DEMOCRATIC VIGILANCE COMMITTEES.

The following persons were chosen Vigilance Committees for the several Townships and Boroughs of this county, by the Democratic voters, at the Delegate elections held on the third Saturday of June last:

Bedford Borough.—Joseph W. Tate, Thomas H. Lyons, J. Selby Mower.

Bedford Township.—Daniel Fetter, J. T. Gephart, John W. Scott.

Broad Top.—Maj. Jas. Patton, Col. T. W. Horton, S. S. Fluck.

Colerain.—Josiah Shoemaker, Joseph Cessna, Godfrey Yeager.

Cumberland Valley.—J. C. Vickroy, Geo. Bennett, H. J. Bruner, Esq.

Harrison.—Geo. Elder, Geo. W. Horn, Jacob Coup.

Hopewell.—William Gorsuch, Samuel Bolinger, Ab'm. Steel.

Junata.—Gen. Jas. Burns, Wm. Gillespie, John Corley, Sr.

Liberty.—I. Kensingler, Esq., Geo. Rhoads, John Homan.

Londonderry.—John Barth, Henry Miller, Jas. C. Devore.

Monroe.—Phil. Barkman, D. Evans, Andrew Steckman.

Napier.—John Sill, Sam'l. W. Miller, William Albough.

Providence E.—D. A. T. Black, Cad. Evans, H. Chamberlain, Jr.

Providence W.—John D. Lucas, Josiah Baughman, Col. S. B. Tate.

St. Clair.—Thos. B. Wisegarver, Jacob Beckley, A. J. Crisman.

Woodberry S.—C. B. Kochendarter, Wm. Tetwiler, Levi S. Fluke.

Woodberry M.—Henry Fluke, W. J. Galbraith, D. K. Barley.

To the above-named committees, chosen by the direct vote of the Democracy of the county, the organization of the party in the several townships and boroughs, is entrusted. It is their duty to see that voters are properly assessed, that harmony and good feeling prevail among Democrats, that the candidates of the party are not secretly injured by their political or personal enemies, that the whole Democratic vote of their respective districts is brought to the polls, and that the interests of the party generally are attended to in a proper manner. These Committees are all composed of good men and we, therefore, confidently expect that they will render great service to the Democracy between this and the election.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—Peterson's Ladies' National Magazine is, as its title imports, a publication devoted peculiarly to the interests of the fair sex, and, truly, we know of no work of a similar nature that is so useful and entertaining as this. Its reports of the fashions are always the latest, its patterns for needle-work and household recipes, are always novel and frequently of great value. The ladies will consult their own interests, by subscribing for Peterson.

ARTHUR'S HOME MAGAZINE.—For the family circle, Arthur's Home Magazine is unsurpassed. It is always high toned, moral, instructive, and withal sprightly and entertaining. This work is edited by T. S. ARTHUR, the novelist, assisted by VIRGINIA F. TOWNSEND, one of the most prominent female writers of the present time.

Then and Now.

REMARKABLE TRANSFORMATION.

THE BUZZARD OF '55 A FULL-FLEDGED EAGLE IN '59!

The Abolitionists of Bedford county, or rather a few of the wire-workers of that party, in and about this town, have nominated SIMON CAMERON for President of the United States. Without one particle of shame, without the slightest regard for their own honor, or for the consistency of their party, these reckless, venal and unscrupulous politicians have selected as their favorite candidate for the highest office in the gift of the people, the very man whom they denounced in the bitterest and vilest manner three years and a half ago! Who ever heard of such daring and reckless inconsistency, before! It is spit out, as it were, into the very face of their party. It is like "the dog that returneth to his vomit again!" "Can such things be, and overcome us like a summer cloud, without our special wonder?"

Why is it that this "slimy politician, who never accomplished an honorable achievement in politics," (as the Abolition organ said of him in 1855,) has received this honor at the hands of the Bedford Abolitionists? Has their party become slimy with the filth of their demagoguism that Simon suits them so well? Or has the aforesaid Simon been "about, with the Middletown Bank in his pocket?"

