Philadelphia, May 11.—A single by Cravath with the bases filled in the third inning gave the Phillies a pair of runs and the victory over Brooklyn here this afternoon. The losses were filled in this session on singles by Alexander, Byrne and Lobert, and Rucker was then relieved by Pfeffer. The latter disposed of Magee, and then Cravath came through with the hit which proved to be the most important of the afternoon. The score:

GIANTS HUMBLE BRAVES

New York, May 11.—The Giants took to-day's game from the Braves, 8 to 6, the contest being featured by home runs by Schmidt and Merkle. Fromme, who started for the locals, weakened after the fifth inning, and retired in favor of Marquard in the eighth. Stallings used four emergency batters in a vain effort to overcome the lead. Each of the homers was made with two men on the sacks. The score:

DARKNESS STOPS GAME

St. Louis, Mo., May 11.—Darkness stopped the St. Louis-Chicago game here to-day, with the score 5 to 5 in the thirteenth inning. The visitors scored by bunching hits through the wildness of Doak and Perritt. The home team tied the score in the ninth, when Cather led and Doak brought in by Wingo's double. Wingo scored on Magee's single. The score:

PANAMA EXPOSITION TO GET BOTH BIG RACES

New York, May 11.—Both the Vanderbilt cup race and the Grand Prix will be contested early in the spring of 1915 at the Panama Pacific Exposition. This announcement was made to-day after a conference between representatives of the Automobile Club of America, the American Automobile Association and the city of position.

The cup race will be sanctioned by the Automobile Club and the Grand Prix by the Automobile Association. The Motor Cups Holding Company, of which W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., is president, will sanction the trophies for both events. The races will take place two weeks apart on a track constructed in the exposition grounds, the Vanderbilt cup coming first.

BARON WIMBORNE WILL SAIL FOR UNITED STATES

London, May 11.—Baron Wimborne, manager of the English polo team, which has challenged for the international polo trophy held by the United States, to-day decided to sail for America May 23 with a polo team composed of Mr. Tomkinson, Major B. Y. Bingham, Major F. W. Barrett and Major C. P. Hunter.

Magee and Sweeney Fight

St. Louis, Mo., May 11.—In the eleventh inning of the St. Louis-Chicago game, Magee and Sweeney came to blows, the latter knocking the St. Louis player down before the players and umpires could interfere. After Magee had singled he tried to steal second. He says, after spiking him, Sweeney hit him in the back with the ball. He got up from the base and struck at the Chicago infielder, who dropped him with several punches in the head.

ERRORS RESPONSIBLE FOR PIRATE DEFEAT

Cook and Tannehill Help Newport News Win Out in Final Frame.

Portsmouth, Va., May 11.—Errors by Cook and Tannehill gave Newport News the decision, 6 to 3, in ten innings here this afternoon. The Shipbuilders scored three runs in the tenth when, with one out, Gondolfi drew a pass and Orebaugh was hit by the pitcher. Waiters grounded to second, forcing Orebaugh. On attempted double play Waiters was safe, Smith scored Waiters and Gondolfi by doubling to left field. Meixell singled to right, and Smith tallied. Score:

WILLIAM FOX SCHOOL IS WINNER AT BASEBALL

William Fox School yesterday won the grammar school baseball championship by defeating Madison School, 8 to 2, and thereby becomes possessor of the plaque given by The Times-Dispatch to the winning team. William Fox had already beaten Fairmount in a well-played game. On Thursday William Fox will play Madison to determine second place in the race. In the game yesterday, both Lyda, for Madison, and Thompson for William Fox pitched good games, but the Madison hurler was not given the air-tight support of his opponent.

WILMINGTON GOLFERS DEFEAT RALEIGH MEN

Wilmington golfers yesterday won all of their matches from the golfers representing the Raleigh Country Club over the links of the Country Club of Virginia, and thereby broke the tie existing between the two cities, and, at the same time, the silver loving cup offered. In the morning the two teams played a two-ball match, which was captured by the Wilmington men, four matches to two. In the afternoon they played a best ball foursome, and again the Wilmington men were victors, this time 3 to 1.

The Raleigh players were: W. Buckner, W. A. Townes, M. F. H. Gouverneur, J. F. Roache, J. W. Stanley, J. A. Stewart, T. W. Strange, C. E. Taylor and W. A. French.

Each team had won a match on its own course, and it was decided to play the determining matches over a neutral course. A large gallery witnessed the play, which at times was brilliant. Some good scores were turned in by all of the contestants. The Raleigh players left last night for the North Carolina city, but the Wilmington men remained over as the guests of the Country Club.

COX, OF NEWPORT HIGH, PITCHES IN FINE FORM

William and Mary Academy Team Secured Only Three Hits Off Him. Newport News Won.

Williamsburg, Va., May 11.—William and Mary Academy was defeated by Newport News High School here this afternoon by the score of 4 to 3. The locals failed to support Jones, who twirled a great game, fanning thirteen men and pulling himself out of many holes. His teammates made ten errors. Cox, for Newport News, struck out thirteen of the local batters, and allowed only three hits. The visitors played well behind him. Two of the Williamsburg runs were made by pinch hitters in the ninth, after two men had been put out.

NEARLY 100 SHOOTERS ARE NOW IN ROANOKE

Roanoke, Va., May 11.—About 100 of the 150 shooters expected to be here to attend the ninth annual Southern handicap are here, and this afternoon they engaged in practice shooting. The "march king," John Philip Sousa will be one of the contestants, having arrived here to-day.

A party of Richmonders arrived here this morning to participate in the handicap. They are Lewis Rieger, Elmore D. Hotchkiss, Jr., Herbert Brown, W. H. Eanes, Dr. Blanton Hillsman and W. Hunter.

