COLTS DEFEAT CUBANS IN BRILLIANT CONTEST

Strain Allows Only One Hit, and Locals Spread the Kalsomine Freely.

RYAN ARRANGES FIELD DAY

Throwing the Ball, Running Bases and Other Stunts Will Preceed the Game To-Day, Which Will Be the Last of the Series.

By defeating the Long Branch Cuban baseball team by the score of 1 to 0, at Broad Street Park yesterday afternoon, the Colts took two out of three games played in the present series, and at the same time figured in one of the most brilliant exhibitions ever witnessed in this city.

Only a handful of stanch fans attended the game, and were well repaid for visiting the park. Strain and Mace formed the battery for the locals, and the former had the visitors eating out of his hand at all stages; Strain only allowed one hit, a Texas leaguer over first base, and this came after two men were down in the ninth inning.

The Cubans put up a peppery contest, this is especially true of the left fielder, Padron, who nailed two runners at the plate on perfect throws. These plays came in the third session, when a batting rally was about to be staged by the Colts.

The visitors had their star battery in action, and the Colts hit Acosta for a total of seven bingles, three of which came in the third, two in the fifth and two in the ninth innings; in the other sessions the locals were helpless, going out in order.

The Colts scored their lone tally in the final session on a safe bunt by Newton. Cain's neat sacrifice and Whitted's healthy swat to centre.

Field Day at the Park.

Manager Ryan arranged with the visitors to remain over to-day and participate in a field day at Broad Street Park. This will be followed by the fourth and final game of the series.

The Cubans claim that they have two players in their line-up who can throw a ball out of the lot over the clubhouse standing at the home plate, and also say that several of their men can circle the bases in faster time than any of the locals.

Ryan will give the visitors a chance to make good on both assertions, and promptly at 3:45 o'clock to-morrow afternoon Ed Lewis, the wrestler, will call the athletes to the plate and act as referee in the field sports. In addition to the ball throwing and base running, there will be other stunts featured for the benefit of the audience.

At 4:15 o'clock the game will be started, with Ramey, who won the opening game, on the mound, and it is likely that Padone will be the Cuban's selection.

As the proceeds of the game will go to the players, it is hoped that a large crowd will turn out to cheer the locals.

The Colts did well during the season finishing second in both series and it is up to the fans to recognize the good work of the representatives of this City on the Diamond.

Saturday will close the baseball season in this city. The Alcos, amateur champions of Richmond and winners of the intercity championship, will hook up with the Colts in a double-header after which the players will scatter to their respective homes.

Manager Ryan will likely make this city his home during the winter as he is considering entering into business. The score of yesterday's game:

CARL RAY RESPONSIBLE FOR DEFEAT OF THE TARS

Aided by Heavy Hitting, Winston-Salem's Twirler Takes Third Game of Post-Season Series.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., September 16.—Carl Ray came back strong against the Norfolk Tars here this afternoon, and he was excellent pitching, aided by the heavy and timely hitting of his teammates, won the third game of the series by the score of 9 to 2. After the first two innings the local southpaw had the Virginians eating from his hand, and did not allow them a hit from the first until the eighth inning.

He was opposed by Gaston, a spitball artist, who was in hot water continually. After the third inning the locals hit and scored at will. The game was featured by home runs by Gates and Steinbrenner. The score:

BOSTON, September 16.—In a hair-raising, nerve-racking battle the Braves put one over on the St. Louis Cardinals this afternoon, winning by a score of 6 to 3. It was a very long game, full of kicks on the part of the visiting players. With the score a tie in the eighth, the Braves put over three runs. It was Evers day, and the captain of the Braves played one of the best games of his career. Tyler was effective most of the time, but gave the crowd some nervous moments. The score:

PULLS ONE ON THE ATHLETICS

PITCHER RAY KEATING, OF THE NEW YORK YANKS.

A square piece of emory paper, worn in the palm of Ray Keating's glove during the last game between the Yanks and the Mackmen will probably be responsible for a lot of new baseball legislation. After the game in question Umpire Connolly sent to President Ban Johnson, of the league, two scarred baseballs and several bits of black paper he had picked up on the diamond. When Keating's trick was discovered Connie Mack told the umpire that he would protest the game, but upon reviewing the rules he found that there is no rule that precisely covers the case.

