AT HOME AND ABROAD.

A "big crowd."—The Abolition organ crowds most lustily over the result of the late election in this borough, and ascribes the defeat of a few of the Democratic nominees to the operation of the Kansas question. It is needless to say that that question was no more thought of by the voters at that election than the man in the moon. We have heard of but one district in the county where it was made an issue and that was Napier township, where the whole Democratic ticket was elected by a larger majority than that given for our candidates last Fall. The questions which were passed upon by our late borough election, were purely local. The subject of building a "Union-School-House" absorbed every thing else on the arena of the contest. In fact, certain Democrats were so profoundly interested in this School question that they allowed certain Abolitionists who pretended to be on their side of that question, to draw the wool over their eyes so completely as to persuade them that if they (the Democrats) would vote the Abolition-Know-Nothing ticket they (the Abolitionists) would vote for the candidates for School Directors which they (the Democrats) desired to have elected. These Democrats, eight in number, "sold their birthrights for a mess of pottage" and were cheated out of the "pottage," into the bargain. The Abolitionists who persuaded them to vote their ticket, when they found that they had secured their victims, faced about, and labored with all their might to defeat the candidates for School Directors they had bargained to support. Let those Democrats remember hereafter, that to trust to the honesty, or magnanimity of their political opponents, in election matters, is to hand them a club where-with to knock out their brains. That's so!—The only wonder is, that under the circumstances, any of the Democratic nominees were elected. There were eighteen Democrats absent from the polls who voted in this Borough last Fall, and eighteen, it will be remembered, was Parker's majority over Wilmot and Hazlehurst combined. Thus, the falling off in the Democratic vote, is easily accounted for, and it is shown that we must have gained votes since last October, or our whole ticket would inevitably have been defeated. The whole vote of the combined opposition was polled and it was the same precisely (one hundred and five) which was cast last Fall for Wilmot and Hazlehurst. So that they have not gained a single vote since the last election, even conceding to them the eight Democrats who voted with them on the School bargain. The twelve Democrats who were at home on election day and were able to go to the polls, but did not, can lay the very "blatting" unction to their souls, that if they had done their duty, the insulting language which the Abolition organ applies to the Democratic candidates who were defeated, would never have been written. Let this be a warning to them, hereafter, to act as Democrats should act—to turn out to the polls on all occasions, when life and health will permit—for if opponents succeed in electing any of their candidates, even though it be only a fence-inspector, they shout and crow and try to make capital of it against the Democracy. As to the contemptible flings made at the Democratic candidates for High Constable and Assessor in the last issue of the Abolition organ, those gentlemen authorize us to say that they would rather be slandered, than praised, in the columns of that sheet. Messrs. Adams and Mower rightly conceive that it is honorable to be a "stranger" to a party which is in the leading strings of a band of traitors to their country.

A Good Joke.—The Abolitionists in the last issue of their organ, say, "the Locusts Buchanan ticket was beaten, in the strong Locusts township of Colerain, by the union of the opposition. The work goes bravely on! Bedford county will be right side up next fall and no mistake." Ph—w! That is decidedly a joke, now. The Democrats were beaten in Colerain township, were they? They didn't elect the entire election-board, didn't they? They didn't elect their candidate for Judge (for which office a strict party vote is always cast), by an overwhelming majority? Ha! ha! ha! what jokers these Abolitionists are! And the work goes bravely on, does it?—And Bedford will be right side up next Fall, will it? You might make us believe these things, Messrs. Abolitionists, if you hadn't told us last year, that your candidate for Prothonotary, and your candidates for the Senate and the Legislature would be elected, which prophecy, you know, wasn't fulfilled, by any means. But, beg on and bluster away, for you will need all the gas you can raise to inflate your political bubbles. Kansas in Congress.—The previous question was to be moved to-day (Thursday) in the Lower House of Congress, on the question of the admission of Kansas with the Lecompton Constitution. The vote will be very close, both sides claiming a majority. The chances, we think, are in favor of admission. Ladies in Lucknow.—Perhaps you have not heard that three ladies are known to be in Lucknow, where they are confined in one small room, but protected by a Vakeel. Two of them are the widows of officers who have fallen; but it is supposed they have not heard of the death of their husbands. A letter from one of these has reached its destination; it was affecting to find that the writer had lost all note of the passage of time, asking when it would be Christmas? As soon as Sir James Outram became aware of the facts he ordered the rebels £15,000 for their ransom which Lord Canning immediately doubled.—Calcutta Letter.

Westley Frost, the Democratic Candidate for Canal Commissioner.

A SADDLER BY TRADE, A DEMOCRAT BY NATURE.