Dickerman Wins Contest.

Princeton, N. J., May 11.—C. H. Dickerman, half back on last year's football team, won the accuracy drop kicking contest held on Osbourne field to-day. The kicks were made from the twenty-five-yard line. The punting contest was won by "Hash" Gile, 1916, with an average of six kicks of 52.2 yards. Gile and Shea tied for the forward passing prize.

Prep School Game Postponed

The Sox had some slight solace in the disaster, inasmuch as they dented Caldwell's record of scoreless twirling. Coombe started hurling for the Sox, and lasted five innings, three triples and a few sacrifice flies causing his ruin. Zeiser relieved him, and his wildness gave the Yankees two runs in the sixth. FRANCIS SKIDDY MARDEN WINS TENNIS TOURNEY

Cambridge, Mass., May 11.—The twenty-fourth annual Harvard interscholastic tennis tournament was won to-day by Francis Skiddy Marden, of New York City, a student in St. Mark's School, who defeated Sidney Phillips, Jr., of Andover Academy, by 3 sets to 1. Thayer captured first series of game by 6-2, with Marden then hitting his right form and winning the title by three straight sets, 6-3, 6-3, 8-6. The New York stripling had previously waded through the only semifinal match of the day defeating Robert Cooke, another Andovian, by 2 sets to 1.

Marden's two victories to-day gave St. Mark's a total of 8 points in the meet with Andover still retaining the 18 points, which won the school title Saturday.

PARI-MUTUELS REQUIRE THOUGHT AND ATTENTION

Pimlico, Md., May 11.—That one must have to be raised in the business to beat the races under the pari-mutuels system of betting was attested this afternoon, when L'Aiglon captured the second race and paid $8.55 on a $20 investment. Miss Connie Mack and Peggy Lundeen, theatrical stars of the Broadway firmament, put in ten apiece, and their reason for playing it was that they knew L'Aiglon was an interesting play made famous by Sarah Bernhardt. Besides the $20 bill wagered by the actresses, in all there was only $100 more played, so the victory wasn't very popular with the masses.

Services of players awarded: Fesperman to Charlotte; Smallwood to Savannah.

Claims disallowed: Thoman against Norfolk; O'Brien and George Debon against Charleston, S. C.; Hargreve against Durham; Mead against Texas-Oklahoma League.

SPIDERS ARE ALL PRIMED FOR LOONEY INVASION

Richmond College and William and Mary in Championship at Ball Park.

FLANNAGO WILL DO THE PITCHING

Dobson Contemplates Shakeup in His Batting Order in Hope of Getting Better Results With Stick.

Everything is now prepared for the big battle that is to be staged at Broad Street Park at 4 o'clock this afternoon between Richmond College and William and Mary. It is going to be some fuss from the time the rival student bodies march into the stands and start their line of fireworks until the last man is out in the ninth and the victorious team is carried off the field on the shoulders of their willing cohorts.

The big question right now, in the minds of all the fans, is: which team is going to assume the role of the victors and consequently obtain the free ride off the diamond? It is hardly possible to meet two men who will answer this question in the same way. To the Williamsburg adherents, nothing is in sight except a Looney victory, while the local fans are betting their good pewter on the Spider outfit to come out of the fray on top. Meanwhile, the impartial fan is up in the air, not knowing on which side to cast his vote.

A week ago there was hardly any one who would be so hold as to predict a Spider victory, but in the last week the hard practice which the Spiders have undergone, coupled with their great improvement, has made them loom up, in the opinion of many, as the logical winner of the match. Coach Dobson had the boys out at the Broad Street Park yesterday afternoon, and ran them through the hardest work of the season. There is a rumor that to-day will witness a big shake-up in the Spider batting order.

To-day's game has peculiar interest, aside from the fact that the outcome will probably decide the championship race, in that if the Spiders fail to win, it will be the first game in the league series that any one of the four teams has lost on its home grounds. And for the Spiders it will be the first game of any kind lost at home.

From Williamsburg comes the news that the Loonies are going to come up on a special train and be present to a man to cheer on their team. With the entire student bodies of both contesting institutions present, at close quarters, there is sure to be rivalry in the rooting that will run the game itself a close race for interest. All those who do not take kindly to rooting of the loudest and most prolonged character are warned to remain away from the park to-day for it will be no place for them.

Garnett, the big hurler of the Looney camp, is expected to again occupy the mound to-day for the visitors. This boy has won almost all of his games this season, but the Spiders say that he has no terrors for them, and they believe that they are going to get to his slants to-day in a way that will make him feel disgruntled. For the Spiders, Flanagan will in all probability be the choice for the twirling, and he is expected to show the visitors something in the pill-slinging line that will not be much to their taste. As previously announced in these columns, the decisions will be called by George Cowan, who has handled a number of games here this season and at all times given satisfaction.

Petersburg, Va., May 11.—Richmond won its first game in two seasons from Petersburg this afternoon when they shut the home team out. Sloan, who was in the box for the Colts, pitched good ball, keeping his hits well scattered, and with the exception of a trivial error by Raley his support was fast and perfect. Austin, for Petersburg, has not yet got rid of his hoodoo. While he pitched willing ball, his base on balls to Raley in the fifth inning, coupled with Sloan's single after two men were out, and Keller's muff of Newton's fly in the same inning, were responsible for the first two runs made in the game.

In the eighth Richmond made the only earned run in the game when Snyder singled and came home on Gray's double to left centre. Gray being thrown out at third in an attempt to stretch his hit to a triple. Fast fielding by Bunting, Newton and Busch, and Bunting and Gray's hitting were the features. The score:
