Jackets and the locals are tied for first place in the Eastern Association, having each won twice and lost once. In the game at Ashland Randolph-Macon slipped it to the Williamsburghers to the tune of 7 to 3, with the Jackets having the big end, but it must be taken into account that a certain Garnett was injured in batting practice just before the game, and was kept from performing.

Hampden-Sidney nosed out a victory over the Ashlanders, while William and Mary won from the Presbyterians. Both teams have defeated the Spiders, who are occupying the cellar position.

Tennis Matches in Lynchburg.

Lynchburg, Va., May 8.—Final arrangements have been made for the tennis match to be played here to-morrow afternoon between players representing the Oakwood Club and the University of Virginia. The match was intended to be held on the Y. M. C. A. Island, but on account of the early season softness of the island courts the games will be at the old Oakwood Club.

The local team will be composed of Frank J. Hall, Owen G. Shaner, Marion Howison and W. A. Davidson.

The university players will, it is understood, be selected from the following: Rixey, Kelliher, Eager, Edgar, Potts and Faulkner.

BY GUS MALBERT.

Pitcher Grimes, formerly of Birmingham, made his first appearance as a Colt yesterday, and performed to such good effect that the count now stands even as between Richmond and Jesse Tannehill's over-proud young men from Portsmouth. Indeed, Pitcher Grimes rather distinguished himself, and but for some rather weird defensive exhibitions in the sixth inning, would have celebrated his Virginia League baptismal with a shutout to his credit. As it is, he had to be contented with a 5 to 1 victory.

Mr. Grimes has many of the traits which so endeared Dutch Revelle to the local colony of bugs about the time that Dutch was winning ball games and giving more attention to his business than to the more pleasing but less profitable pursuit of the butterfly and the moth. Mr. Grimes smiles, not a stingy, smirking smile, but the broad, encompassing variety that glows from ear to ear, and from eyelash to Adam's apple. He never lost that smile for one single instant yesterday, not even when the battle was raging, and the charging Pirates were endeavoring to work in under his guard.

As chief assistant to Mr. Grimes was Manager Ray Ryan, who gave evidence that he is far from "in" as a backstop. He did much to aid his newest pitching find when the platter became unstable and began to wander around. Mr. Grimes was having something of a task to get it firmly settled in one position. Be it known that Mr. Grimes came to us with the general reputation of being a real wild man. He failed to display any lapsing moments yesterday. Whether this be because he has found the font of control, or whether because of the very good coaching he was given by his receiver, is problematical. We subscribe to the latter opinion, merely because Mr. Grimes showed that he might have been coaxed into issuing something more than the two passes with which he is charged.

It was altogether a notable debut for the Southerner. He was harrassed safely just six times, and not one of the blows was good for an extra base. Seven of the opposition breezed before his smokeball, and, as above narrated, he issued just two passes. Likewise, he essayed a change of pace in a very satisfactory manner. Had Dave Bunting handled Cook's knock perfectly in the sixth, no score would have resulted for the Pirates, and the kalsomine sign would have been hung out. In all, four Pirates reached first base through fielding blunders, one of which is charged to Grimes, who, after handling a tap from Lawrence's bat nicely, chucked it away in the general direction of John Raley, presenting Lawrence with a life.

The Colts got to Pitcher Decker, Tannehill's original selection, just as soon as the sheet had been yanked aside, Newton leading with a triple, and George Rohe following with a double. This spelled Pitcher Decker's demise, and he was derricked and sent to the baths, Pitcher Lawrence taking his place. For the benefit of Mr. Lawrence's friends, he did fairly well, about as well as any young man could do after being handed a game that was already lost. Dolly Gray scored Rohe with a nice drive into left, after which Lawrence held the local batters safe until the third.

In that self-same third Lawrence built the gallows whereby he was to make certain his death. He walked Newton and Snyder, and let Dave Bunting hit to the right field fence for three bases. The fact that a pitcher, O'Brien, was playing right field for Portsmouth, had something to do with it, but Dave gets his three-base hit just the same and the two runs did scamper over into the counting trough.

The final count of the afternoon was pushed around in the lucky seventh. Grimes picked himself out a triple and

BENEDICTINE COLLEGE TAKES LEAD IN RACE

Cadets Defeat Academy in Thrilling Eleven-Inning Struggle at Byrd Park.

AMOS SCORES WINNING RUN

Pilfers Two Bases, and, Aided by Shackelford's Error, Romps Across Plate With Last and Deciding Tally.

Coach Frank Bigby's charges downed Richmond Academy lads in an eleven-inning contest yesterday afternoon at Byrd Park by a score of 8 to 7, taking the lead in the prep school championship race.

Both sides hit the ball, but bunched hits and fast base running caused the cadets to score one more tally than did the Academy.

"Plug" Amos broke up the game in the eleventh by stealing a brace of bases, and, assisted by Shackelford's wild heave, romped across the platter with the winning run. Regardless of the wet and heavy grounds, only one error was made, and that a peg rather than a chance.

This playing of errorless ball has brought much praise from followers of the local prep schools, who declare that the games played by them are hard fought and up-to-the-minute.

The Academy lads were in the lead out once during the whole fracas, this occurring in the second, after each side had one tally to its credit. They scored one run at this stage. But the cadets came back in the fifth and scored two runs, placing them in the lead.

In the ninth the Academy bunch started in to wallop the ball, and scored five runs, tying the score. Here Coach Bigby relieved Hierholzer with Overman, and the cadets braced.

Benedictine, unable to score in the final half of the ninth, forced the extra innings with the grim determination to win, a thing which carried defeat to the McGuire camp when these two schools met last Tuesday, one week ago.

In the tenth neither side scored, though the cadets had second and third occupied, but the needed punch was lacking, and it required the eleventh inning, and "Plug" Amos, assisted by Shackelford's error, to turn the trick.

It happened thus: Amos stole second after he was given free transportation by Brown. Not satisfied, he took a long chance and pilfered third, after which Shackelford threw wild and Amos romped home with the winning run, though Whitlock made a brave attempt to nab him at the plate.

Catches by Streat, Pollard and West, for the cadets, featured, while Brown and E. Miller featured with the stick for Academy.

The Academy team played a nice game, but bunched hits and fast base running downed them. The score:
