BOSTON, MASS., September 22.—The Braves made a clean up of the series with Pittsburgh, winning the third straight game this afternoon by a score of 8 to 2.

As the Giants lost to the Cubs the Boston team is now five full games ahead of New York. The Pirates put over a couple of runs in the first inning, but the Braves tied it right up in their half of the same inning, made another run in the third, and, in the fourth, fell on McQuillan for keeps. Joe Connolly wound up the frame with a drive to the centre field sign boards, clearing the bases, which were all occupied at the time.

It was easy for Tyler to keep the Pirates subdued. They only got four scattered hits after the first inning. The score:

DAUBERT'S SINGLE WINS GAME

BROOKLYN, September 22.—Daubert's single with the bases full and one out in the tenth inning, gave the Dodgers their fifth straight victory over Cincinnati to-day, 5 to 4. The Reds tied the score in the ninth when Getz, instead of trying to get Killifer running toward the plate, chased Holden along the base line. McCarty's homer in the seventh was the feature. NEW YORK, September 22.—The Cubs to-day again whitewashed the Giants, 5 to 0, Cheney let McGraw's men down with three scattered singles, and struck out eight men. The Cubs made all their runs in the first, hitting Mathewson savagely. Leach opened with a single. Good triplied, Saier singled, Zimmerman doubled, and after Schulte had flied to Snodgrass Bues made a base hit, the latter making the fifth run on a wild pitch. The score:

CHICAGO, September 22.—The erratic White Sox slipped a double defeat to the Washington team to-day, 9 to 1 and 7 to 4. Benz pitched a fine game in the opening session in the face of indifferent support. Five runs off Shaw in the second inning put the game on ice.

The second game terminated in the with a great batting rally by the Sox. Solid hitting scored three runs off Bentley, tying it up.

Ayres went in cold, hitting the first man and passing two more. Two singles did the rest, six men counting. The scores:

BUTLER'S STABLE FIRST TO REACH LAUREL TRACK

Twenty-Five Thoroughbreds in Lot. Trainer Dick Benson in Charge of Youngsters.

EVERY ONE IN TIPTOP FORM

Many Among the Winners at Belmont Park Course Will Be Entered in Stake Events Over Southern Maryland Oval—Borel to Ride.

BALTIMORE, MD., September 22.—The galaxy of star two-year-olds, the property of James Butler, the New York groceryman, reached Laurel Park to-day, and will be kept on edge for the opening of the Maryland State Fair's October meeting. It was the first big shipment from Belmont Park, where the curtain was dropped on the Metropolitan season Saturday, and it will be followed by several other pretentious stables, including those of August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, and Harry Payne Whitney, the New York sportsman.

The Butler string, which embraces twenty-five head, was in charge of Dick Benson, whose ability as a trainer figured largely in the success of the establishment during the campaign just closed on the big New York tracks. Mr. Butler has been among the most successful owners of 1914, and carriers of his scarlet and white stripes will play an important part in the juvenile takes to be run at Laurel, namely, the Annapolis stakes, and the Maryland handicap, both of which are of $3,000 added, and the Blue Point stakes of $1,000 added.

Every member of the stable is now in tiptop form. Unquestionably the best two-year-old now owned by Mr. Butler is Pebbles, the sturdy son of Errant-Rose Tree II., who scored a triumph when he conquered a field of the classiest juveniles in training in the colt and filly division of the matron stakes at Belmont Park. Pebbles, after his victory in the matron, was acclaimed the leading two-year-old of the season, and, although he is to meet the Quincy stable's Trojan, the winner of the rich Futurity at Saratoga, in the coming stakes at Laurel, there are many of the opinion that he will take the measure of the light-footed chestnut son of Sir Winfred-Bohemia, the first time they come together on the Southern Maryland course.

Pebbles and the rest of the Butler youngsters are a fine looking lot. Barring Pebbles, the smartest are Comely, a brown filly, by Disguise; High Noon, a chestnut colt, by Voter; Doubleet, a brown gelding, by Disguise; Capra, a chestnut filly, by Voter, which finished second to John E. Madden's Charter Maid in the filly section of the matron, and Kilkenny Boy, a chestnut colt, which earned brackets during the summer in New York. Then there will be Climber, Tamira and a number of other handsomely bred two-year-olds raced in the Butler interests by Trainer Benson.

Charley Borel, a rider of merit, has been engaged to ride the Butler thoroughbreds during the Laurel meeting. He will succeed J. Kederic. Borel is now devoting his activities in Kentucky, but will arrive at Laurel a day or two before the opening of the meeting. There is no better pilot of two-year-olds in America, and there are few lads who have anything on him as an all-round rider. With such a capable boy up the Butler representatives will certainly be a hard lot to outrun.

WASHINGTON AND LEE SQUAD AS STRONG AS 1913

Coach Elcock Rapidly Shaping Up Eleven—New Men Arrive on Scene.

LEXINGTON, VA., September 22.—Washington and Lee engaged in the first scrimmage of the season this afternoon, varsity overwhelming the little Generals.

Under Elcock, the most aggressive coach Washington and Lee has had in years, the squad of fifty men is rounding into normal form for the opening game Saturday with Marshall College. Gallagher has been placed at half as a running mate of Young, while Scarry has been awarded the vacancy at guard caused by Neblett's absence. Ira Simms has returned to college, and has been given right end. Several are trying out for the other positions. Last year's regulars, Young, Donahue, Beuhring, Shultz, Miles, Barrow and Dingwall, are cavoting in their respective positions.

Three likely looking new-comers arrived to-day—Sweetland, a 185-pound half back, from Massachusetts; Pierrote, a 175-pound linesman, and Cullen, a hefty back. However, neither has had previous collegiate experience.

The Generals seem just as strong as 1913.

At Montreal: First game—Toronto, 15; Montreal, 6. Second game—Toronto, 2; Montreal, 2 (darkness).

OPERATING IN MOUNTAINS

WASHINGTON, September 22.—On complaint of the British embassy the Department of Agriculture has begun a search for a mysterious wireless plant, supposed to be operating in the mountains on the Pacific coast. Information furnished to the department is vague, but apparently the plant is daily engaged in sending messages uncensored by the Federal government. Forest rangers who patrol the mountains are understood to have received orders to look for the wireless outfit.

GOVERNOR AT HOME

Casts Ballot Against Prohibition at Elk Garden.

Governor Stuart spent yesterday at his home in Elk Garden, Russell County, where he has been resting since last Sunday. He cast his ballot against State-wide prohibition. The Governor has accepted an invitation to visit the Fauquier County Fair at Marshall, and will be on the fair grounds on next Wednesday. He will be the guest of Fairfax Harrison in Fauquier on next Tuesday.

