HON. WILSON REILLY.

We publish in this issue the proceedings of the Democratic Congressional Conference for this district, which met at Chambersburg, on Thursday the 2d inst. It will be seen that Hon. WILSON REILLY was re-nominated by acclamation. That he will be re-elected, no one doubts who is acquainted with the intelligence of the people before whom he is a candidate. He is popular in his own county, he is popular wherever his eloquent voice has been heard and his genial nature has shed its kindly influences. On the other hand, his competitor has many bitter opponents in the ranks of his own party; he is decidedly unpopular at home; makes no friends when he goes abroad; is a man of very ordinary intellect; is anything but an orator; in short, is a man that cannot, will not and ought not to be elected to the high and responsible office of representative in Congress. We raise Mr. REILLY'S name to our mast, confident that on the second Tuesday of October next, he will be returned to Congress by a larger majority than he received in 1856.

A QUESTION FOR MR. McPHERSON.

The Abolition candidate for Congress in this district, is trying to drag the Lecompton question into the canvass and solicits the votes of Anti-Lecompton Democrats on the ground that he is opposed to the National Administration. Will Mr. McPHERSON, in connexion with his disquisitions on Lecompton, be kind enough to inform us whether he would prefer DOUGLAS to LINCOLN as Senator from Illinois. This is just as much to do with Pennsylvania politics as the Lecompton question. Let there be no dodging, Mr. McPHERSON!

The traitor, Forney, lately addressed a meeting at Tarrytown, New York, in which he lauded his old enemies and reviled his former friends. A certain Major Andre was, once upon a time, captured near this same Tarrytown and through his capture the whole infernal plot of Arnold's treason was laid bare. We have no doubt that if Mr. Forney had been searched, when making his speech at this place, Tarrytown would have been the scene of another revelation of a traitor's conspiracy. There is no doubt that Forney's boots, like those of Andre, would contain more than a pair of feet, if he were compelled more closely to hide the articles of agreement between himself and his Black Republican masters.

The Abolition organ places the announcement of Mr. CASTNER in the midst of a lot of unimportant advertisements, so as to make it as obscure as possible. Is it afraid to let its party know that he is a candidate?

The request of "A Lady Friend" will be attended to with much pleasure in our next. Too much crowded this week.

WHERE IS THE COUNTY'S MONEY?

The Abolition clique still keep up their hypocritical whining about the expenses of the county. We had thought that after the exposure of their trickery which we made in the Gazette of week before last, they would hardly have the hardihood to re-assert their exploded falsehoods. It seems, however, that they act on the principle that "a lie well stuck to is as good as the truth," and, therefore, are determined to persist in their endeavors to foist their fabrications upon the public.

Now, we have examined the records in the Treasurer's and Commissioners' offices, and find that when Mr. JOHN TAYLOR'S (Abolitionist) term of office as County Treasurer expired, the County was indebted to the State in the sum of $1490.87. At the end of DAVID OVER'S (Abolitionist) term in the same office, there was due from him to the State, the sum of $3185.97 of which the Commissioners paid $2375.72, (out of the $5000.00 borrowed by them last spring) and the remainder of which, $810.25, MAJOR DAVIS, the present Treasurer, paid for the same said Over; out of the same said fund of $5000.00 borrowed money. Here then we see that under the three years' management of the Treasury by this Abolition bungler, the indebtedness of our county to the State actually more than doubled itself!

Again, when this fellow, Over, went out of office, there were unpaid orders on the Treasury which had been granted during his term, to the amount of $1815.00. Add this to the sum of his indebtedness to the State, and it makes the debt of the County at the time he evacuated the office, five thousand and one dollars ($5001.00)! Hence it will be seen that every cent of the money borrowed by the Commissioners last spring, was required to satisfy the demands upon the Treasury which Mr. Over failed to meet. The question, also, very naturally arises, here, what became of the County's money, if David Over, as Treasurer, owed more than $5000.00 when his term of office expired?

MORE ABOUT THE COUNTY DEBT.

We have already shown that when the late Abolition Treasurer went out of office he left the County in debt to the State about $3200.00 and failed to pay some $1800.00 dollars worth of orders drawn upon him by the Commissioners. This he will doubtless try to account for, by endeavoring to show that the Collectors for the different townships and boroughs did not pay him over the amount of their duplicates. It will not do for him to put in this plea, for several good and substantial reasons. In the first place, the duplicates issued during his term of office, with the exception of those of 1857, and a few of 1856, have all been settled up and the money collected on them has passed through his hands. Again, the Collectors that owe the largest sums, on their duplicates, with but few exceptions, belong to his party. For instance the Collector for Hopewell township, for 1856, owes $286.65, state and county tax, whilst he has not paid over a cent of his militia fines which amount to $39.50. He is an Abolitionist. The Collector for Bedford Borough, for 1857, owes $838.90. He is an Abolitionist. The Collector for Bedford township, for 1857, owes $633.67. He is an Abolitionist. The Collector for Colerain, for 1857, owes $465.56. He is an Abolitionist. The Collector for St. Clair, for 1857, owes $1298.19. He is an Abolitionist. Sum this up and we find that the nice little pile of $3582.47 of the County's money is now in the hands of these Abolition Collectors. If the clique that make such a tremendous ado about the indebtedness of the county, would really like to see some of that indebtedness cancelled, they can have their desire accomplished much sooner by making these defaulting partisans of theirs square up their duplicates, than by writing nonsensical, pointless editorials on the subject. Go to work, Messrs. Demagogues, and dun your fellow Abolitionists for the money they owe the county—make them disgorge it—and after you shall have succeeded in this mission, then proceed with your croaking in regard to the debt of the county, but until then, for shame's sake, hold your peace.

THE "SCOTCH PIPE" ROORBACK.

The Opposition to the Democratic party, having no principles and despairing of being able to make an issue on which they can ride into office, have invented, in lieu of a platform, any quantity of falsehoods wherewith, if possible, to injure the prospects of the Democracy. One of the boldest, as well as the most insidious, is that concerning the purchase of the pipe for the Washington City Aqueduct, in which it is alleged that Government bought the said pipe from manufacturers in Scotland. The following, from the Hollidaysburg Standard, shows the whole thing to be a fabrication: "We have noticed a Munchausen story travelling around in the papers, concerning our government making a contract for water pipes to be brought from Scotland. It is a finely gotten up story, and did it not lack that one qualification, truth, it might be told with a great deal of effect. The facts are as follows:—Government required pipes for the Washington aqueduct. An advertisement was made of the contract offering it to bidders. Jno. Lawrence Myers, an iron founder in Philadelphia, put in the best bid and received the contract, agreeing to furnish the pipes by October 1st. Upon Jno. Myers giving security, his bid was received, and the whole affair was taken out of the hands of government and its officers. Mr. Myers, we believe, did make a contract with some Scotch house to supply part of the pipes; but only because it was necessary to enable him to fulfil his contract; and upon these the United States will be as much of a gainer as the duty amounts to. As to the Government making any contract with a Scotch company, it is simply false. Whatever Mr. Myers does is another matter. Don't forget the Auction at Murrays', Bloody Run, beginning on Friday next. Goods of all sorts will be sold.

RE-ORGANIZATION OF THE BUCHANAN CLUB!

The members of the Buchanan Club, pursuant to previous notice, met at the Court House, on Saturday evening last, and effected an organization, by the appointment of John W. Lingenfelter, Esq., as President, and Joseph W. Tate, as Secretary. Maj. S. H. Tate being called upon, addressed the meeting, and after concluding his remarks, moved that the Club proceed to the election of officers for the ensuing year, which motion was unanimously agreed to. The following gentlemen were then elected:

- President, O. E. SHANNON.
Vice Presidents, Jacob Semler, Geo. Reimund, Thos. Gephart, Patrick Walls.
Secretaries, Joseph W. Tate, Geo. J. Rock.

On motion O. E. Shannon, Esq., then addressed the meeting. His speech abounded in vigorous arguments and strong hits at the absurdities of Opposition theories and platforms. He was frequently interrupted by the cheers of his audience. After Mr. Shannon had concluded, Hon. John Cessna was called upon, who remarked that he thought it was in order to sign the Constitution before any more speechifying should be done, whereupon a large number of names were appended to that instrument. After passing a resolution to meet every SATURDAY EVENING until the 9th of October next, the meeting adjourned.

This, the first meeting of the Buchanan Club, for the present campaign, was as large as any we remember to have been held last Fall. It was not only large, but full of enthusiasm and good feeling. The members of the Buchanan Club will do their duty at the coming election.

The Patriot and Union and Keystone Newspapers, at Harrisburg, have been consolidated, under the title of "Patriot and Union," with O. Barrett & Co., as publishers, and R. J. Hallemann as Editor. Messrs. Barrett & Co., have also purchased the Daily Herald establishment, which paper has been discontinued, whilst in its stead appears the Daily Patriot and Union, an excellent and ably conducted journal.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of NICHOLAS KEOG, Esq., who offers for sale a good house and lot in the town of Buena Vista, in this county.

