OVER 200 DELEGATES HERE FOR CONVENTION

Annual Meeting of Baraca-Philathea Societies of Virginia Opens in First Baptist Church.

WELCOME MADE BY M'CARTHY

Sessions Will Continue Through To-Day and To-Morrow—Dr. Lewis N. Roper, of Petersburg, Will Address Mass-Meeting To-Night.

With more than 200 delegates in attendance from all parts of the State, the annual convention of the Baraca-Philathea Societies began last night with a reception to the visitors in the First Baptist Church, where the daily sessions will be held to-day and to-morrow, morning and afternoon.

It is expected that a large number of delegates will arrive to-day, when the first business session will be held. The meeting last night was a preliminary one, and the only business transacted was the appointment of committees.

The delegates were welcomed to the city by Carlton McCarthy, of the Administrative Board and Rev. George W. Kemper, pastor of the Hanover Avenue Christian Church. The meeting began with devotional exercises, over which H. C. Hawkins presided, after which City Chairman G. Oliver Timberlake made an address of welcome, to which State President J. Geno Allison made the response.

OVER 100 CLASSES ARE REPRESENTED IN MEETING

The Baraca-Philathea Societies are interdenominational, and are formed by representatives from organized Bible classes. This city has representatives from 121 churches, while the State at large has 442 classes represented. The societies were founded twenty-four years ago, and are now in every civilized country, representing more than 1,000,000 Bible students.

In addition to the two business meetings to-day, a mass-meeting will be held to-night in the First Baptist Church with Dr. Lewis N. Roper, of Petersburg, as the principal speaker. A similar meeting will be held on Sunday night, with John Garland Pollard, Attorney-General of Virginia, as the speaker. Delegates will be assigned to every Bible class in the city for the Sunday morning meetings.

H. M. Starke, of this city, is general chairman for Virginia, with Mr. Allison, State president of the men's department, and Miss Bertha Cannon, of Norfolk, president of the woman's department.

NORWEGIAN STEAMSHIP FINED.

The Herakles Enters Norfolk Port Without Health Certificate.

NORFOLK, VA., September 3.—For entering the port without a health certificate, Captain Berg, of the Norwegian steamship Herakles, from Rotterdam, was fined $100 to-day by the custom officials. Captain Berg said he sailed originally for Montreal, but his orders were changed at sea.

The Treasury Department has reduced the fine of Captain Swart, of the Dutch steamer Texel, from $2,000 to $125 for having no health certificate.

It was held by the Treasury Department that in view of the circumstances attending the sailing of Captain Swart from West Hartlepool and as he had a permit from the military authorities of the port, the fine be reduced to the nominal sum of $125.

AMERICAN REFUGEES SAFE.

Arrive in Wilmington on Dutch Steamer from Rotterdam.

WILMINGTON, N. C., September 3.—Bringing three American refugees, Charles S. Thorpe, vice-president Pocahontas Trust Company, New York, Frederick Haderman, New York and Miami, Fla., J. Zoebel, of Rochester, N. Y., from Germany, who managed to cross the line into Holland, the Dutch steamer Goiredijk arrived here to-day from Rotterdam. Captain J. Van Duilken reports having spoken to three British war vessels while making the passage across, one of which put a pilot aboard his vessel to assure him safe passage through the North Sea where numerous mines have been planted. The steamer is a regular line freight between Rotterdam, New Orleans and Southern ports, but is now tramping because of European war she goes from here to New Orleans.

MRS. GOETHALS ARRESTED

WASHINGTON, September 3.—With the return to Washington of American naval officers who were in France at the time of the outbreak of the war it became known to-day that Mrs. George W. Goethals, wife of Governor Goethals, on the Canal Zone, was arrested at Ville Franche as a German spy shortly after the war began.

Mrs. Goethals is of German descent, and speaks the language fluently. She had difficulty proving her identity, but finally produced her marriage certificate. When the French officers learned she was the wife of the builder of the Panama Canal they could not apologize sufficiently, and her release was ordered immediately.

NAMES FLOYD H. ROBERTS TO SUCCEED JUDGE KELLY

Former City Attorney of Bristol Appointed to Corporation Court Bench by Governor.

IS THIRTY-FIVE YEARS OLD

Becomes One of Youngest Members of Judiciary in Virginia—Regarded as One of Ablest Lawyers in Southwestern Part of State.