We ask our readers to compare carefully the two articles which we publish below, side by side. Observe that in 1855, the Abolition editors were of the opinion that the success of Cameron would have been "most direful to the interests of Pennsylvania," and that they looked upon him as a "FREE TRADER" and a "NEBRASKA MAN," "whilst in 1859 they bespatter him with praises, regarding him as a "far-seeing statesman," "the able and zealous advocate of the great industrial interests of Pennsylvania, the "fearless advocate of the rights of the North," and the "manly opponent of slavery extension." In 1855 they regarded him as "the most notoriously corrupt political juggler and thimble-rigger in the land," and prayed Heaven to avert the calamity of his election." Now they look upon him as the very beau ideal of a candidate for the high and responsible office of President of the United States. Why this change? Cameron belonged to their party in '55, when they denounced him so vehemently; in fact he was their caucus nominee for U. S. Senator. Consequently he has not changed since then, but they have. Will the masses of their party change with them? Will they follow these purchasable leaders, like sheep led to the slaughter? Is there no virtue, no sense of honor, no self-respect, not one spark of consistency, left in the ranks of the Opposition party of Bedford county? We shall see.

[From the Bedford Inquirer of Feb'y 16, 1856.]

Simon Cameron.

Our readers will no doubt be surprised at the efforts that have been made in the Pennsylvania Legislature, to secure the election to a seat in U. S. Senate, of SIMON CAMERON, one of the most foul, and corrupt political desperadoes, that has ever disgraced this or any other State. It appears that he has been buying a number of unprincipled members of the Legislature into his support. It is well known that before the election, there was no one in the State who was more opposed to the American party than Cameron, but no sooner is the election over, than this SLIMY POLITICIAN, WHO NEVER ACCOMPLISHED AN HONORABLE ACHIEVEMENT IN POLITICS, turns round wily and cunning as he is, and slips into the "Order," for the purpose of securing the caucus nomination for Senator. But we hope and trust there are honest and honorable men enough in the Legislature, to thwart the designs of this arch demagogue. At the caucus, the secret ballot was carried by the friends of Cameron, which would enable the purchased members to vote for him under cover! On the fifth ballot the vote stood Cameron 45; Curtin 40; scattering 6. On the two last ballots Mr. Curtin would have been nominated, but one more vote was cast each time than there were members present—so that it will be seen that Simon resorted to every means foul to accomplish his ends. At this stage of the proceedings thirty-three members "bolted" from the caucus. Among those who withdrew, we are highly gratified to inform our readers, was the able member of the Senate from this place—HON. FRANCIS JORDAN. Nobly did he stand by the wishes and interests of his constituents—nobly is he sustained in his course by the entire community who speak with but one voice on the subject. After the withdrawal of the thirty-three—Cameron was nominated by those who remained in caucus, 44 to 11 for Curtin, and 2 for Fuller. But thanks to the unpurchasable part of the Legislature, Simon has been foiled so far, at least. On Tuesday, the day set apart by law for the election, he came within seven votes of an election. The election was finally postponed for two weeks. In the meantime SIMON WILL BE ABOUT WITH THE MIDDLETOWN BANK IN HIS POCKET, READY TO RISK THE WHOLE CONCERN ON HIS ELECTION. HIS SUCCESS WOULD BE THE MOST DIREFUL TO THE INTERESTS OF PENNSYLVANIA, FREE TRADER AND NEBRASKA MAN, AS HE IS. Let all those Americans and Whigs who voted for him, hereafter be marked. They should have the SEAL OF CAIN UPON THEM, that they may be known throughout their miserable lives, as corrupt knaves, who, for money, sold their votes, and disgraced the land of their birth, by voting for the MOST NOTORIOUS CORRUPT POLITICAL JUGGLER AND THIMBLE-RIGGER IN THE LAND. HEAVEN AVERT THE CALAMITY OF HIS ELECTION. No honorable man considers the nomination he received, by the purchased traitors, who remained in caucus, binding on any member.

