DEPRESSION OF A POINT IN STANDARD SHARES

Operations of Professional Traders in Market Aided by Bearish News.

Institution of Government's Suit Against New Haven Railroad Discounted, and Therefore Has But Little Influence on Securities.

BY BROADAN WALL.

New York, July 23.—Professional bear traders succeeded to-day in offering sufficient shares to depress the standard railroad and industrial shares an average of a point.

Their operations were aided by bearish news, consisting of damage by rust to spring wheat and corn, injury to pasturage by the heat, resumption of gold exports and the institution of the government's suit against the New Haven Railroad.

London sent over its usual range of lower prices, which were mirrored at our opening in small fractional losses. As the session wore on the floor traders put out new lines until midday, when there was a slight rally on short coverings, but this was followed by another slip, which closed quotations at the lowest of the session.

London was a steady seller of Americans throughout the session, its offerings of Canadian Pacific being particularly conspicuous. Amsterdam was also a seller of Americans.

Fear that the Baltimore and Ohio may have to cut its dividend on the common stock is causing owners of Union Pacific warrants to dispose of them rather than to take the Baltimore and Ohio shares to which they are entitled.

Brokers reported that many of their clients owning these warrants have been selling them and investing the proceeds in Union Pacific, which looked much better from an investment point of view than Baltimore and Ohio. In addition to this, Union Pacific looks cheap at present prices. A considerable part of Union Pacific's strength is attributed to this reinvestment of proceeds from the warrants.

Rock Island securities showed a faint evidence of strength early in the session, due to short covering, but the apparent hopelessness of pushing through any reorganization in the immediate future caused further offerings. The debenture 5s continued weak, declining more than four points, while the refunding 4s dropped one and a half points. The collateral trust 4s were about a point higher, and the stock a small fraction lower.

The renewal of gold exports to the amount of $5,000,000 is not expected, according to foreign exchange experts to be short lived. One of the foremost, if not the greatest, expert on foreign exchange declared to-day that he did not believe the outward flow would continue for more than three weeks, when the exports of cotton and grain would cause a drop in exchange and thus terminate the movement.

Gold shipments at this time of the year are unusual, and, according to experts, were precipitated by the covering of finance bills which had been put out, and the sharp rise in foreign discount rate, together with the heavy foreign selling of securities. These influences have caused the exchange to advance from $4.8705 last week to $4.89 to-day.

Experts say the gold is going to stay, and they do not look for any imports. They say the disposition of the American farmer to hold his crops for higher prices works to the disadvantage of this country, so far as the movement of gold is concerned.

While large investors are holding aloof and letting the professionals hammer the market, the investor is quick to take advantage of the low prices to add to their investment. Odd-lot houses report that orders have been heaviest on the long side.

Call money continued easy around 2 per cent. Offerings of money on call by J. P. Morgan & Co. at 2 per cent attracted attention on the floor of the Stock Exchange, as this is the first time in the memory of money brokers when this firm has loaned at such figures. Heretofore they have seemed to adopt a policy of never to lend under 2½ per cent. Brokers took this to mean that the Morgan interests looked for continued ease in money. Morgan & Co. loaned $2,000,000 to-day.

Institution of the government's suit against the New Haven had been discounted, and therefore had little influence on securities. New Haven stock rose a half point.

A small increase in the number of idle freight cars reported by the American Railway Association of July 15 was not encouraging, it being the first increase since May 31.

New York, July 23.—Resumption of gold exports to Paris and filing of the government's suit to dissolve the New Haven were the outstanding features of to-day's heavy and dull stock market. The gold movement was regarded as of more than ordinary importance because of the increasing financial tension shown at all the leading foreign centres. Paris, Berlin and Vienna were reported as showing signs of demoralization, a condition which found partial reflection in further weakness here. The New Haven suit had the effect of causing the stock to move in feverish fashion. Many of the better known stocks fell from one to over two points, with weakness in Lehigh Valley and Reading, Baltimore and Ohio added another fraction to its record, and Erie, Denver and Rio Grande preferred, Rock Island preferred and a few more inconspicuous stocks and bonds sold at prices seldom, if ever, before quoted.