FLOYD H. ROBERTS

Floyd H. Roberts, of the Bristol bar, was last evening appointed by Governor Stuart to serve the unexpired term of Judge Joseph L. Kelly, who resigned from the bench of the Corporation Court of the city of Bristol to become a judge on the bench of the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia.

There were two candidates for the judgeship, the other being Samuel Vance Fulkerson. Before making the appointment, Governor Stuart devoted some time to hearing the claims set forth by the friends of each of the candidates in their behalf, and looking over the recommendations and petitions filed. He eventually decided to give the judgeship to Mr. Roberts.

Floyd H. Roberts is thirty-five years old, and, therefore, one of the youngest members of the judiciary in Virginia. He is a native of Washington County, and was graduated from the University of Virginia. He began the practice of law in Bristol in 1902, and has since been a resident of that city. He served for several years as city attorney, and is regarded as one of the ablest lawyers in that section of the State. The new judge has been for several years chairman of the City Democratic Committee of Bristol, and his appointment to the bench will necessitate his resigning the chairmanship.

The term for which Judge Kelly was elected by the General Assembly expires February 1, 1926. He takes his place on the Supreme Court bench February 1.

Will Bring Back Prisoner.

A requisition was issued by Governor Stuart on Governor Locke Craig, of North Carolina, yesterday for Sam Patterson, alias George Thomas, who is now in jail in Middlesex, N. C. Patterson, alias Thomas, is wanted in Appomattox County on the charge of felonious cutting. The papers were delivered to Sheriff E. W. McKinney, of Appomattox, who will go to North Carolina for the prisoner.

Stole Locket and Chain.

James Hill, colored, was convicted of petit larceny in Police Court yesterday and sentenced to four months in jail. He noted an appeal. The negro is alleged to have stolen a locket and chain and $5 in currency from Miss Grace E. Riley.

QUITS HIS NEW KINGDOM

Prince William of Wied Leaves Albania for Italy.

DURAZZO, ALBANIA, September 3 (via Paris, 3:57 P. M.).—Prince William of Wied quit his new kingdom this morning, taking passage for Venice on the Italian steamer Misurata.

Appoints Two Members.

Governor Stuart yesterday appointed to the board of visitors of the Virginia School for the Colored Deaf and Blind, at Hampton, two prominent citizens of the Virginia Peninsula. They are Harry B. Houston, who has for some years represented Elizabeth City County in the House of Delegates, and Edward L. Ford, for many years a conspicuous figure in the local politics of Newport News and a member of the City Council.

MORE THAN FIFTY KILLED IN RIOT ON GERMAN BOAT

Outbreak of Steerage Passengers Follows Refusal of Officers to Sail for German Port.

NEW YORK, September 3.—A riot aboard the German steamer Bluecher, at anchor in the harbor of Pernambuco, Brazil, in which three of the Bluecher's crew and fifty of her 800 steerage passengers were killed, was described today by passengers aboard the Brazilian steamer Sao Paulo, upon her arrival here from Brazilian points, whence she sailed at the commencement of the European war.

The Bluecher was bound from Buenos Aires for Hamburg under the German flag, but upon learning that war had been declared between Germany and England, she put back to Pernambuco. She had aboard, the Sao Paulo's passengers, asserted, several million dollars for London, and 800 Spaniards and Portuguese in the steerage.

When Pernambuco was reached the steerage passengers insisted that the ship proceed to her destination, and upon refusal of the Bluecher's officers to do so, a riot started. The bodies of the steerage passengers killed were thrown overboard, according to the Sao Paulo's passengers.

REV. THOMAS A. SEMMES ACCEPTS SOUTHSIDE CALL

Former Rector of St. Andrew's Will Leave Covington to Come to Meade Memorial Church.

ASSUMES CHARGE ON OCTOBER 1

Minister Well Known Here as Energetic Worker, and Is Expected to Do Much Toward Building Up Congregation.

Rev. Thomas A. Semmes, of Covington, notified the vestry of Meade Memorial Episcopal Church, Twelfth and Decatur Streets, South Richmond, yesterday that he had decided to accept a call extended to the church several weeks ago. Mr. Semmes, who has been in the city for the past few days, left for Covington last night to arrange for the removal of his family to this city, and he will begin his duties here on October 1.

In securing Mr. Semmes, Meade Memorial Church feels that it is particularly fortunate, as he is well known in church circles here as an energetic worker, and one who will do much in the upbuilding of the congregation of his new charge, which has been without the services of a rector for more than a year.