Mr. Fr. Jordan, in his speech on Tuesday night of Court Week, gave vent to a stream of bitterness and falsehood against the Democratic party, which surpassed anything for foulness and malignity that we have ever listened to. According to Mr. Jordan, the Democratic party is defrauding the state, cheating the government, running the nation in debt and ruining the country generally. If the poison of the asp had been instilled upon his tongue, he could not have spoken bitterer words in greater spite, than were his uncalled for invectives against the Democratic party. A man who did not know how villainously this man Jordan falsifies in his political speeches, would have supposed from his representations that there was not a single decent, honest man in the Democratic party. And yet after all this gratuitous abuse of Democrats, Mr. Jordan and his party expect Democratic votes for MR. JOHN TAYLOR! Will Democrats turn round and kiss the hand that strikes them?

[From the Bedford Inquirer of Sept. 24, 1859.]

General Simon Cameron.

In obedience to the unanimous voice of the People's Party of Bedford County, we to-day nail to the mast head of our paper, the name of the Hon. Simon Cameron as their choice for next President of the United States. We do this not merely as the organ of the party, but because it entirely accords with our own wishes. No other meeting will be held perhaps until spring, and this was deemed the most appropriate occasion to give expression to that sentiment in behalf of Gen. Cameron which we knew to pervade the entire mass of our party in the County. If any one doubted this he would have been fully convinced by the enthusiasm with which the meeting on Tuesday night responded to the resolution. Not a voice in opposition was heard. So far as Bedford County is concerned his nomination was a spontaneous movement of the people. With the people of Pennsylvania General Cameron has always been held in high estimation. Among the politicians, it is true, he has had many bitter enemies, because in his straight forward course he has often thwarted their views and interfered with their ambition; but the masses who rarely fail in their estimation of character, have always rightly regarded him as a practical, far seeing statesman, and have admired him for his frank and dignified bearing. In the Senate of the United States, when Dallas, and others betrayed their trust, General Cameron was always the able and zealous advocate of the great interests of Pennsylvania, which he so well understands. He is not a talker, but a thinker and an actor. If he has never filled the mailbags of the country with long-winded political professions he has never failed in his whole duty to his State or the nation. He has made no long list of speeches on all sorts of questions for an unscrupulous opposition to seize upon and misrepresent in different parts of the country; and this is no small matter to be considered in the choice of a candidate. A fearless advocate of the rights of the North, and a manly opponent of slavery extension, he has never been hurried into any violent, intemperate or impractical views on the subject of slavery. He is a fair representative of the sentiment of Pennsylvania on that question, and the Republican party of this State represent the sound conservative views of the country. The name of Gen. Cameron is a tower of political strength in this State, and, with him as our candidate, Pennsylvania can be triumphantly carried in 1860, and with her the Union. With another candidate we might fail, and the beneficent results of a Republican victory deferred to the distant future.

Organize! Organize!

Democrats of Bedford county! The time for action has arrived. The campaign is opened, the issue is made, the nominees of the different parties are before the people, and the election is but four weeks distant. We call upon you in the name of the great Democratic party, in the name of a true and unaffected patriotism, in the name of the principles which you hold dear, to be ready for the contest. You believe your principles to be correct; you believe the ascendancy of the Democratic party to be necessary to the welfare of your country; and believing so, you should devote at least a few days to the advocacy of those principles and to the interests of that party. Remember that a great work is before us! Pennsylvania is to be redeemed from the rule of Amalgamationists and Abolitionists. By our neglect to turn out to the polls last year, we suffered our glorious Old Commonwealth to sink into the black slough of disunion Black Republicanism. Let us resolve to wipe out the defeat of last Fall, and restore Pennsylvania to the Democratic column. Be vigilant, therefore; be active. Organize! Organize! Give a few days to the service of your party; call upon your neighbor and urge him to action; and let no effort be spared to bring out the full Democratic vote of the county. The eyes of the Democracy everywhere are turned to Bedford county, for during the last few years she has not failed to give a good account of herself. Let us show our friends in other parts of the State, what we can do when our blood is up! Rally! Democrats, rally!

