New York, July 27.—The Pirates defeated the Giants, 3 to 1, in the second game of their series ehre to-day, and thus evened the count. The Giants maintain their lead in the race, however, since the Braves won from the Cubs.

Both teams did all their scoring in the fifth. Singles by Gibson, Harmon and Carey, Mowrey's long hit and Wagner's fly gave the visitors two. Stock's single and Larry Doyle's two-bagger counted the Giants' lone run.

Wagner displayed his usual brilliant work at short and Doyle and Fletcher added credit to the locals' showing. Score:

BRAVES DEFEAT CUBS

Boston, July 27.—The Braves evened matters up with the Cubs to-day by coming through in the eighth frame and hammering out two runs. The final count was 5 to 3. The Braves took the lead right under the guns, counting a pair in the opening inning by whacking the offerings of Cheney to all corners. Pierce then went in for Chicago. In the fifth the Cubs scored twice and Boston once, and in the eighth an error, a hit batter and a sacrifice bunt, with Mann's long fly and Gowdy's single, brought in a brace of tallies. In the ninth two safeties looked bad, but a foul and a fast double play saved the day. Score:

REDS BEAT DODGERS

Brooklyn, July 27.—The Cincinnati Reds won a close game from the Dodgers here to-day, when darkness caused the ending of the contest in the eighth with the score 6 to 5 in favor of the visitors.

Brooklyn took the lead in the first inning. Daubert was hit, Wheat singled and Daubert scored on a wild pitch. Cutshaw singled and Wheat counted. Brown had presented the visitors with their first tally by walking four men in succession. Enzman relieved him. In the third Enzman walked three men, filling the bases, and a single and a bad throw netted three. Athelson, who then took up the burden, received his bumps in the seventh. Herzog and Twombley singled, the latter stealing home. Miller singled, scoring both. Rixey finished the game for the Dodgers. Herzog's playing featured. Score:

CARDINALS WIN AND LOSE

Philadelphia, July 27.—The Phillies and Cardinals broke even here to-day in a double-header. St. Louis won the first, 9 to 4, but lost the nightcap to the locals, 2 to 0.

The Cardinals chased three Philly pitchers in the first affair and hit a fourth hard, piling up a total of sixteen safe swats in all. Doak allowed twelve hits, but had little trouble, as his team rolled up a four-run lead in the first inning.

In the second game Mayer held the visitors to two hits, only thirty men facing him. Scores:

HUSSANE'S AMBITION IS TO DEFEAT DR. ROLLER

Turkish "Bone-Breaker" Anxious to Defeat Lewis at Broad Street Park Thursday Night.

If Yousoff Hussane, "the bone-breaker," succeeds in defeating Ed Lewis at Broad Street Park Thursday night, and by so doing secures a match with Dr. Roller, he will have attained the ambition that brought him to this country four years ago, or he will have at least come close to that ambition, though to go back to his native country with his ambition realized he will have also to win his match from the American champion.

Hussane states that the greatest ambition of every young Turk is to become a wrestler. Every year big wrestling tournaments are held in every large city in Turkey, in the nature of preliminary elimination matches. The winners of these matches are sent to Constantinople and put under instruction of old wrestlers. After they have been well trained, they wrestle before the Sultan. The winner of the final match is put on the government payroll, and lives in the palace grounds, ready to wrestle at any and all times the Sultan may wish to see him in action. The honor of being the Sultan's wrestler is considered one of the greatest in all Turkey. Hussane fought his way through these contests, and became the Sultan's wrestler. An American theatrical promoter saw him in Turkey, and he managed to secure permission from the Sultan to tour Hussane throughout the United States.

Hussane believes that he will carry the American title back with him. His great bout with George Hackenschmidt, the "Russian Lion," is still talked about. The great Hack, after three hours of terrific grappling, failed to get one fall from the wonderful Turk. Hussane will weigh in at about 208 pounds, and Lewis will tip the scales around 210 pounds. Both men are here training hard, and will be in first-class condition when they enter the ring. The seat sale is heavy, and one of the largest crowds that ever saw a match here will be on hand. Many people from out of town are ordering tickets by mail and telegraph every day.