During the game Keating was seen to twist the ball several times in his glove before flinging it. By roughening the leather he was able to throw a ball absolutely new to the Athletic batsmen. It is expected that a new rule will be passed next winter forbidding pitchers to use any foreign substance on the ball.

JOHN MARSHALL HIGH SCHOOL ELEVEN PRACTICE

Coach Simpson Puts Eight Streeters Through Stiff Workout—First Game Next Week.

In answer to Coach Simpson's call, fifty-one John Marshall High School men reported at Byrd Park yesterday for the season's initial practice. Of the last year's squad Brumble, Bethel, L. Turner, C. Turner, Bradbury, Core, Sales, Terry, W. Owens and Johnson are back with the public school lads, and with the wealth of new material on hand it is expected that the Marshallites will make a strong bid for the city championship.

The squad was put through a gruelling workout, and Coach Simpson expressed his satisfaction at the manner in which many of the new men carried themselves.

Brumble and Johnson did some fine punting, and give promise of developing into extraordinary good kickers before the season grows old.

Manager Hargrove has announced that a heavy schedule had been arranged for the coming season, the first game being with Chester High School, probably some time next week. It will be remembered that Chester defeated the Marshallites last year, and the Eighth Streeters are out for blood, so a battle royal may be expected when they meet the "Farmers," who are themselves no less determined to win.

As a whole the High School squad shows promise of an excellent team.

The coach is not handicapped, as he was last year by lack of old material, as ten men of last year's squad are back, and the public school lads are determined to recapture the city championship, which they lost last season after holding it for five consecutive years.

MISS BISHOP OUTPLAYED BY MISS E. V. ROSENTHAL

Former Champion Lost Golf Match at Glencove, 6 Up and 5 to Play.

GLENCOVE, N. Y., September 16.—Both of the Chicago representatives in the national women's golf championship tournament won their matches in to-day's round. The other Western entry, Mrs. E. H. Steedman, of St. Louis, did not play her match, going by default to Miss Florence McNeely, of Philadelphia.

Miss Elaine V. Rosenthal, of the Revisloe Country Club, Homewood, Ill., outplayed Miss Georgiana Bishop, Brookdawn, Conn., a former national champion, 6 up and 5 to play. Miss Caroline Painter, Midlothian Country Club, Blue Island, Ill., at the turn made a wonderful recovery on the homeward journey and won cleverly, 3 up and 1, from Mrs. H. R. Stockton, of Plainfield, N. J.

Mrs. A. H. Jackson, Oakley, Mass., the only former champion left in the tournament, beat her club-mate, Miss E. W. Allen, 3 and 2, and the other Oakley player, Mrs. E. W. Daley, was beaten by Miss Ethel Campbell, of Overbrook, Pa., by a margin of 2 and 1.

Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow, of Philadelphia, champion, easily won her match with Mrs. Isaac Parker, of Staten Island, 6 and 5, and another Philadelphian, Mrs. C. H. Vanderbeck, beat Miss C. C. Robertson, of Belfort, N. Y., 7 and 6.

The final match of the day was scarcely a test of ability for Miss Lilian B. Hyde, Metropolitan titleholder, as she had no difficulty in beating Mrs. J. E. Davis, of Glencove, 7 and 6.

A batting rally by the Browns in the seventh round, good for three runs, decided the second game, the Sox being unable to score until the ninth, when they tallied once. The scores:

TWENTY-TWO CANDIDATES REPORT TO COACH DOBSON

Richmond College Will Have Strong Eleven on Gridiron—Ten Last Year's Players in Line-Up.

PREP SCHOOLS CONTRIBUTE SIX

Number of New Men Expected When Institution Opens To-Day—Spiders to Play First Game at Chapel Hill September 25.

Twenty-two candidates for the Richmond College football team reported yesterday to Coach Frank Dobson, and were put through a brisk practice at the new stadium near Westhampton. The work was all of a preliminary nature, and dealt chiefly with the rudiments of the game. Heavier practice will begin after the college term opens to-day.