Ex-President Pierce at Home.

CONCORD, N. H., SEPT. 2.—Ex-President Pierce was received this morning by the Amoskeag Veterans, at Nassau, and escorted to Manchester, where he was received with much warmth. A procession was formed, and at the conclusion which followed, the ex-President and others delivered appropriate speeches. In the afternoon, Mr. Pierce proceeded to Concord, and was greeted with the cheers of a large concourse of citizens. He received the warm congratulations of his friends, and was serenaded by them this evening.

Local and Miscellaneous.

The meeting of the Buchanan Club, on Saturday evening last, was well attended and full of enthusiasm. Several speeches were made and a number of new members signed the constitution. The Club adjourned to meet on next Saturday evening, at half past seven o'clock.

The Fall session of the Bedford Classical Institute, will commence on Friday, the 16th inst. The Messrs. Lyon enjoy the reputation of being excellent teachers. We hope that they will be properly sustained.

The General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of the United States, will meet in Chicago, next month.

A correspondent of the Harrisburg Patriot and Union, is out in favor of Hon. Jacob Fry, present Auditor General, for the Democratic nomination for Governor.

James Kean, Esq., died in Cambria county, last week, aged 105 years. He was 22 years old when the Declaration of Independence was signed.

The Boston Liberator (an Abolition newspaper) says that the contemplated statue of the Hon. Horace Mann, should be placed on Boston State House Grounds, with that of Daniel Webster—the first to represent the archangel, the latter the devil! What do the old Whig friends of Daniel Webster think of this?

The Bedford Railroad Company, at their meeting on Monday last, adopted a resolution instructing their engineer to make a survey of that part of the road lying between this place and Bloody Run, preparatory to putting the same under contract. The subscriptions to the road, will also be called in, and the work pushed on vigorously.

A Camp Meeting of the M. E. Church, has been in progress for some time past, near Pleasantville, in this county. A large concourse of people was in attendance.

Read the address of Mr. John D. Lucas, Chairman of the Democratic Vigilance Committee of West Providence township, published in another column. Mr. Lucas is an honest, hard-working mechanic, and as such he speaks to the toiling masses of his neighborhood. We commend the spirit which characterizes his address, as worthy of imitation by every Democrat.

The Democracy of Berks county have instructed their delegates to the next Democratic State Convention, in favor of Hon. Henry D. Foster, as the next Democratic candidate for Governor.

Union Prayer Meeting will be held in the Lutheran Church, next Sabbath, at 4 o'clock, P. M.

The Banking House recently established in this place, has been deservedly successful. Messrs. Reed, Rupp and Schell are good men financially, and clever fellows in the bargain. May the shadow of their pile never grow less.

Augustin Durbin, of Cambria county, has been nominated by the Democrats of his district for the office of State Senator. His opponent is Lewis W. Hall, formerly of this place.

Read the story on our first page, entitled "The Ocean Depths." It is a thrilling and affecting narrative.

Geo. Bates, Esq., of Millin county, the Democratic candidate for the Legislature in that county, paid our town a visit a short time ago. Mr. Bates is a gentleman of high character and a Democrat of the true stamp. We hope he may be elected.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—We have before us the September number of this truly able and interesting periodical. The literary status of the "Atlantic," is a "head and shoulders" above that of any of its monthly cotemporaries. It could not well be otherwise, when such writers as R. H. DANA, HENRY W. LONGFELLOW, OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES, T. BUCHANAN READ, and Mrs. H. B. STOWE contribute to its columns. The table of contents of the present number is rich and varied, comprising "The Life and Works of Ary Scheffer," "A Visit to Martha's Vineyard," "October to May," "The Eleusinia," "The Minister's Wooing," "Once and Now," "A Trip to Cuba," "Zelma's Vow," "My Double, and how He undid Me," "The Murder of the Innocents," "The Singer," "The Professor at the Breakfast Table," besides a number of ably written Reviews and Literary Notices.—The Atlantic Monthly is published by Phillips, Sampson & Co., Boston, Mass.