LONGWOOD TENNIS BOWL WON BY CALIFORNIANS

Boston, July 27.—The Longwood tennis bowl will remain on the Pacific Coast another year as the result of the victories of M. E. McLoughlin and R. Lindley Murray, both of California, in the singles event to-day. New York will hold the Eastern doubles championship through the success in the semifinals of the former national champions, Hackett and Alexander, and of Behr and Pell. McLoughlin plays Murray to-morrow.

McLoughlin, in the semifinals, defeated R. Norris Williams, II., in straight sets. Williams made numerous errors at critical stages.

Williams handled McLoughlin's terrific service better than any player seen on American courts. After his single match McLoughlin and his Davis cup partner, Bundy, played two sets against Mayrogordato and Kingscote, the British Davis cup players.

The winners in the finals in the Eastern doubles to-morrow will play in Chicago next month against the South, Central and Eastern champions. The winner in the singles event will meet W. M. Johnston, of San Francisco, the holder of the Longwood bowl, on Wednesday.

Summaries: Longwood cup, singles, semi-finals round—Morris E. McLoughlin, San Francisco, beat R. Norris Williams, II., Philadelphia, 6-3, 6-4, 6-4. R. Lindley Murray, San Francisco, beat Wallace F. Johnson, Philadelphia, 8-6, 6-3, 7-5.

Eastern championship doubles, semi-final—M. H. Hackett and F. B. Alexander, New York, beat B. Fottrell and R. L. Murray, San Francisco, 6-3, 6-3, 2-6, 6-2. T. R. Pell and K. Behr, New York, beat A. S. Dabney and N. W. Niles, Boston, 2-6, 6-4, 6-4, 7-5.

Behr, McLoughlin's Partner.

New York, July 27.—Karl M. Behr will be tried out as the tennis doubles partner of Maurice E. McLoughlin for the international challenge matches for the Davis cup. The arrangements were completed to-day by R. D. Wrenn, of the Davis cup committee, after a conference with Niles S. Charlock, chairman of the Crescent A. C.

The members of the American defending team will arrive here from Boston Thursday and go to the Crescent A. C. at Bay Ridge for practice.

Rain Stops Play at Chicago.

Chicago, July 27.—Play in the Western lawn tennis championship tournament at Onwentsia Country Club got well under way to-day, and enough matches were played to reduce the field to two score before rain fell and stopped play.

Antipodeans at Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, July 27.—A large gallery of local enthusiasts to-day visited the Allegheny Country Club, where the semifinal match between the Australasian and German tennis teams for the Davis cup will be played this week, and saw the Germans, Otto Froitzheim and Oscar Kreutzer, practice. The members of the antipodean party played golf. The effect of the Austrian-Servian crisis on the coming match was the subject of much discussion by N. E. Brookes and A. W. Wilding, of the antipodean team, and it was brought out that Wilding is a lieutenant in the King's Colonials of New Zealand. Froitzheim, who is a lieutenant in the German army, although uneasy over the war scare, declares he is going ahead with his practice.

KEESEE'S DEFEAT OF PECK FEATURED GOLF TOURNEY

Winner of the First Sixteen Put Up a Consistently Strong Game—Winners of Events.

The finals played last week in the midsummer golf tournament of the Country Club of Virginia were featured with very close and exciting plays. The most brilliant feature of the tournament was the consistently strong play of George Keesee, winner of the first sixteen. His match on Saturday afternoon withh H. C. Peck, was quite a thriller, and was won by Mr. Keesee on the eighteenth green, when he ran down a ten-foot putt on the last hole. The winners in the various events were:

Low qualifying score, Douglas Call.

Winner first sixteen, George Keesee.

Runner-up first sixteen, H. C. Peck.

Consolation first sixteen, Douglas Call.

Winner second sixteen, C. L. Williams.

BOSTON BLANKS NAPS

Cleveland, July 27.—Boston won their third victory of the series with the Naps to-day, 3 to 0. Leonard was batted rather freely, but tightened up in the pinches, while Boston bunched hits in the first, third and fourth rounds for a run in each. Speaker's all-round work featured, he getting three hits and cutting off no less than five runs by phenomenal work in the field. Score:
