WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. VA., August 8.—The social calendar for the remaining weeks in August and the month of September is full of private, subscription and semipublic affairs, while the past week has been the gayest beginning August has ever known here.

The Vice-President and Mrs. Thomas Riley Marshall, who came down here in a private car last Friday, as the guests of George de Benneville Keim, of Philadelphia, were among the patrons and patronesses at the first of a series of thes dances to be given throughout the season under the direction of Professor C. Victor Zebley. Professor Zebley for the past thirty years has had the White House classes throughout various administrations in Washington.

The tea tables were placed in the alcoves in the ballroom, and at the Vice-President's table were Senator and Mrs. Claude A. Swanson, of Virginia, Miss L. Gordon, of New York, and Dr. and Mrs. Percy L. Allen and the Misses Allen, of Philadelphia. Willis Mr. and Mrs. Philander Chase Knox, Jr., of New York, joined the dancers, the former's father and mother, the late Secretary of State and Mrs. Knox, of Valley Forge, Pa., had tea with several friends. Mrs. Edward Douglas White, wife of the Chief Justice, dropped in for a cup of tea and watched the dancers, as did Senator and Mrs. James A. O'Gorman, of New York and Washington, whose daughters and son, the Misses Anna, Agnes and Alice O'Gorman, and James A. O'Gorman, Jr., danced the new dances.

Other patrons and patronesses of the affair included Colonel and Mrs. Willis S. Paine, Colonel and Mrs. Wirt Robinson, Colonel and Mrs. James Ransom, Colonel and Mrs. Edward T. Cockcroft, Mr. and Mrs. George McMurtry, Mr. Branch, Miss George McMurtry, Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Wynne Ffoulkes, of Philadelphia; the Mayor of Baltimore and Mrs. James H. Preston, Mrs. William H. Worthington, Mrs. W. L. James, Mr. and Mrs. Telfair Marriott, Mr. and Mrs. de Courcy W. Thom, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bowie, of Baltimore; Mrs. William Haywood, Mrs. T. Ritchie Stone, Commissioner and Mrs. C. C. Method, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Paine, of Atlanta; Mrs. Jacob Phinizy, of Augusta, Mr. and Mrs. De Witt Fitzgerald, Colonel Jo Lane Stern, of Richmond.

The Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall were extensively entertained during their visit, and found time between luncheons, teas, dinners and suppers to take the air while here, as did Senator and Mrs. Swanson.

Colonel James Ransom, formerly of Branchfield, W. Va., formerly of Richmond, have been interested in an exhibition of portraits of Signor Arnaldo Tamburini, of Florence, Italy, who, with Madame Tamburini, is spending the summer season here. The signor, who is the court painter to Victor Emanuel, King of Italy, is engaged on several portraits, the portrait of Colonel Branch, which is being exhibited in the drawing-room of the White, along with several others of well known New York society people, has attracted considerable attention from art lovers here.

The first cotillion of the season on Wednesday evening was danced by seventy couples, led by Thomas H. Paine, of Atlanta. All the Richmond, Norfolk, Wheeling, Charleston and other Virginia and West Virginia girls and young men danced. Supper, with dancing between the courses during the intermission at midnight, was served in the Grill. Several hundred looked on at the affair, while the committee and chaperons sat in congenial groups.

A tomatone golf tournament will be given at the Greenbrier Golf Club next week. At the first tournament of the season Mrs. Garrett B. Wall, of Richmond, and Emory Winship, of Marion, won the club. Tea afternoon at the club Mrs. John Stewart Hays, of Richmond, and Mrs. James R. Thomas, of Charleston, gave a tournament and the Misses Bear for over 100 golf players.

Mrs. John Kerr Branch and the Misses Zayde and Louise Branch, of Pawling, have joined John P. Branch and Miss Effie Branch at their cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Spratling, of Norfolk, have arrived for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Rodgers, of Norfolk, and Mrs. George G. Robson have joined friends in the cottage colony for August and September.

Miss N. D. Kenner, of Norfolk, is at the New Greenbrier.

H. M. Meyers, of Bramwell, W. Va., has joined his sister, Mrs. Isaac T. Mann, and Mr. Mann at the White. Mrs. Mann is taking the "kur." season at the Springs would be complete, has arrived at the "White" and Jo Lane Stern, without whom no is taking the baths.

Recent registrations at the White and the New Greenbrier from Virginia and West Virginia include Mrs. M. Maury Corbin, of Fredericksburg; Mrs. V. D. Lackerkin, E. Bruce, E. H. Ferguson, John Batchiffe, of Richmond; Edgar V. Hubbard, of Branchfield, W. Va., who has joined his sister, Mrs. James Ransom Branch, and Colonel Branch; Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Hazlett, Mr. and Mrs. E. CROCKETT ARSENIC SPRINGS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CROCKETT SPRINGS, VA., August 8.—With congenial guests, delightful weather and a band of youths and maidens on pleasure intent there is nothing to prevent the daily life at this resort from being a round of gaiety and enjoyment. The weather for the past week has been most suggestive of early autumn. A log fire in the reading-room was grateful to many, and the fresh, cool air and bright sunshine alluring many to attempt walks to the falls and other points of interest which were deemed too long and strenuous for the average summer temperature.

Among this week's pleasure was an afternoon five-hundred party given on the piazza from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock. The game was finished in time to allow the contestants time for their bath and siesta before the summons to supper. Some of the players were Mrs. Lynne Nolte, of Seguin, Texas; Mrs. M. C. Thomas, of Crockett Springs; Mrs. G. A. Suddeth, of Welch, W. Va.; Miss Emma Emerson, Portsmouth, Va.; Mrs. Oscar Lyle, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mesdames T. E. Boone and James P. Woods, of Roanoke; Miss Nan Suddeth, of Welch, W. Va.; Miss Hansche, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Ellis Moon, of Chatham; Miss Bertha Leeds, of New Orleans; Miss Mary Seddon and J. Stofergen, of Portsmouth, Va.; Miss Harrison, of Wytheville, Va. The first prize was won by Mrs. Eugene Nolte, and the second by Miss Bertha Leeds.

An animated bowling contest was held on Saturday morning, in which many distinguished themselves with fine scores. Dr. W. G. Parrott, of Richmond, and J. E. Boone, of Roanoke, were chosen captains of the alleys, and were excellent in their roles and scores. G. M. Harrison, of Wytheville, was a very fair second to these men. The prize, however, was won by T. E. Boone, he having made the highest score. Mrs. Boone won the prize for women. She well made the score of 187 pins, in consecutive games. Others who entered the contest and did good work were Mrs. J. D. Barkley, Miss Morn, Mrs. Suddeth, Miss Seddon and Herbert Hartwell.

Mrs. F. P. Harmon and Miss Harriett Harmon, of Washington, D. C., have returned this summer, and were greeted most cordially by the many friends they found here.

Miss Ethel Thomas, of Crockett Springs, left on Monday for Dublin, Va., to be one of a large house party. Miss Thomas is the guest of Miss Fannie Lou Harman, who has planned many pleasures for her visiting friends. A fancy dress dance is one of the promised pleasures.

Among the arrivals this week were Charles Saunders and J. Roy Minter, of Richmond. These young men were members of a large party who visited the springs last summer. They have brought with them this season B. M. Bethel, of Richmond.

Many familiar faces and old friends have arrived in the last week, among them Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Boone, of Roanoke; Miss Grace Boswell, of Portsmouth, Va.; Mrs. L. O. Wrenn and Mrs. Ernest Rosser, of Lynchburg; E. V. Word, of Richmond; Miss Susie Penn, of Roanoke, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Harrison, Miss Evelyn Harrison, of Wytheville, Va.

Mrs. D. P. Barkley, of Lawrenceville, who has been here for some weeks, was joined on Saturday by her cousin, Miss Rawlings, of Norfolk. Miss Rawlings has with her Miss Belle Marabel, of Norfolk. Both are attractive additions to the bevy of pretty girls here.

Mrs. L. A. Suddeth and Miss Nan Suddeth, who have been summering here for the past month, returned to their home in Welsh, W. Va., on Monday. Miss Suddeth, one of the most popular young women here this season, left to join friends, and will spend the remainder of the summer in Michigan.

Miss Genevieve Block's dancing class has proved very popular. The young small ages have been enrolled as members, and forms so large a class that Miss Block has been forced to divide it into two sections, one meeting at 9:30 in the morning, the other at 11 o'clock.

Roanoke being so near this resort, sends many of her people here, who are out for a day's outing. Among those who motored here on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Penn, William Penn, Miss Gentry, James F. Woods, A. L. Sibert, G. Mukley.

Among the recent arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Kent, Jr., of Richmond, and their three sturdy boys, Clarence, Charlie and Robert. Mr. and Mrs. G. Hansche, Miss Hansche, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Palmer, of Greensboro, N. C., and her little daughter, Katherine; Mrs. Armistead and the Misses Armistead, of Churchland, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Kizer, of Norfolk, Va.