Now Look at This!

If the agitation in regard to the FUGITIVE-SLAVE LAW should continue to increase, and become alarming, it will lead to the formation of two new parties, one for the Union, and the other against the Union.—Present parties have been created by the division of opinion as regards systems of National policy; and as to finance, free trade, or protection, the improvement of rivers and harbors, the distribution of the proceeds of the public lands, &c.; but these systems of policy springing out of the administration of the Government of the Union, lose all their interest and importance if that Union is to be dissolved. They sink into utter insignificance before the all important, pervasive and paramount interest of the Union itself, and the platform of that Union party will be the UNION THE CONSTITUTION, AND THE ENFORCEMENT OF ITS LAWS. I ANNOUNCE MYSELF IN THIS PLACE A MEMBER OF THE UNION PARTY—WHAT EVER MAY BE ITS COMPONENT ELEMENTS.—HENRY CLAY, November 15, 1850.

The Democrats of the Senatorial district composed of the counties of Fulton, Franklin and Adams, have nominated J. W. DOUGLASS, Esq., of Franklin, as their candidate for Senator.

To the Democrats of W. Providence:

The time is fast approaching when you will be called upon to exercise the blood-bought right of the elective franchise. The late Democratic County Convention has given us an unexceptionable ticket; men who stood fast when darkness covered the earth and the gross darkness of Know Nothingism, the minds of men; men who deserve the approbation and support of every true Democrat and Old Line Whig.

Fellow Democrats, we have great reason to rejoice, when we compare the condition of the country at present, with the aspect it presented in '56 and '57, as regards peace. Then Kansas was "bleeding," the Mormons rebelling, and Walker's filibustering expedition was disturbing the peace of the country. JAMES BUCHANAN, who now holds the highest office in the gift of the people, has restored peace to our land; his administration has caused peace to flow as a river.

Fellow Democrats, remember that we have a fanatical and hypocritical party to contend against, who called themselves the Jackson party in '56. If Jackson was living, he would tell them that they are disunionists and that they would be instrumental in bringing on a conflict in this country, as Seward has predicted would come to pass, the North and South in arms against each other. Fellow Democrats are you ready for such a conflict? if not, it behooves you to make ready, and in the language of the immortal Jackson, say that "the Union of these States must and shall be preserved!" Remember Democrats, that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

The South demands an equal right with the North in the Territories; they entered the Union with that right recognised in the Constitution, and it would be an act of injustice to debar them from it. Force-work will never abolish slavery. Peaceful means will accomplish it in time. Such means accomplished the abolition of slavery in our own State. Maryland and Kentucky would be free states now, had the abolitionists not excited the slave-holders by their agitation of the subject.

Fellow Democrats, in conclusion let me respectfully request each one of you to consider himself a member of the Democratic Vigilance Committee for our township, and let me exhort you all to go actively to work in the good old Democratic cause, and help us gain a glorious victory at the coming election.

JOHN D. LUCAS, Chairman of Vig. Com. of W. Providence tp.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE LIFE OF COL. DAVID CROCKETT, written by himself, comprising his early life, Hunting Adventures, Daring Deeds in Border and Indian Warfare, Services under General Jackson in the Creek war, Electing Speeches, Career in Congress, Triumphant Tour in the Northern States, and Struggles in the Texan War of Independence, together with an Account of his Glorious Death at the Alamo. In one 12mo. volume. Handsomely bound. Price $1.00.

We copy the following from the Philadelphia North American:—

Colonel Crockett was a character. His autobiography has been long out of print; his reputation for eccentricity has been presumed upon in the publication of all sorts of outrageous and obscene nonsense, in coarse almanacs, and other vehicles for low humor. This volume is a republication of the genuine work, with necessary additions; and will be new to the present generation of readers. It is as marked and characteristic as the subject was; his portrait faithfully drawn, and none the less so that it is without effort, and perfectly naive and sincere. We well remember the amiable original in his northern tour, and recall many of the incidents to which his book alludes. We never have looked upon his like since, and rejoice in this republication as an act of justice, to retrieve an honest man from vulgar misrepresentation.

