

The Bedford Gazette.

AT HOME AND ABROAD.

In Town.—Gen. Bowman, the able and efficient Superintendent of Public Printing at Washington, arrived here on Tuesday evening last, on a visit to his family and his old friends in Bedford. The General is in good health and spirits, the arduous duties of the office which he holds seem to make little impression on his frame. He will remain with us a week, or ten days, when he will return, with his family, to Washington.

Democrats, to the rescue!—We would urge the Democracy of Bedford borough, to stand by the excellent ticket formed on Saturday night last. No Democrat is excusable from voting that ticket, for there is not a man on it who is not well-fitted for the office for which he has been nominated. Shall such men as Jacob Reed, Geo. Remond, Thos. H. Lyons and Geo. Mardorff be sacrificed, or will every Democrat in the Borough show himself a man and sustain these worthy gentlemen by his vote? Shall not CHARLES ADAMS, who, it is admitted on all sides, will make a most excellent officer, and LEVI AONW who is one of the most efficient and attentive Constables ever elected in the borough—shall not they receive the support of the party who nominated them? There is not a man in Bedford borough who can say ought against the honesty and capacity of the candidates on the Democratic ticket, and if any Democrat refuses to support that ticket, he will do it from personal pique, or his own petty selfishness, feelings too base for any true Democrat to entertain. Therefore, let there be a full turn-out of our Borough Democracy and let them vote the whole Democratic ticket from top to bottom. Up, guards, and at them!

Candidates, face the music!—At the meeting of the Buchanan Club and Democrats of Bedford Borough, on Saturday night last, for the purpose of forming a Borough Ticket, the following resolution was adopted without a dissenting voice:—Resolved, That the Buchanan Club and Democrats here assembled, will not ballot for any candidate who is unwilling to support the whole ticket which this meeting shall nominate, and that persons allowing their names to go before this meeting as candidates, shall be considered as doing so with this understanding.

Every man who suffered his name to be balloted for by that meeting, did so under this pledge, and virtually promised to support the whole ticket to be formed by that meeting. It remains to be seen whether all that were willing to abide by that pledge in the event of their own nomination, will do so now that the opposite is the case.

Look out for tricks!—Democrats should be on their guard against the traps that are laid by the opposition to catch the unwary. They will ask you to vote all kinds of tickets, 'hog-tickets,' and for aught we know, 'cow-tickets,' in order to take Democratic votes from the regular nominees of your party. Vote nothing but the pure Democratic ticket and you will be right.

Democratic Ticket for Borough Officers.—The following is the regular and fairly nominated ticket, which all true Democrats will vote:—

- Chief Burgess: Jacob Reed.
Assistant Burgess: George Remond.
Councillors: Thomas H. Lyons, George Mardorff.
High Constable: Charles Adams.
Assessor: Joshua Mower.
Assistant Assessors: William Bowles, Isaac Mengel, Jr.
Supervisors: Samuel Davis, Isaac Mengel, Sr.
Auditor: John Miller.
Judge of Elections: Hiram Lentz.
Inspector: John Cessa.
Constable: Levi Aonw.
Town Clerk: Job M. Shoemaker.

Union School.—There is quite a furor just now, among our citizens, on the subject of building a Union School-house. Several meetings have already been held to consider the matter. 'Union' and 'Anti-Union' will be the issue in the election of School Directors. VALENTINE STEEDMAN & FRANCIS JORDAN, are the 'Union' candidates, and JOHN H. REED and JOHN ANOLD, those of the 'Anti-Union' party.

Where is the borough money?—This question is asked with great seriousness, by the Abolition organ in its last issue. We answer,—In a GREAT BIG HOLE ON GRAVEL HILL, BETWEEN SAMUEL BROWN'S and SAMUEL VONDER-SMITH'S LOTS, dug by order of a Know Nothing-Abolition Town Council! That's where the borough money is. Not only were the taxes which were due at the time this useless and ridiculous job was executed, swallowed up thereby, but a debt was incurred through the undertaking, a part of which to this day rests as a burden upon the taxpayers of the borough. Let the Know Nothing Town Council which ordered the hole to be dug, answer where the money is and let the tax-payers of Bedford borough remember on election day, what party it was that made them pay so dearly for so worthless a 'whistle.'

SIX THOUSAND DOLLARS FOUND BY A RACK-PICKER.—A few days since, Mr. Eilan, of Baltimore, dropped six one-thousand-dollar bank-bills in the street. Soon after, he was told by a person living near to a female rag-picker, that he knew she had picked up the money.—She was waited upon, and upon producing the bills was rewarded with five hundred dollars.

