NEW YORK, September 30.—Boston celebrated its first day as National League champions by defeating New York, the former title-holder, in one game, and holding it to an eight-inning tie in the second game. The scores were 7 to 1 and 7 to 7.

In the first game, Rudolph held New York safe at all stages. In the second game New York fought a hard uphill fight, and tied the score after the new champions had piled up a seven-run lead.

The terrific hitting of Connolly featured. In the two games he hit four singles and a double and two triples. Scores:

BROOKLYN DEFEATS PHILLIES

PHILADELPHIA, September 30.—By defeating the Phillies to-day, the Dodgers climbed into fifth place in the National League percentage column. Wheat was the hero of the game, hitting the ball hard and pounding out a double and a triple, which accounted for the second tally. Pfeffer, who had caused no end of trouble to the Brooklyn fans, also came up that small margin of error, Alexander's wildness was a feature in the afternoon, and in addition to giving one pass he hit Meyer with a pitched ball. CARDINALS BEAT PIRATES

PITTSBURGH, September 30.—Wilhoit's triple started the Pirates on their way to victory, due to the effective pitching of Cooper, who held his opponents to five hits. Cooper was in difficulty frequently, however, but he made the mistake of loading the bases with one out in the sixth inning and the ex-Pirate smashed it for the fourth hit, a home run. Score:

WASHINGTON, September 30.—Connie Mack sent a team from Philadelphia to the Capital composed almost entirely of youngsters, and the Senators found them just as hard to beat as the champions themselves, losing a ten-inning game this afternoon, 3 to 2. Pennock was batted harder than Shaw and Johnson, but managed to keep his hits scattered. The Senators had twelve men left on the bases, which, in a nutshell tells the story of their defeat. Score:

TIGERS BAT OUT VICTORY

ST. LOUIS, September 30.—The Tigers hammered the ball to all corners of the lot to-day, and beat the Browns, 9 to 6. Leverenz was knocked out of the box in the first inning, and Mitchell, who succeeded him, proved ineffective. Dubuc was knocked out in the seventh, being relieved by Maine. Cobb figured prominently in the attack. He and Crawford pulled a double steal in the third, Cobb pilfering home, and Crawford following him over from second, when Mitchell's pitch went wild. Score:

NAPS WIN FROM WHITE SOX

CLEVELAND, O., September 30.—To-day was the last day of professional ball in Cleveland this season, and the Naps won a twelve-inning game from the White Sox, 6 to 5. Despite the fact that the Naps got away to a flying start and at one time led by four runs, the Chicagoans made a game uphill fight, scoring two runs in the fourth and repeating in the sixth. The winning run was made when Wambsganss tripled to centre and Lelbold singled. Score:

Star Pitcher of Boston Braves

"Bill" James

To James belongs the great glory of lifting the wigwam of the Braves from the depths of the valley to the summit of the heights. Thirty-one times did Bill go forth to battle in the 134 encounters engaged in by the Braves, and there are twenty-three scalps hanging up in the big tepee credited to Bill's valor on the field of action. Seven times he returned home vanquished, and once, because darkness settled over the field, he returned empty-handed. Because of this record, which is exceeded by only one other twirler of the little white pill, there isn't a thing that Bill James cannot get in Boston town when he expresses his wish for it.

VIRGINIA'S CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM BEGINS ROAD WORK

In Charge of Norris, the Yale Coach, the Team Will Hold Three Practice Runs Weekly.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., September 30.—Virginia's cross-country team began road work this afternoon, in charge of Norris, who came South from Yale. Runs will be held on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. On Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays the road team will train on the cinder track on Lambeth Field.

These runs are being arranged in preparation for the Southern Inter-collegiate Cross Country Meet, to be held in Lexington, Va., under the auspices of the athletic association of Washington and Lee University. This will be the first run ever held by this association, and will mark the beginning of a series of runs to be held annually.

Trainer Lannigan has issued a strong appeal for all track and field men to report for fall practice. The loss of Cooke, Becket, Barton, Wright and Rushbough, in the middle and long distances, will be severely felt, and their places will be hard to fill.