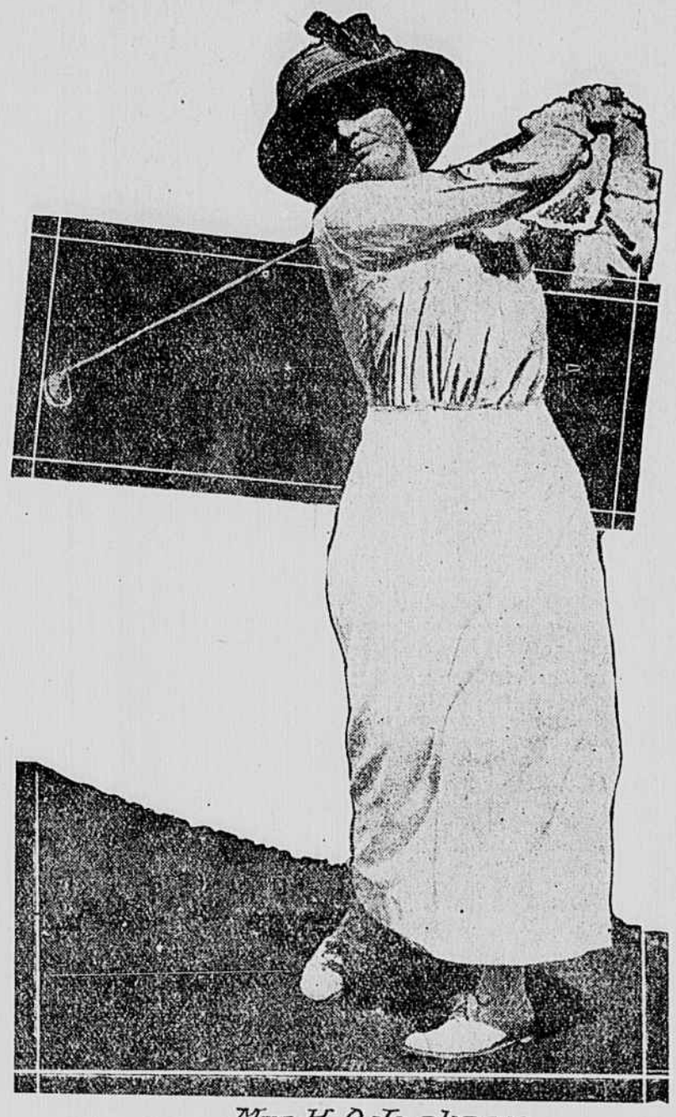
On Thursday of next week the Governor will attend the Mecklenburg County Fair at Chase City. There he will be accompanied by several members of his staff. The Governor's party will meet Governor Locke Craig and his staff on the fair grounds, and the two Governors will deliver addresses to the visiting throng from the same platform. Elaborate preparations for the occasion have been made by the fair managers and directors, "Governor Day" being featured as the big event of the week.

World's Series May Start October 8

CHICAGO, September 22.—The world's championship baseball series probably will start on October 8, one day after the American and National League seasons close, according to President B. B. Johnson, of the American League and member of the National Baseball Commission.

President Johnson asserted today there was no truth in the report that October 10 had been decided as the opening date.

WINS TITLE SECOND TIME



Mrs. H. A. Jackson
Women's National Golf Champion
COPYRIGHT BY UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD N.Y.

By defeating Miss Elaine V. Rosenthal, of the Ravisloe Country Club, of Chicago, one up in the final round at the Nassau Country Club September 19, Mrs. Jackson for the second time won the title. As Miss Kate Marley, she won the title at Chevy Chase in 1908.

Mrs. Jackson, who hails from Massachusetts, has been in the semifinals on three other occasions. The first time was at Wheaton, in 1905, when she was put out by Miss J. A. Carpenter. The following year at Marion Mrs. Jackson lost to Miss Georgianna M. Bishop, the ultimate winner, and again at Baltusrol in 1911.

OUIMET, BY INDIFFERENT PLAYING LOSES MATCH

Grant B. Peacock Comes From Behind and Wins From Champion, 2 Up and 1 to Play.

GREENWICH, CONN., September 22.—To-day was one of the surprises in the invitation golf tournament of the Greenwich Country Club. In the morning round, Francis Ouimet, of Auburndale, Mass., amateur golf champion of the United States and France, was unexpectedly defeated, 2 up and 1 to play, by a Princeton student, Grant Peacock, of Pittsburgh.

Peacock was beaten in the afternoon round by W. Parker Seeley, the Connecticut State champion, while John G. Anderson, of Boston, who was the runner up in the national championship last year, was put out by Max R. Marston, Baltusol, N. J., in the second round of match play.

Reginald M. Lewis, who tied with Marston yesterday and was beaten in the play off for the medal, won both of his matches to-day. Hamilton K. Kerr, of the Home Club, also was a double winner, so that Marston, Lewis, Seeley and Kerr made up the quartet of survivors who will meet in the semifinal round to-morrow morning.

Ouimet treated the gallery to a fine exhibition during the afternoon, when he established a new competitive record of 69 for the links. This was in a match with G. B. Garhart, of the local club, in the "beaten eight" division. Ouimet won this match easily by 8 and 7. He played out the bye-holes for a record, and his 69 in three strokes better than the record made by Lewis yesterday.