HOT SPRINGS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
HOT SPRINGS, VA., August 8.—Dancing till daybreak under a harvest moon and massive oaks a century old is the latest mode of entertaining at the Virginia Hot Springs, and credit for the idea is due to Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDonald, of Louisville, who have leased The Oaks, a Colonial plantation two miles from the Homestead Hotel, for the summer, and gave a porch party and dance there the middle of the week, which ended with a Virginia breakfast of fried cricken, waffles and other dainties served at 5 o'clock next morning.

The affair was attended by scores of the younger set at both Hot and Warm Springs. Colored paper lanterns hung from trees and shrubbery, making the grounds light as day, and a stringed orchestra of colored musicians from the Homestead furnished music for dancing on the wide piazza.

Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. George T. M. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Merridith, Mrs. Kennith Castleman, Mr. and Mrs. Castleberry Dunkerson, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Hagner, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Albert, the Misses Emerine Keene, Sarah and Louise Gibson, Anne Valentine, Charlotte T. Hatle, Adele Blanc, Cornelia, Letitia and Marie McDonald, and Messrs. John Markle, Clendenning J. Ryan, Ralph Bunnell, Joseph Eddy, Edgar Bright, Dr. R. A. Black, Donald Black, Dr. Yelverton Garnett, George Duncan, E. A. Perry, Jr., Dr. L. A. Bragg, John Stevenson, Tate Sterritt and Angus McDonald.

A motoring party to White Sulphur Springs, ending with a dinner party in the Japanese room of the Homestead, was given during the week by John Markle, of New York, whose guests filled three motor cars for the eighty-mile jaunt. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Morton, of Annapolis, Md., and other guests included Mrs. Kennith Castleman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Davis, the Misses Sarah and Louise Gibson, G. T. M. Gibson, Ralph Bunnell, E. A. Perry, Jr., and Dr. L. A. Bragg.

Clendenning J. Ryan, of New York, who is here for August, gave a dinner for twenty-four a day or two ago at Fassefern Farm. His guests included Mrs. Archibald McCrae, Mrs. Edgar Bright, Dr. R. A. Black, the Misses Mercer, Margaret, Sarah and LeMoyne Dunlap, Eleanor Bright, Prudence and Virginia Sterry, Josephine Isabelle and Dorothy Palms, Joseph Eddy, Charles Palms, Edgar Bright, Jewett Todd and Donald Black.

Mrs. Bernard J. Harrison and Miss Harrison, of Short Hills, N. J., gave a dinner at the Farm for ten, inviting, among others, Miss Mary Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin B. Valentine, of Richmond.

Dean W. F. Magie and Mrs. Magie have joined W. F. Magie, formerly Chancellor of New Jersey, and Miss Magie at the Homestead, and other arrivals this week have been Miss Margaret Krebs and Mrs. G. H. Tucker, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Michael, of East Orange; Mrs. E. B. Tillinghast, of Orange, and Mr. and Mrs. James Brewer, of Milton, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Philander C. Knox, who spent last week at the Homestead, have motored to White Sulphur Springs to join Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Knox, Jr.

The Virginia State Bar Association held its twenty-sixth annual meeting at Hot Springs this week. Several hundred members of the association with their wives and families were here, and many will remain through August. A banquet and ball were among the special diversions of the week.

Members here from Richmond included J. C. Taylor, George D. Morgan, Murray M. McGuire, B. B. Vallentine, Wallace Stevens and A. A. Patterson.

WARM SULPHUR

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WARM SULPHUR SPRINGS, VA., August 8.—Numbers of new arrivals have given an added impetus to life at Warm Springs, and the social season is in full swing. The past week has been crowded with affairs, both large and small. Fassifern Farm, a beautiful old Colonial Place, only a few miles from the Warm, and used as a tea house, has been the scene of numerous little dinners and supper parties, also affording a charming rendezvous for those who wish a cup of tea on a drive in the afternoon.

Dr. A. Y. P. Garnett, a prominent young physician of Washington, who is acting as house physician at Warm Springs, entertained at a dinner at Fassifern on Sunday evening. Mr. Garnett's guests, who motored over from the Warm, were Mr. and Mrs. William Meredith, of Washington; Miss Mary Belme, of Richmond; Miss Belle Hagner and Randall Hagner, of Washington.