Football prospects at the local institution are particularly bright, and Coach Dobson has ten veteran players as a nucleus around which to build his team. The new material, while not extra heavy, includes a number of prep school stars of last season, giving the instructor men of experience to work upon. Although the students have not yet matriculated, a number of husky looking fellows are in town, and several were out for practice yesterday, and more are expected.

Among the regulars on last year's eleven who are out already are King, Ancarrow, Klevesahl, Pollard and Wicker, backs; Jones, Newton and Privett, ends, and Robins and Colburn, tackles. The team is shy on veteran guards, and a centre will have to be developed. For the latter position there are already three candidates in John Wicker, substitute centre last season; Craven, of McGuire's, and Carter, of Highland Park.

Six From Local Prep Schools.

The local prep schools have contributed six stars to the list of candidates. From McGuire's comes Bruce, a backfield man, and Craven; from John Marshall High School, Craig and Cosby, both fast backs, with experience on the ends, and from Richmond Academy, Roden and Pitt, both backfield men.

There is considerable talk on the campus of a number of new men who are to report. Among them are several Blackstone and Fork Union Academy players, and Logan, former half back on Clemson. None of these men have yet shown up, but they are expected daily.

College will open to-day for matriculation, and a large squad will be out this afternoon. The first game of the season will be on September 25, when the Spiders meet North Carolina at Chapel Hill. The first game scheduled on the local gridiron is on October 17, between Randolph-Macon and Hampden-Sidney.

The Spiders will be led this season by Newton Ancarrow, who is playing his third season on the team. Ancarrow was the mainstay of the team in the backfield last year, and will make a forceful leader. Brook Anderson, the former High School athlete, will manage the team.

GILMORE WILL EXPLODE BASEBALL BOMBSHELL

Is Laying Plans for Next Year, and Has Surprise to Spring on Public During the Winter.

THREE TEAMS MAKE MONEY

Baltimore, Chicago and Buffalo Will Close First Season Ahead—Federal League Did Not Blow Up as Some Expected.

"Those people who have been yearning for the job as undertakers for the Federal League are due for a keen disappointment," declares James A. Gilmore, president of the Feds. "The Federal League, as may be noticed, still lives, and will continue to live. It will be the liveliest proposition in the country in 1915.

"We are laying our plans for 1915 now. Some few things may happen during the winter, to the advantage of the Feds, that will be a big surprise to the baseball public. I am not in any position at this time to intimate what they are.

"I have noticed that some of the powers in organized baseball have stated that they will not make peace with us—that they will not take us in with them. Who has asked them to? We don't expect it, and aren't keen about it. We can get along very nicely acting independently of organized baseball. If we ever enter organized baseball you may be assured we will do so at our own terms.

"When we started the season there were many who predicted that we would 'blow up' by May 1. Then they shifted our finish date to June 1, and when we failed to explode at that time they named July 4. Lately that element has given predicting, probably through disgust because of their erroneous early predictions.

"We broke into baseball during one of the worst years in its history. It was a year in which even the old, established baseball magnates became discouraged. We've lived through it very nicely.

"At the present time we have under contract about a dozen of the top-notch players in the American and National Leagues. These players will remain with their organized clubs until the season ends and their contracts expire. Next year they will be with us.

"In the meantime we are developing some young stars in our own league, and when the 1915 season opens you will see the Feds with enough of the American and National League stars and enough of our own stars to put up a class of baseball that is equal to the best in the other two big leagues.

"From time to time some writers who are antagonistic toward our league publish 'reports' that some of our magnates are going to jump to organized baseball. Such 'reports' are laughable. There is absolutely no foundation for any of them, and the writers print them merely with the hope of trying to create public belief that the club owners in our organization are not satisfied.

"From time to time you hear that Charlie Weeghman, owner of the Chicago Feds, is on the point of quitting us and taking a franchise in either the American or National League, or the American Association. Weeghman is one of the most enthusiastic Federal League club owners. He wouldn't take as a gift a franchise in organized baseball if the acceptance of the gift forced him to relinquish his Federal League holdings. It is the same way with the Wards, with Otto Stifel and every other Federal League owner. They are Federal League men first, last and all the time and they are with us to stay.

"Some of our clubs made money in 1914. Some haven't. All of us went