The liquidation was broader than recently, embracing more issues of potential value. Fractional rallies in the final hours were effaced at the close, which was attended by much activity.

The general bond list continued to show a declining tendency in low-priced issues. United States coupon 2s advanced 1½ per cent on call.

New York, July 23.—Call money steady; 2@2½, ruling rate; 2½, closing 2@2½. Time loans steady; sixty days, 2½; ninety days, 3; six months, 3. Mercantile paper, 4½@5. Sterling exchange strong; sixty days, $4.85@; demand, $4.89@; commercial bills, $4.84½. Bar silver, 59½. Mexican dollars, 45½. Government bonds strong. Railroad bonds easy.

COTTON MARKETS.

New York, July 23.—There was a distinctly bullish atmosphere about the cotton market to-day, and while it showed some irregularity at the start, with first prices four to five points lower because of showers in Texas and easier cables, subsequent weather developments were so unfavorable that the early loss was speedily regained, and for the balance of the day the market exhibited pronounced signs of strength, reaching the top during the last hour. The close was steady, at eight to eleven points net advance. Bears were greatly disappointed at the volume of the extent of the Southwest rains. These were scattered about Texas, but in such small quantities as to scarcely lay the dust. The forecast was for fair conditions to-night and to-morrow, except for showers on the Texas coast. Supplementing this was a series of high temperatures in the Southwest. Hot winds at thirteen stations in Texas had a maximum temperature of 100 to 108 degrees. Pessimistic reports were received to-day from both Georgia and Alabama, where rain is said to be needed at a number of points.

Spot houses were credited with selling cotton early in the day against new crop purchases in the South but their brokers appeared to be buying cotton in the last hour.

Spot cotton quiet; middling uplands, 13.25; gulf, 13.50; sales, 350 bales.

HENRICO SCHOOL CASE TO BE ARGUED TO-DAY

Taxpayers Seek Restraining Order, Alleging Waste of County Funds in Rent of Rooms.

The financial transactions of the Henrico County School Board will again be aired in the Circuit Court this morning before Judge George S. Shackelford, when the case, having its origin in a petition signed by certain taxpayers of the county, asking for an order restraining the board from drawing on the county treasurer for funds to pay rent for rooms in the Chamber of Commerce Building, and to be used in paying for the upkeep of an automobile purchased for Superintendent Arthur D. Wright, will be argued further by attorneys.

When court convenes this morning it is understood that Attorney Julien Gunn, representing those petitioning for the injunction, will urge that the restraining order be issued without delay, although it is understood that Attorney C. W. Throckmorton, in behalf of the school trustees, will contend that the case cannot be finally decided at this term of court, and that it will be necessary under the law for the proceedings to be continued until the regular October term. Judge Shackelford will rule on this matter when the case comes up this morning to be heard.

The petitioners are contending that a great many taxpayers of the county are anxious that the financial transactions of the school board be rigidly probed at once, and that the injunction be issued immediately. Those in sympathy with the board assert that they are inclined to favor any legitimate investigation, and that there are many of the county's most influential and prominent citizens who stand ready to back up anything the board has done in the way of expending public funds.

It is likely that the contest over the board's official conduct will be a lively one, as all residents of the county are naturally much interested in the final outcome of the case. It is probable that many interested spectators will be in attendance at the trial when the case is called this morning.

FOR LOCAL OPTION

Delegate Oliver Says Eighth District Is Against Prohibition.

Walter T. Oliver, member of the House of Delegates from Farfax County, stated at the headquarters of the Local Self-Government League yesterday his conviction that the Eighth Congressional District will give a majority of about 3,000 against State-wide prohibition. That district, he said, is strong for local option, but opposed to prohibition. He predicted a local option majority in his home county, Fairfax, of from 600 to 1,000.
