BILLIARD PLAYERS SCHEDULE ARRANGED

Four Teams to Open in Various Sections on October 5—Sutton and Schaefer Will Contest Here.

FANS WILL SEE THEM ALL

At End of Each Six Weeks Line-Up Will Be Rearranged So as to Give Champions a Chance to Play Each Other.

The Champion Billiard Players' League begins its initial season October 5. It has been but a few weeks since this new organization was formed, but so rapidly has the movement progressed that everything is ready for the opening, and the success of the big venture is already assured.

That all the preliminary work has been completed, and the opening is to be on schedule time reflects credit upon the energy and systematic effort of those who are promoting the plan.

Eight of the foremost players of the world will compete during the season of seven months for the honors of the league, and 140 cities have been granted franchises, in each of which four league contests will be held.

The teams for the first swing around the circuits and the cities for the opening games have just been announced by President Burton Mank.

Team number one, composed of Welker Cochran, the boy wonder and the youngest member of the league, and Ora Morningstar, they will start on their tour at Dowagiac, Mich. This circuit is through Southern Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Nebraska and Illinois, ending after five weeks at Chicago.

Albert Cutler and Calvin Demarest compose the second team, which will make its league debut at Detroit. This circuit extends southwest through Illinois, Missouri, Oklahoma and Arkansas, and ends at Springfield, Ohio, returning through Tennessee and Kentucky.

The third team, George Sutton and Jake Schaefer, opens at Toledo, Ohio. Ashland and Steubenville are then visited, the route continuing in a southeastern direction through West Virginia, Southern Pennsylvania, Virginia and Maryland, returning to Cleveland via Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

The other team, Koji Yamada, the Jap, and Harry Cline, starts at Buffalo, and includes the league cities in New York State, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut and New Jersey, closing at Sandusky, Ohio, returning through Northern Pennsylvania and Southern New York.

Each team is to play six contests each week and five weeks will be required to complete each circuit. At the end of each five weeks during the season the personel of the teams will be rearranged and every city on each circuit will be visited again until six trips have been made. In this way, each player will be able to play the same number of games with every other player, and it will be easy to keep a complete percentage table of the games lost and won by each player.

The league begins its season under the most favorable conditions. Not only are all of the players primed for the season matches and eager to begin, but each holder of a franchise is enthusiastic over the prospects, and is making elaborate preparations for the reception of the various teams, which are to visit his city during the season.

PFEFFER ALLOWS ONE HIT

BROOKLYN, September 19.—Brooklyn took both games from the Reds in a double-header to-day. Pfeffer allowed Cincinnati only one hit in the first game. With two men fanned in the eighth, it looked like a no-hit game for Pfeffer, but Kellogg walked, and Pitcher Yingling drove the ball past Daubert for a hit.

The second contest was an uphill climb for Brooklyn, and Wheat's single, a sacrifice hit and hits by Egan and Miller got what proved to be the two winning runs in the eighth. Score:

ALBRIGHT MAKES GOOD SHOWING CARLISLE

CARLISLE, PA., September 19.—Albright College made a creditable showing against the Carlisle Indians here to-day in the initial game of the football season, being defeated by the score of 20 to 0, no points being made in the first and last periods, thirteen in the second, and but seven in the third.

While the contest was gruelling throughout because of the intense heat, Carlisle granted unusually short quarters, and refrained from trying to roll up a big score, coaching from the side lines being permitted.

The game was played without jars, was clean and well officiated over.

NAPS WIN ANOTHER

CLEVELAND, O., September 19.—The Naps triumphed over the Red Sox in their final clash of the year, 5 to 1, today. Tedrow started his second game for the locals, holding Carrigan's men to seven hits. The youngster was rather wild, issuing seven passes, but pitched well in the pinches. Three doubles in the seventh, good for as many runs for the Naps, settled the argument. Score:

DETROIT, September 19.—Eddie Plank started against Detroit to-day for the second time in the three-game series, and again failed to finish, the Tigers winning out, 4 to 2.

The veteran permitted a two-run lead in the opening round, and the Athletics could never overcome the lead. Harry Davis hit for Plank in the eighth, Bressler finishing.