To the Democratic Conference of the 17th Congressional District. Gentlemen:—The undersigned, being the Conferees of the Democratic party of Bedford county, either by appointment or substitution, are unable to attend the meeting of Conferees at Chambersburg on the 2d of September. We desire that the three votes of Bedford county shall be recorded in favor of the renomination of Hon. Wilson Reilly. If our votes cannot be so recorded in our absence, we will regard it as a favor if you will publish this request as a part of the proceedings of your meeting.

On motion of A. J. Greer of Juniata, Hon. Wilson Reilly was nominated by acclamation. Mr. Sanson, of Fulton, offered the following resolutions passed by the Democracy of Bedford at their meeting on the 30th ult., and asked their incorporation in the proceedings. Agreed to.

Wilson Reilly has faithfully represented his constituency in the Congress of which he is at present a member, and that if nominated for re-election by the Democracy in this Congressional District, we will cordially support him. We will vote for him, work for him and triumphantly elect him. On motion of Hon. Wm. P. Schell, the following amendment was offered to this resolution, and unanimously adopted:

Mr. McKinstry, of Franklin, offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in the nomination of Hon. Wilson Reilly, as the Democratic candidate for election in the Thirty Fifth Congress, this Conference has presented to the voters of the 17th Congressional District a gentleman, who, by his natural gifts, acquired attainments and spotless integrity and honesty, is eminently deserving of their suffrages. That, in the name and by the authority of our respective constituencies, we cordially and unqualifiedly endorse his votes in Congress.

Resolved, That for our respective counties and ourselves, we pledge to Mr. Reilly every honest effort, and the most untiring exertion, to secure his election.

On motion, Messrs. J. B. Sansom, Wm. C. Stern, and J. W. Douglas, were appointed a Committee to inform Mr. Reilly of his nomination. Having retired and returned with Mr. Reilly, he made a brief but eloquent speech pertinent to the occasion.

On motion, adjourned. SAM'L ROBINSON, Pres. A. J. GREER, Sec'y.

Communication.

STONERSTOWN, Bedford Co., Pa. Aug. 16, 1858.

Messrs. Editors:—A Sabbath School Celebration was held at this place a few days since, which came off very pleasantly.

The School assembled in the Lutheran Church at an early hour in the morning, where it was formed into procession by the officers and teachers, and marched a little distance from the Church to a beautiful grove on the bank of the Raystown Branch, which place had been previously arranged for its reception. The appearance of the procession was really interesting.

On reaching the place we enjoyed ourselves in various amusements, until about half past eleven o'clock, when the tables were spread with the luxuries which had been prepared by the ladies. The Teachers, with their Scholars, were decently and orderly arranged at the table, a blessing was then asked by the Rev. Mr. Lawrence, after which they all partook freely of the bounties prepared for the occasion. After they had finished, all others present were cordially invited to the table, which still contained a sufficient quantity of edibles of different kinds to suit their wants.

Dinner being over, the afternoon was spent in singing and innocent recreation. All was harmony and peace, and each tried to administer to the wants of the other.

At about four P. M., the participants were all called together by the Rev. Mr. Lawrence, who gave us a short lecture on our duty toward our Maker while young, after which a prayer was offered up by the same, when we were dismissed and soon found our way homeward. I am happy to say that it was one of the most pleasant days that I ever spent.—Sabbath school celebrations are certainly a source of encouragement to the young and rising generation and therefore should be patronized by all both old and young.

Yours, &c. J. R. S

The Bedford County Democracy.

It was our pleasure to attend a meeting of the sterling Democracy of this, our native county, on Monday evening last. It was largely attended and animated by a spirit of enthusiasm which astonished us. The old veterans of the party in Bedford County were present, and among them there appeared to be the most perfect good feeling and unanimity. The meeting was presided over with great dignity and appropriateness by our friend, Maj. James Parrot, of Pattonville, assisted by a host of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. After a few appropriate introductory remarks by Maj. S. H. Tate, the Hon. WILSON REILLY was called upon to address the meeting, and made his appearance in the midst of a storm of applause. He entered upon the discussion of the various political questions that now agitate the country, and gave a full and free exposition of his opinions and sentiments. We shall not attempt a description of this the greatest speech we ever heard the eloquent gentleman deliver. It was listened to throughout with attention and received with tremendous shouts of applause.—When Mr. Reilly took his seat, after speaking an hour, the meeting rose and gave him three tremendous cheers. Old Bedford County is all right!

Mr. Reilly was followed by our friend, Dr. G. H. KEYSER, of Pittsburg, in a speech of great power. The Doctor has a peculiar way of saying things that makes a great impression upon his audience. On this occasion he was particularly happy in his remarks and "brought down the house" with tremendous force. He made an excellent speech and it was most cordially received by his old neighbors and friends. The Doctor may well be proud of his numerous friends in Bedford County.