Miss Norvell Harrison, of Charlestown, W. Va., sister of Henry Sydnor Harrison, gave a farewell tea at Fassifern on Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Benjamin B. Valentine, of Richmond, who has spent the past two months at Warm Springs. Miss Harrison's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin B. Valentine, Miss Kate Meade, Dr. and Mrs. Beverley R. Tucker, of Richmond, Mrs. W. R. J. Zimmerman, of Elverton, W. Va.; Miss Mary Lee Allison, of Pulaski, Va.; Miss Mary Johnston, of "Three Hills," and Miss Harrison's mother, Mrs. Caskie Harrison, from Charleston, W. Va.

After the dansant on Thursday evening Miss Ann P. Valentine, of Richmond, was hostess at a unique and altogether delightful party, a marshmallow roast, in the Casino. Delicious seasonal watermelons were served, in addition to roasting the marshmallows before a bright log fire, and Miss Valentine, a very popular and attractive member of the younger set, was given a vote of thanks for a most enjoyable evening.

Miss Mary Johnston gave a small afternoon tea on Monday afternoon on the lawn at Hot Springs in honor of Mrs. Caskie Harrison and Miss Norvell Harrison, of Charleston, W. Va.

On Tuesday afternoon a silver tea was given by Misses Louise Lewis and Belle R. Mason, of Richmond, and Miss Somers Anderson, at the residence of Miss Anderson, in Germantown, to raise a sum of money for the organ fund of Christ Church, Warm Springs. Mrs. George T. M. Gibson, of Baltimore, presided at the frappe table; Mrs. J. Henning Nelms, of Washington, and Miss Belle R. Mason, of Richmond, served at the cake and candy table, Miss Anderson and Miss Lewis poured tea. The proceeds from the tea, with several generous contributions in money from persons interested, amounted to $35.56.

Services were held as usual on Sunday at Christ Church, Dr. J. Henning Nelms, of Washington, officiating. The offertory at the morning service was sung by Miss Mary Thomas Pickens, of Alabama. A special service at 8 P. M. was held for the colored people of the hotel and neighborhood.

A motor party and moonlight picnic was given on Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. William Meredith, of Washington. Those of the party were Miss Belle Hagner, Randall Hagner, Dr. John Thomas, Dr. A. Y. P. Garnett, of Washington, and Miss Mary Belme, of Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDonald, of Louisville, with Misses Letitia, Maria and Cornelia McDonald and Angus McDonald entertained at an elaborate dansant on Tuesday evening at "The Oaks," near Warm Springs. The wide porches of this handsome old Colonial home where the guests danced, were hung with numbers of Japanese lanterns, which added their soft lustre to the bright moonlight, producing an unusually pretty effect. A midnight supper was served, after which the dansant continued until early morning when, at 5 o'clock, a real "old Virginia" breakfast of fried chicken, hot waffles, etc., ushered in the day, and the guests departed, after a very gay and delightful time.

Among those present from Warm Springs were:

Mr. and Mrs. Dunkenson, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Woodward, Miss Lillie Kent, Mrs. Castleman, Miss Adele Blanc, Mr. and Mrs. Credo Harris, Misses Elizabeth and Anne Vogt, of Louisville; Dr. and Mrs. Beverley R. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Valentine, Misses Ann P. Valentine, Emily Royall, Mary Belme, of Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. William Meredith, Miss Belle Hagner, Randall Hagner, Dr. A. Z. P. Garnett, of Washington; Mrs. W. R. J. Zimmerman, Elverton, W. Va.; Misses Constance and Margaret Stephenson and Jack Stephenson, Germantown; Mr. and Mrs. George T. M. Gibson, Misses Sara and Luisa Gibson, Baltimore; Miss Emerine Keene, Switzerland; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Belmont Davis, New York; Latta Law, Jr., Rock Hill, S. C.; Mrs. R. S. Cohen, Augusta, Ga.; William H. Felton, Macon, Ga.; Miss Mary Conrad, Leesburg; Miss Nell Reynolds, Richmond; George Duncan, Greenville, S. C.

On Wednesday morning in the green parlor of the hotel Mrs. Patty B. Semple, of Louisville, and Mrs. Benjamin B. Valentine, of Richmond, gave a joint talk on woman and her work. Mrs. Semple's subject was "Women in Civic Work," and Mrs. Semple, who has been for several terms president of the Woman's Club of Louisville, and is now chairman of the committee on legislation, held her audience in rapt attention as she told with earnest manner and in forceful language of the great work which has been accomplished during the past twenty years by the woman's club for the betterment of social conditions in Louisville, and in beautifying the city itself. Mrs. Semple is a woman of noble bearing and dauntless courage, and her words rang a "call to arms" in the hearts of her hearers.