A copy of the Book, and a handsome present will be sent by mail, post-paid, upon receipt of $1.00 for the book, and 21 cents for postage.

A new Classified Catalogue of Books and Gifts, with inducements to Agents, will be sent free, on application. Address G. G. EVANS, Publisher, 439 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

THREE PER CENT A MONTH: or the Perils of "Fast Living," by Charles Burdett, author of "Second Marriage," "Elliott Family," "Marion Desmond," "Never Too Late," etc., etc. One volume, 12mo., cloth. Price, $1.00.

This book deserves to be singled out and noted as above the many novels which are published. Both in structure and style it is entitled to the name of art. It is a Tale of Domestic Life, rehearsing the interwoven histories of a round of every day characters, and its aim is to show the follies of the too many, so called, passions and pleasures of fashionable life, touching in no part upon ground that properly belongs to the vast domain of romance.

The Bachelor Millionaire Uncle George, is a character reminding us of the Brothers Cheeryble, and although he teaches the "sweet uses of Adversity" with severe discipline, it brings out the true beauty of character, and shows how few there are who can go through the trials of every-day life, and in the end prove their constancy.

Copies of either of the above books with a handsome Gift worth from 50 cents to $1.00, will be sent to any person in the United States upon receipt of $1.00, and 21 cents to pay postage, by addressing the Publisher.

A new and Classified Catalogue of Books in every department of Literature, together with a list of Gifts, and every information relative to the establishment of agencies in the Gift Book business will be mailed free to any one by GEORGE G. EVANS, Publisher, and Originator of the Gift Book Business, No 439 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

The Slave Importation Heax.

The loss of many of our countrymen for playing off practical jokes is curiously illustrated in the annexed confession of a New Orleans journal. The pretending friends of the "poor negro" have, by their dishonesty and extravagance, subjected themselves and those who confide in them, to just such losses as the Crescent seems to acknowledge it has helped on; for the pure fun of seeing an abolitionist "caught, howl, and rave!"—metaphorically, of course! Not very dignified sport this, it must be admitted; but the experiment has proved that the nigger gullibility in certain quarters has no limit! The northern papers are now, and have been for some months past, terribly exercised about what they choose to term a renewal of the African slave. Columns ponderous and columns verbose—columns denunciatory and columns sarcastic—columns foolish and columns fatiguing—have been written and published daily for the last six months, having sole reference to this particular subject, and no signs of a termination of the wind-mill warfare have yet manifested themselves.

For our part, we have enjoyed the spectacle, and take great pleasure all times in witnessing the contortions of the pharisaical friends of the African race. We like to see sometimes a fanatic and hypocrite invent a falsehood and then incapable himself upon it for the edification of the careless public and the amusement of all reasonable men. It is so funny.

Perhaps we have helped on the delusion under which so many of the free-soil papers of the North labor. If so, we shall not be pained on anybody. We have alluded to the matter on several occasions, and assumed neither positive nor negative grounds. Indeed, we are not sure but that we have very slightly encouraged this idea that the African slave-trade was in active operation. If we did—we don't exactly remember at the present writing—it was to make Greeley, Beecher and company crawl, howl, and rave, not because we had any definite or other knowledge in the premises. We were well aware that a large majority of southern slave holders were opposed to a re-opening of the traffic, and were convinced that nothing of the sort on anything like an extensive scale could be consummated without our knowledge, our means of acquiring information being rather large than otherwise. Perhaps one or two cargoes of Congo, numbering two or three hundred persons each, have been landed on southern shores from Yankee vessels, manned by Yankee officers and seamen, and fitted out and supported by Yankee money and enterprise exclusively, within the last twelve months. Of even this we are by no means sure; but if it be the case, a Yankee, at home no doubt a rampant abolitionist, was at the bottom of it. A real southerner would no more think of going to Congo for a supply of laborers than he would of applying to the man in the moon to take up a note in bank for him.—N. O. Crescent.