The resolutions adopted by the meeting which we shall lay before our readers next week, were excellent—not only well written but pointed and apposite.—Fulton Democrat.

THE ATLANTIC CABLE.—The following brief but comprehensive description of the Submarine Cable, will be read with interest at this time: The central conducting wire is a strand made up of seven wires of the purest copper, of the gauge known in the trade as No. 22.—The strand itself is about the sixteenth of an inch in diameter, and is formed of one straightly formed wire, with six others twisted around it; this is accomplished by the central wire being dragged from a drum, through a hole in a horizontal table, while the table itself revolves rapidly under the impulse of steam, carrying near its circumference six reels or drums, each armed with copper wire. Every drum revolves upon its own horizontal axis, and so delivers its wire as it turns. The twisted form of conducting wire was first adopted for the rope laid across the St. Lawrence in 1856, and was employed with a view to the reduction to the lowest possible amount of the chance of continuity being destroyed in the circuit. It is improbable in the highest degree that fracture could accidentally be produced at precisely the same spot in more than one of the wires of this twisted strand. All the seven wires might be broken at different parts of the strand, even some hundred of times, and yet its capacity for the transmission of the electric current not be destroyed or reduced in any inconvenient degree. The copper used in the formation of these wires is assayed from time to time during the manufacture, to insure absolute homogeneity and purity. The strand itself, when subjected to strain, will stretch twenty per cent of its length without giving way, and, indeed, without having its electric-conducting power much modified or impaired.

The Rev. R. F. Sample will preach the first sermon in course, before the "Young Men's Christian Association" on Sabbath Evening next (the 12th) in the Lutheran Church. The public are respectfully invited to attend. The other churches in town will be closed on that evening.

BUCHANAN CLUB

will meet at the Court House on Saturday evening next, the 11th inst. A full attendance is requested. Turn out, Democrats! O. E. SHANNON, President.

Dr. W. H. WITSON, of Lancaster City, Pa., will be at his rooms at the Bedford Hotel, in Bedford, on Monday, the 13th inst., to examine and consult with patients and treat all diseases of the human body. Private parlors for ladies. Consultations free of charge. See full card in another column.

A Baring Exploit With a Bear.

At Woodland Ulster, county, N. Y., on Sunday, two brothers, John and Mat Schoonmager, were standing up at the Muddy Bush Kill with no weapons but their pocket-knives and a dog, the other a water spaniel—they stopped a white to fish; but they had only caught a few specklers, when they were startled to hear the hound utter the well known cry of his species upon scenting game.

One of the men immediately put chase after the dog; on reaching the spot on the bank of the stream where the dog first found the trail, he was not a little surprised to discover the foot prints of a large bear on a hemlock log, where he had landed from his morning bath.

The bear had retreated some twenty rods from the stream to a cover; and there the dogs came upon him.

It was but the work of a moment to acquaint the other man of the state of the case, whereupon, giving his fishing pole a toss into the stream, he ran up with the other dog.

Then a regular rough and tumble fight ensued, during which part of the time the bear had the upper hand, and part the men and dogs; but a lucky moment the spaniel got the bear fast by the hind leg, and then, as he turned over to give him—the dog—his quietus, the hound seized the opportunity and the bear, too, by the under jaw and so the pinned him to the ground, when John thrust a heavy stake into his mouth, and placing his knee on the bear's head, proceeded with but a sorry specimen of a jack-knife to perform the operation of tracheotomy upon Bruin's throat, and killed him.

They swung him across a pole and carried him between them to the nearest settlement, Snyder's tannery, two miles distant.

It proved to be a genuine black bear. One of the red-nosed and most savage kind, and weighed, when dressed, some 300 pounds.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the Independent Blues of Bloody Run, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God, in the dispensation of his Providence, to take from our midst our esteemed brother in Arms, Himas O'Neal, Therefore be it resolved, that whilst we humbly bow to the will of Him in whose hands all our destinies are, we at the same time deeply mourn the loss of him, who by the ruthless hand of death, has been taken from us, one who by his moral life and unexceptionable deportment had endeavored himself to all who knew him.

Resolved, That in the death of Himas O'Neal, his wife and children have lost a true Husband and Father, our community a valuable citizen, and the Company of which we are members, a brave and noble soldier.

Resolved, That we as a Company do most sincerely sympathize with his family and friends in their sad bereavement; yet we are consoled with the belief that the one they now mourn is resting in the embrace of Him who hath said, "I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live."

Resolved, That the officers and members of this Company wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and that a copy of these resolutions, be forwarded to the family of the deceased, and the same be published in the Bedford Gazette and Bedford Inquirer.

SAM'L BENDER, Sec'y.
