GRAND JURY IN TULSA INVALID

[illegible]

IT WAS DRAWN WRONG

[illegible]

BUILDINGS FOR THE YEAR HERE

[illegible]

MORE THAN A MILLION

[illegible]

HAPPENINGS AT THE REST ROOM

A WHITE-HAIRED VISITOR WITH NOTHING BUT A CREST OF ROYALTY

SHUNNED BY THE RICH

Customary Contributions Are Few and Far Between—Boys Assist by Deed of Mercy

[illegible]

A Pathetic Incident

[illegible]

Was Very Proud.

[illegible]

The Happy Sale

[illegible]

Printed Stationery.

Stationery is furnished—paid for by the rest room people—and this is used in large quantities by the women and girls who frequent the place. For status to be appropriately petty, is sent to all parts of the country, thus giving Tulsa some of the right kind of advertising.

A telephone is furnished for the public. It is surrounded by the luxuries, the very of the conspicuous rate of $2 a month. An "office fee" is charged the member who receives the calls to the rest room.

The Drug and Toilet Supply Company has just [illegible] and are now furnishing a [illegible] each day. The [illegible] for this. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Page have donated [illegible] and these give a home like air to the place. [illegible] are to be in [illegible] and [illegible] the new [illegible] and [illegible] and [illegible] and