Mr. Semmes was formerly rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, of Richmond, and at the time of his resignation to take charge of the Covington church was vice-president of the Associated Charities, in which he took a keen interest and proved a real benefactor to the poor of the city. It is expected that he will renew his charitable work on his arrival here.

Meade Memorial Church, which is now located at Twelfth and Decatur Streets, is considering the erection of a new building on a site which it has purchased at Cowardin Avenue and Bainbridge Streets. Plans for the erection of the building were temporarily dropped following the resignation of the rector, Rev. F. Ernest Watts, who left South Richmond to assume charge of St. Thomas Episcopal Church, in Ginter Park.

CARDINALS ELECT DELLA CHIESA AS SUPREME PONTIFF

including Cardinals Gibbons, Farley and O'Connell, tried to calm the assemblage and obtain silence.

EXCITEMENT AT CLIMAX WHEN POPE EMERGES

The excitement reached a climax when the Pope finally emerged.

He was alone, and a hush fell over the multitude. All knelt, and the Pontiff raised his hands, with three fingers outstretched, and imparted with melodious voice the apostolic blessing. A great cheer rang out as he turned to withdraw.

Even in the conclave, the election of the new Pope caused much excitement. The cardinals surrounded him and addressed to him their greetings and congratulations in Latin. All wished to be the first to kiss his hand.

Cardinals Gibbons and O'Connell, who only reached Rome shortly before noon to-day, expressed their gratification at being the first cardinals not participating in the conclave to render homage. The Pontiff embraced them tenderly, and said he appreciated the efforts they had made to come to Rome for the conclave, at much personal discomfort.

Cardinal Giacomo Della Chiesa was created a cardinal May 25, 1914. He is the Archbishop of Bologna, Italy.

He was born at Pegli, in the diocese of Genoa, November 21, 1854, and was ordained a priest December 21, 1878. He served as secretary of the Nonciature in Spain from 1883 to 1887, in which year he was appointed secretary to the late Cardinal Rampolla. He was appointed substitute secretary of state in 1901, and in 1907 was elected to the post of advisor to the holy office.

In the same year he was appointed papal nuncio of Madrid, in succession to Monsignor Rinaldini, but this appointment was canceled three days later. The incident had occurred just before he was made Archbishop of Bologna. When Monsignor Della Chiesa was given this post, it was declared in Rome that it was mainly with the object of combatting modern religious ideas, Bologna being the headquarters of the National Democratic League, whose members advocated what is known as "modernism" in religion.

In January, 1914, while still at Bologna, the present Pope issued a pastoral letter strongly condemning the tango.

It has been 174 years since the time of the last Pope Benedict. In his election to the papacy in 1740, Cardinal Prospero Lambertini, assumed that title. It is an interesting fact that the new Pope was Archbishop of Bologna, while Pope Benedict XIV. was born in Bologna.

According to a dispatch from Rome, dated at 2:50 yesterday afternoon and received in New York early to-day the White Star Line steamer Canopic bearing Cardinals Gibbons and O'Connell to Rome was not due at Naples until to-morrow. Therefore, that neither of these two Americans cardinals participated in the election of the new Pope.

That the choice falls on a cardinal of Italian birth coincides with tradition, and with expectations on account of the disturbed conditions in Europe.

It was at the age of twenty-four that the new Pope was ordained in the priesthood. He soon attracted the attention of Cardinal Rampolla, later secretary of state for Pope Leo XIII.

As secretary to the secretary of state Cardinal Chiesa was brought into notable prominence throughout the Catholic hierarchy, but his position was not at that time of cardinalist rank. On the accession of Pope Pius X., Monsignor Della Chiesa continued in the secretariat until December 16, 1907, when Pius X. gave him a noted promotion to the position of archbishop of the important see of Bolgona.

For seven years he administered the see of Bologna with notable success, until in May last Pope Pius X named him among thirteen members of the hierarchy to receive the red hat.

The full title of the new Pope in addition to Benedict XV. will be Pope Bishop of Rome and Successor of St. Peter, Supreme Pontiff of the Universal Church, Patriarch of the West, Primate of Italy, Archbishop and Metropolitan of the Roman Province, Sovereign of the Temperal Dominion of the Holy Roman Church.

He is described as a man of great spiritual character, and one of the most highly esteemed in the hierarchy. He is about average height, of stocky build and rather quiet and reserved in manners.