Mrs. Benjamin B. Valentine, of Richmond, president of the Equal Suffrage League of Virginia, followed with a talk on "Why Women Want to Vote." Mrs. Valentine spoke on Equal Suffrage in Clifton Forge on Friday night.

Among recent arrivals at Warm Springs are:

Mrs. John Lyons and son, Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Bogert, Norfolk; Miss Harrison and Miss Mary Conrad, Leesburg; M. H. Royston, Misses Royston, Galveston, Texas; John Cooper, Miss Irene Cooper, Nashville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gray, Mt. Hope, W. Va.; Mrs. Albert Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hacker, Misses Hacker, Mrs. F. H. Hagner, Dr. John D. Thomas, Randall Hagner, Francis R. NATURAL BRIDGE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Natural Bridge, Va., August 8.—The recent days have been so cool that there has been a log fire in the lobby and writing-room each morning, and the summer tourists were glad to carry the morning papers and their embroidery to its cheering warmth. Lovely bracing days they have been, and as lovely moonlight nights when the whole world seemed in holiday mood. The summer season is reaching its high-tide now, and many arrivals are expected. Fisher's Band from Lynchburg has taken charge of the music for the remainder of the season, and gives excellent music, as the music-lovers and dancers of the Hill City well know. These musicians understand the mysteries of the modern dance and keep good time for the ballroom measures. On Tuesday night a large motor party came out from Lexington for supper and dancing and had a merry evening. On Friday a large party of young men from the Blue Ridge Camp, near Charlottesville, came to the bridge as their "rhike" under the care of Mr. Warner Wood and had a merry time. August 15 is the time set for the fancy ball, and a large crowd is expected then.

Tuesday morning tables were again arranged in the pavilion for a card party, and the morning pasesd pleasantly in a battle of wits for supremacy at each table. The prize for the top score at auction, a lovely basket, was won by Mrs. C. M. Guggenheimer, of Lynchburg. The other prizes, pretty hand-woven baskets of green grass, fell to Mrs. W. D. Carter, of Fredericksburg, Va., and Miss Catherine Spicer, of Richmond, at the other auction tables, and to Miss Weed, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., at the five-hundred table.

Mrs. W. H. Huger and Miss Lili Smith, of Charleston, S. C., visited the bridge on their way to the Warm Springs.

Judge H. A. Foushee, of Durham, N. C., is spending some time here, after a stay at the White.

Misses Leola D. Weed and Daisy L. Weed, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., are spending a week here while making a tour of Virginia.

J. M. Grant, Jr., of the Long's Transfer Company, Lynchburg, recently visited the Bridge.

Mrs. W. D. Carter, of Fredericksburg, Va., has joined Mrs. C. P. Ellerbe and Mrs. A. T. Embrey, and is located in the Jefferson Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Binns, of New York, recently spent a few days here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bradd, of Roanoke, came here for the week-end.

R. Clifford Hall, of the United States Forestry Bureau, spent a few days here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Feast and children, of Baltimore, Md., are among the new arrivals.

A large motor party from Roanoke came over on Thursday to spend the afternoon and evening. The party was composed of Miss Elizabeth Sites, H. G. Sites, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Sites, Mrs. I. J. Rhodes, of Welch, W. Va., and Fred Sites Harmon, of Staunton, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. White, Miss White and Mrs. R. H. Lynn, of Leesburg, Va., came here on a motor trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McClanahan and Master Elijah and Bob McClanahan, of Roanoke, made a motor trip to the Bridge on Monday.

Mrs. Ellis B. Noyes and Misses Mayrea and Elmira E. Noyes, of Portsmouth, Va., are among the recent arrivals.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Pumewill, of Philadelphia, came here while making a motor tour of Virginia.

T. M. May, of Richmond, is now registered here.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Duke, of Portsmouth, Va., are among the latest arrivals.

J. B. Edmunds, of Richmond, has joined his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Winfree and family and Miss Elizabeth Lee, of Lynchburg, made a motor trip to the Bridge this week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Bethea, of Dillon, S. C., are spending several days here.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Holt, of Staunton, Va.; Miss Mary Haines, of Waynesboro, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Rider, of New York, and Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Sprinkle, of Staunton, were a party that motored to this point on Sunday.

A large and merry house party given by Miss Cannon, of Concord, N. C., has just taken the Bridge by storm. Those taking up the party are: Mrs. J. W. Cannon and Miss Cannon, of Concord, N. C.; Misses Dalton and Wiggins, of Winston-Salem, N. C.; Mr. Reese, of Charlotte, N. C., and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cannon, of Concord, N. C.