THE DUEL NUISANCE.—The Springfield Republican closes an article on duelling with the following paragraph:—

'We are satisfied of two things—may, of three, first, that duelling will never be effectually suppressed by law; second, that men who get into grog-shop quarrels, and seek duels, are better shot than unshot; third, that the only cure for duelling is to let 'em shoot. We would not enter on our list of friends a man who heedlessly should undertake to stop a duel. The fact is, there will be challenges and acceptances of them, just as long as the bullies know that they will not be allowed to fight. The whole thing is a farce, and is regarded as such by the parties themselves. There is no cure for this duel nuisance, let us repeat, but in allowing it to go on to its legitimate results. Our children and our young men, all over the country, are growing up with this duelling example before them, an example set by men who occupy high stations, men who ought to be representatives of the best sentiments of the nation. The idea of a duel, as a last resort of injured honor, is becoming familiar to them. It is but just to the public, that, if they have got the pluck to do it, they be allowed on all occasions of their choosing to kill each other and horrify the nation with murders that will help to place a bar upon the duel that will last.'

HINTS FOR AVOIDING ACCIDENTS IN SHOOTING.—1. Never carry your gun, under any circumstances, with the hammers down on the cap. 2. Never carry it on full cock, except when expecting game to rise. 3. Never carry it with the barrel in a horizontal position. 4. Never let it be pointed either towards yourself or any other person. 5. In going through a fence always hold it before you as nearly perpendicular as possible, with the muzzle a little above your head. 6. Never load one barrel with the other either on the cap or at full cock. 7. Never take your gun home loaded, except you immediately place it under lock and key. 8. And lastly, always consider it an instrument that may take away your own or the life of your dearest friend at any time, without a moment's warning, and do not handle it as if there was no more harm to be apprehended from it than from your walking stick or umbrella.

DEADLY WEAPON.—We perceive that a bill has been introduced into the State Legislature, which has for its object, a suppression of the iniquitous practice of carrying deadly weapons. One of its features gives power to the courts, to sentence the offenders to the Penitentiary. It is to be hoped that this measure will be enacted into a law. The practice which has been so prevalent in all our leading cities, has been productive of infinite mischief. A large portion of the murders that take place, are attributable to this vile and wicked custom. Deadly weapons, such as revolvers, Bowie-knives, knucklers and slung-shot are carried, and employed by the excitable and intemperate in moments of passion, and often with the most deplorable results. Prohibitory laws already exist upon the subject, but they are not sufficiently rigid, or are totally disregarded. Some new and comprehensive enactment is absolutely essential.—Harrisburg Herald.

REMOVED RETIREMENT OF SECRETARY CASS.—We have copied from the Detroit Advertiser a rumor based, as that paper states, on information received from persons holding intimate personal relations with General Cass, to the effect that that gentleman would soon retire from the position which he now fills in President Buchanan's Cabinet. Without pretending to any personal knowledge, such as the Advertiser's informant may possibly possess, we are of the opinion, says the New York Journal of Commerce, that the rumor is without foundation.—The Secretary is far advanced in years, but he is active and vigorous, fond of public life, and we doubt not far happier in his present position than he would be in retirement.

At the advanced age which the veteran statesman has attained, there is a liability at any time to falling health and vigor; but until that day arrives, we have every reason to believe that General Cass will prefer to occupy the position he has thus far so gracefully filled under the present Administration.

MARRIAGE EXTRAORDINARY.—The greatest marriage which, in point of fortune, can take place in Europe, is about to be contracted at Paris. A Princess Troubitzki is about to marry her cousin, and each of the parties is entitled to a fortune of $1,000,000 per annum. The bridegroom—a young officer wounded in the Crimea, being left for dead upon the field—has come to Paris for medical advice. He is fast recovering from an almost hopeless condition, with the loss, however, of the left eye and the amputation of the left arm just above the elbow. The mutilation has in no wise affected the sentiment of the fair intended, who insisted upon accompanying her fiance, to Paris, in order to comfort and attend him during his convalescence.

MEXICO.—The news from Mexico, received by the Tennessee, at New Orleans, states that the entire country was still in a state of anarchy, while the military forces of the opposing factions were mustering in all directions. Six thousand government troops were near Calaya, awaiting the arrival of reinforcements before attacking their opponents. Old Alvarez was in the field with three thousand cavalry, ready for a brush. The overthrow of the usurper Zuloaga was regarded as beyond all doubt.

The United States will be compelled, sooner or later, to assume the protectorate of that ill-fated country, as an act of philanthropy. We care not how soon the event is accomplished.

AFRAID OF THE ISSUE.—The persistent refusal of the opposition to permit the reports to be made from Mr. Harris's Special Committee on Kansas affairs, as illustrated in this morning's House proceedings, show that they dread the issue that will arise the instant Mr. Stephens is permitted to report, which he cannot do for perhaps a month hence, save by the unanimous consent of the House. That the opposition are in a minority in the House hall, on the Lecompton question, is thus clearly manifest to the dullest comprehension.—Wash. Star.

A tremendous explosion occurred at Cincinnati on Monday, at an oil factory. A tank weighing two tons fell a distance of twenty feet, and scattered the boiling steam about the neighborhood in a complete shower. Eight or nine persons were injured by the explosion, but none of them very seriously.

DIED.—At the house of Mr. William Ott, in Friend's Cove, on the 10th inst., of dropsy in the chest, Mr. Solomon Herchelroth, formerly of Snake Spring Valley, aged 52 years 10 m. & 3 days.
