TEACHING ASSIGNMENTS FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Instructors Will Begin Their Work To-Day With Enlarged Enrolment.

ANNUAL MEETING IS HELD

Superintendent Chandler and Chairman Ebel Make Addresses, and Positions for Session Are Announced—Teachers Number 670.

Teaching assignments announced yesterday by Superintendent J. A. C. Chandler, of the Richmond public schools, show that 670 teachers and instructors will begin to-day the task of teaching the 17,000 children who are expected to report for the new term. At the beginning of the school year in 1913, 596 teachers formed the public school faculty. The increase in the teaching force was made necessary by the enlargement of several schools and the addition of new departments and classes.