Summary: Max R. Marston, Baltusrol, N. J., beat Gardiner W. White, Flushing, N. Y., 6 and 4; J. G. Anderson, Braeburn, Mass., beat W. V. Booth, Jr., Apawamis, N. Y., 6 and 5; W. R. PHILADELPHIA, September 22.—Mrs. Donald H. Barlow made a new woman's record for the links of the Huntingdon Valley Country Club today, when she made the last nine holes in the qualifying round of the Bethellyn cup tournament in 38. Her total for the course was 83.

Governor's Representative.

Commissioner of Agriculture George W. Koiner will go to Gloucester today as the personal representative of Governor Stuart to attend the Gloucester County Fair. The fair directors extended a special invitation to the Governor, but he was unable to accept because of previous engagements. He notified the directors, however, that he would send representative, selecting Commissioner Koiner for that distincton. The commissioner will deliver an address on the fair grounds and will return to his office to-morrow or Friday.

Return From England.

Delegate T. C. Cummins, of King William County, and his daughter have just returned to Virginia from an extended tour in England and Scotland. They came home by way of New York. They expected to go to Europe before returning home, but gave up the idea on account of war conditions. The majority of American tourists abroad have returned home, and it is said that those still on the other side are anxious to return.

COACH DRAPER RAPIDLY DEVELOPING PLAYERS

Splendid Progress Shown by Band of Willing Workers—First Game With Richmond Blues.

WILLIAMSBURG, VA., September 22.—Splendid progress is being made towards the building up of an eleven here by Coach Draker.

The men are quick to respond to the directions of the coach and are fast working into form.

The candidates are being trained into shape for the season, smoking being cut down each day, and they are required to retire at 11 o'clock each night.

Next week they will retire at 10:30. This gives plenty of sleep for rising hour is s in the morning.

Yesterday afternoon Howard Jones, last year's sensational end, was out assisting Coach Draper. He will not play this year owing to parental objections. The green material has been taken in charge by Jones, thus giving the coach more time to drill the experienced candidates.

The practice yesterday afternoon and this afternoon was very thorough and satisfactory. The first and second elevens went through a fast, hard practice at intercepting forward passes, and for a few minutes at the close of the work outran through a few signals preparatory to to-day's scrimmage.

The men did well considering that they have only been out a few days. Both lines were very heavy and the new backfield material shows great promise. Captain Bertoschey at quarter, is in old form and this veteran star should make a record this season.

The first regular scheduled game is with the Richmond Blues on Cary Field, October 3. October 10 V. M. I. will be played at Lexington, after which the championship series commences.

Discuss Cotton Situation.

WASHINGTON, September 22.—Governor Craig, Senator Overman and a delegation of cotton men from North Carolina to-day discussed cotton conditions in that State with Secretary McAdoo. It was understood they complained of inability to get money from banks, despite the deposit of Federal funds and the issuance of emergency currency.

BATCH OF WORLD'S RECORDS ESTABLISHED

Extreme Speed Day in Grand Circuit Meeting at Columbus Yesterday.

ANNA BRADFORD LOWERS MARK

Steps Mile in 2:01½ in Pacing Division—Etawah Wins 2:08 Stake for Trotters in 2:04½—$10,000 Purse Easy for Margaret Druien.

COLUMBUS, O., September 22.—This was extreme speed day at the driving park, a batch of new world's records being established. The three-year-old pacing filly, Anna Bradford, and the four-year-old trotter, Etawah, being responsible for the record breaking. Anna Bradford won the pacing division of the horse review futurity in 2:03 1-2 and 2:01 1-2, the latter a world's record for three-year-olds. Squantum, the second colt, was timed separately in 2:03 1-4.

Etawah won the 2:08 trotting stake, although beaten in the first heat by Omar. The final heat was trotted in 2:04 1-2, the fastest in a race by a four-year-old.

The $10,000 Hoster-Columbus stake for 2:14 trotters was easy for the four-year-old filly, Margaret Druien, driven by Walter Cox, who won in straight heats, the second in 2:05 1-2. This race puts the filly in the lead among the money winners of the season, with nearly $20,000 to her credit.