Virginia's track schedule this session is probably the most pretentious ever arranged for a Virginia team, there being a dual meet with Princeton and one with Pennsylvania, on Lambeth Field, and probably a dual meet with Columbia, in New York City. Other meets arranged for the season are a dual meet with Johns Hopkins, both the Northern and Southern Inter-collegiates, and the Penn relays.

Wins Damages for Leg Broken in Sliding

PITTSFIELD, MASS., September 30.—In the District Court to-day $1,000 damages were awarded Wilfrid Genest, of this city, against James Curry, of Hartford, for injuries received in a professional baseball game. In sliding to second base Genest was stopped by Curry and his leg broken. He has been unable to play baseball since.

SCRUBS GIVE VARSITY HARD SCRIMMAGE WORK

Pigskin Is Carried to the Varsity One-Yard Line—Fuller and Flannagan Show Up Well.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., September 30.—Coach Wood evidently thought that yesterday's rest for the Virginia team was enough, for to-day saw one of the hardest scrimmages that has been held this year. In the half hour clash with the scrubs the best the regulars could do was to score a field goal, Berkeley booting the ball between the bars from the twenty-five-yard line. Previous to this score, the scrubs carried the pigskin to the varsity one-yard line, only to lose it on a fumble.

Fuller was the principal ground gainer for the Scrubs. His work stood out so prominent, in fact, that he was later tried out on the Varsity. Flannagan tackled cleverly for the Scrubs, who used a number of trick plays in their march down the field.

Gray, a student in the law school, joined the squad to-day. He hails from the West, and will try for one of the tackle positions. He weighs 180. Ward, the big Kentuckian, was shifted to tackle on the Varsity to-day, and made a good showing.

DAN PETERS ELECTED FORK UNION MANAGER

FORK UNION, September 30.—At the first business meeting of the Athletic Association of Fork Union Military, held last Saturday, Dan Peters, of Richmond, was elected manager of the academy eleven.

Mr. Peters is a very capable man for this position, as he has twice won his letter upon the gridiron. He is working very hard with the co-operation of the team and the remaining student body to arrange an interesting schedule for the season.

The first game of the season is to be played Friday, October 2, with Benedictine Military Academy of Richmond. The outcome of this game is eagerly awaited by the entire student body. The team is making an exceptionally good showing this year. There are six letter men back; and especial mention must be made of such gridiron artists as Captain Parker, Poff, Peters and Hannabass.

The entire schedule and line-up will be published later.

URGES NEED OF FISH DOCTOR

Redfield Wants People Protected From Unhealthy Eating.

WASHINGTON, September 30.—Need of a pathologist to protect people against eating diseased fish was emphasized by Secretary Redfield, of the Department of Commerce, in an address of welcome here to-day to the American Fisheries Society.

"The situation as to fish and the public health," the secretary said, "is the same as it is in regard to beef or cows and tuberculosis or other food supplies. What we want is a fish doctor. It doesn't seem to matter to Congress whether the people eat diseased fish or not."

Fish culturists, conservationists and Federal game officials are gathered from throughout the country in convention.

Brighton B. Captures $5,000 Buckeye State 2:12 Trot, Taking Last Three Heats, Defeating Margaret Drufen, Who Won First Heat.

COLUMBUS, O., September 30.—Those two sensational racers, Directum I. and William, met in the second match race at the Driving Park to-day, and Directum I. won in the most sensational race in the history of the harness sport. Racing behind to the seven-eighths pole in the first heat, Snedecker pulled Directum I. out, and in a driving finish beat William by a length in 1:58, the fastest heat ever paced in a race. Even after this heat, the friends of William still believed the colt could win, but the youngster had met his master, and was again beaten in the second round in another driving finish in 2:00, the race being by far the fastest two-heat race ever paced. Aside from the match race, the sensation of the day was the defeat of the four-year-old filly, Margaret Drufen, by Brighton B., in the $5,000 Buckeye State for 2:12 trotters, the gelding losing the first heat, but winning the last three. He was driven by Tom Murphy, who had a good day, also landing the $6,000 horse breeder futurity, with the three-year-old champion, Peter Volo, who outclassed his field. Summaries:
