AUCTION SALES—Future Days.

CASSELMAN & CO.,
Real Estate Agents and Auctioneers.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust dated March 7, 1911, default having been made, a portion of the debt thereby secured and being required by the trustee so to do, we will sell in front of the post-office at public auction, in the city of Richmond, Va., on

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 21,
at 2 o'clock P. M.,

the following described property to-wit: That certain piece or parcel of land lying and being in Amelia County, Va., containing 5 acres with all improvements thereon; also a grist mill, with all machinery and appurtenances thereto.

TERMS: Sufficient to pay the expenses of executing, together of $175, with interest to date. Balance, if any, to be announced at the sale.

Trustee's Sale of the Handsome Three-Story Brick Store

No. 705 West Broad Street

By virtue of the provisions of a certain deed of trust dated February 25, 1913, and recorded in Deed Book 221-B, page 135, Richmond Chancery Court, default having been made in the payment of a part of the debt secured, and being required so to do, I will sell at public auction, on the premises, on

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1914,
at 5 o'clock P. M.,

the above property, described in said deed as follows: "All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land, with the improvements thereon, known as No. 705 West Broad Street, lying and being in the city of Richmond, Va., commencing at a point on the south line of Broad Street, distant 200 feet east of the southeast corner of Broad and Laurel Streets, thence running eastwardly and fronting on the south line of Broad Street twenty (20) feet and running back southwardly between parallel lines (the western line running through the centre of the party wall between the improvements on this property and that adjoining it on the west) 140 feet to an alley 17 feet wide."

The improvements consist of a modern and handsomely constructed three-story brick store building, and its location is just such as would justify a purchase with the view of future enhancement.

This sale is made subject to a prior deed of trust securing the principal sum of $11,000 with interest from August 25, 1914, the payment of which said sum and interest to be assumed by the purchaser.

TERMS: Cash as to expenses of executing this trust, any taxes due and sufficient to pay the sum of $2,811.79 with interest from February 25, 1914; the assumption by purchaser of the mortgage above referred to, and the residue in two equal payments at one and two years with interest, or all cash, as to the residue, at the option of the purchaser.

C. L. DENOON, Trustee.

ATTENDANCE NOT HURT BY FINANCIAL STRINGENCY

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., September 17.—Despite the financial stringency arising from the European war, there seems to be no falling off in attendance at the University of Virginia. On the contrary, there is every indication of a banner year. When the registration office closed to-day, there were 820 registrations, as compared with 800 last year.

An analysis of the registration figures shows a general falling off in the professional departments with a consequent increase in the college. This would seem to indicate that there are more Virginians registered than hitherto, for they make up a large percentage of the students in the academic department. Many men who would have come to study law from the Southern States have been prevented by the general decline of the cotton market, it is said.

The general condition of affairs is very gratifying. There is every prospect of having 950, or even 1,000 students, before the close of the year.