Our county has been honored by the recent Democratic State Convention in the nomination of one of her most worthy citizens for the important office of Canal Commissioner. As a public man, Westley Frost is somewhat known to the people of the Commonwealth; and we propose to give a very brief sketch of his private life and character. Like most of the leading men of the age he arose from the humblest walks of life. In his youthful days there was no boy on the playground who could say with truth that he was poorer in this world's goods than Westley Frost. At an early age he was bound by indentures to the saddling business.—In his intercourse with his companions and his department to his employer he gave promise of those sterling qualities of head and heart which in after years commended the man to the confidence and esteem of his fellow citizens. So correct was he in his deportment and so true to the instincts of his nature that even in his boyhood days "his word was considered as good as his bond with approved security." He served his time faithfully and honestly agreeably to the custom he received his "freedom suit" accompanied by the kindest and best wishes of his employer and all his household. Of industrious habits he immediately upon being freed from his indentures commenced work as a journeyman, and by industry and economy saved from his earnings a comfortable maintenance. Ambitious and energetic he soon set up business for himself. He applied himself industriously and attentively to carrying on his trade; and as he grew in age he grew also in the confidence and affections of his neighbors. Trained in the school of adversity, his political sentiments were very naturally those of the Democratic party, and he adhered to them with all the tenacity of his nature. Having made himself known to the people of his county by his discreet and efficient support of Democratic principles and usages, he was nominated by his party in the stirring times of 1844 for the office of sheriff. He was triumphantly elected over the candidate of the whig party, who was a brother-in-law, and one of the most popular men in the opposition ranks. As sheriff of his county no man ever left a better record than Westley Frost. Upon retiring from the office of Sheriff he returned to his home in Brownsville, resumed work at his trade, devoting when occasion required it, a portion of his time and attention to the success of his party, until the Spring of 1852, when he was appointed by President Pierce, Marshal of the Western District of Pennsylvania. Here his abilities were called into a more extended field, and he proved himself fully equal to the high duties devolved upon him. It was in this office that he came in contact with his fellow citizens of different sections of the State, and by his courtesy, affability and dignified deportment made himself a State popularity. As Marshal of the Western District he was all that could be expected of a public officer in the discharge of his duties, and courteous and dignified in his intercourse with his fellow citizens. He held this office four years, and at the expiration of his commission returned to Brownsville, and again resumed work at his trade. Indeed while Marshal of the District, it was not an uncommon thing to see him at work in his shop for at intervals of relief from his public duties he invariably put on his apron and went to work at his trade. He is at this time engaged at his trade in Brownsville, under the old sign of "Westley Frost, Saddler and Harness Maker," and when his friends call to see him, they are kindly received in his shop, where they find him with his coat off and apron on as intently and industriously engaged in working at his trade as he was in the earlier and less fortunate days of his life. In addition to being an industrious mechanic, Westley Frost is a high minded honorable gentleman, and no man stands higher than he does in the estimation of his fellow citizens of all parties. His nomination for Canal Commissioner was a compliment worthily bestowed, and will be responded to at the polls by the people of the South Western counties, in the most emphatic terms of approbation.

Twenty Years' Sentence of a Woman.—Huldah Morrison, the wretch who set fire to the Astabula county (Ohio) infirmary, by the burning of which seven persons lost their lives, pleaded guilty to the indictment, and was sentenced to the penitentiary for twenty years. What Sort of an Animal a "Snob" is.—Thackeray thus dignifies this animal.—We warn our readers against considering this picture as personal. Thackeray is speaking of English society: "A snob is a man or woman who is always pretending before the world to be something better—especially richer or more fashionable—than they are. It is one who thinks his own position in life contemptible, and is always yearning and striving to force himself above, with the education of characteristics which belong to it—one who looks down upon, despises and overrides his inferiors, or even equals of his own standing, and is ever ready to wring, fawn upon and flatter a rich or titled man, not because he is a good man, a wise man, or a Christian man; but because he has the luck to be rich or consequential."

MARYLAND STATE LOTTERIES. R. FRANCE & CO., MANAGERS.

Persons living at a distance should be extremely cautious of whom they order Lottery Tickets or Certificates of packages of Tickets. The country is flooded with bogus and swindling Lotteries. Every inducement is held out to get persons to invest money in them. Capital Prizes of from $20,000 to $100,000 in cash, and tickets at One Dollar, $100.00 each. Prizes are offered, tickets $5. All such, in every instance, are frauds; if money is sent for tickets, it is so much thrown away without the shadow of a chance of getting a prize. Beware of all Lotteries where the Capital Prize is unusually large in comparison to the price of tickets. In every instance where large prizes are offered for a small cost of tickets, put it down as a certain fraud. The Kentucky State Lottery for the benefit of the Shelby College, under our management, is the only Lottery in the United States which is legally decided by the Maryland State Lottery Managers, and which purport to be decided by the Maryland Drawings, are frauds. One thing look to, and that is, if you order from any licensed vendor in Baltimore, do not receive any but Managers' Tickets and Managers' Printed Certificates of Packages. The Managers' Certificates have the number printed, and have the lithographed signature of R. France & Co. No one has right to send his individual certificates, and if he does it, be sure there is a fraud at the bottom of it. R. FRANCE & CO. Managers of Maryland State Lotteries.