APOSTOLIC DELEGATE INFORMED OF ELECTION

WASHINGTON, September 3.—The apostolic delegate to the United States, Monsignor Bonzano received a cable dispatch to-night making the official announcement of the election of the new Pope to succeed the late Pius X. The dispatch was from Cardinal Vannutelli, dean of the College of Cardinals, and said:

"Cardinal Della Chiesa elected Pope; name Benedict XV."

The delegation spoke of the new Pope as a man of great spirituality, widely esteemed throughout the hierarchy, and one having widespread experience, both in the administrative affairs of the church and the diplomatic branches of its organization."

DETAILS CONCERNING ELECTION OF POPE

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]

ROME, September 3.—The following details have been obtained concerning the election of the Pope:

The announcement that a large number of cardinals, both Italians and foreigners, had agreed to vote for him, and that others were not opposed to his election was a surprise to Cardinal Della Chiesa, although his name had often been mentioned during the last few days as that of one who would ultimately triumph.

On the day the conclave opened, he told a number of friends who had called to wish him success, that he considered himself unworthy of the honor, and he mentioned the names of Cardinals Gasparri and Ferratta as more likely candidates.

On Monday evening, the first balloting revealed the fact that the opposition to Cardinal Maffi was growing stronger. The second balloting proved him still weaker. Only Gasparri held his own. The fight was now between him and Gasparri. It was then that a hurried consultation was held in the apartment of Cardinal Della Volpe, twenty cardinals attending. At this conference Cardinal Della Chiesa's name proved acceptable to all. The last to give his consent was Cardinal Gotti, who turned over his vote to his powerful friends.

The scrutiny of the ballots was in the midst of a most solemn scene. As the secretary read the ballots, his name was steadily repeated. Cardinal Della Chiesa, who was ignorant of the agreement, grew uneasy, and closely scrutinized his colleagues' beaming countenances.

When his name was pronounced for the thirty-ninth time, making the election certain, the canopies over the thrones of all the other cardinals were dropped.

Still refusing to believe that he had been elected, the new Pope abruptly stood up, and would have fallen had not Cardinal Della supported him. So overcome that he was unable to speak, the Pope motioned with his hand toward the altar, and was escorted thither, where he knelt and prayed.

On resuming his seat on the temporary papal throne he received the first adoration of the cardinals, each of his former colleagues kissing his foot and hand and receiving an embrace.

The new Pontiff's first words were of thanks to his colleagues. Then he added:

"Next to God and you, my thoughts are of the countries who are the innocent victims of this war.

"This day has been terribly saddened by the conflagration we are now witnessing. Tell my children that I will pray God to spare us further bloodshed, and to restore peace among the Christian nations."

The press remarks upon the fact that the Pope when he was elected was actually occupying apartment No. 13, as his name was the thirteenth extracted when the apartments were allotted.

Building Permits.

Permits were issued yesterday by Building Inspector Butler as follows: City of Richmond, to erect a public comfort station in Oakwood Cemetery, $2,795.

R. G. Crouch, estate of D. O. Sullivan, to build a brick store at 120 North Eighteenth Street, $2,000.

Fined $50 for Cutting.

Thomas Parker, colored, charged with cutting Elijah Gray with some sharp instrument, was yesterday fined $50 and costs in Police Court.

SCALY, ITCHING BREAKING OUT

On Face. Skin Red and Irritated. Burned Like Everything. Scalp Crusted. Face Disfigured. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. In One Month Sound and Well.

R. F. D. No. 1, Box 42, San Antonio, Tex.—"My trouble began with a breaking out on the face. There would be a rough scaly itching and dead skin formed on my face. Then it would leave the skin red and irritated and would burn like everything. My scalp was all crusted and my face was greatly disfigured. The dry crust formed on my face and would get red and irritated. My hair did not fall out but little white blisters formed on the scalp and it was pretty sore.

"I used different kinds of remedies but they failed to do me any good so one day I noticed the Cuticura advertisement in the paper and made up my mind to try them. I started using them as directed and was relieved of that burning and crusting at once. In one month my face and head were sound and well." (Signed) A. C. Small, Jan. 31, 1914.

Samples Free by Mail

If you wish a skin clear of pimples and blackheads, hands soft and white, hair live and glossy, and scalp free from dandruff and itching, begin to-day the regular use of Cuticura Soap for the toilet, bath and shampoo, assisted by an occasional light application of Cuticura Ointment. Although Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold everywhere, a sample of each with 32-p. Skin Book will be sent free upon request. Address post-card: "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."
