Once for all.

Notice is hereby given, in earnest, that every body without respect to persons, who does not pay Geo'l Bowman's notes by the 1st Dec. next, will be sued, or executed. Out of feelings of delicacy, we have endeavored to respect the feelings of others, by forbearing to sue. Some whose notes we have, we loudest about cash terms in business. Let them practice as well as preach. After repeated notices of this kind, and frequent demands, together with a service of twenty five years among our people, it is time the claims were collected. No one, therefore, who neglects to pay at the above date, we trust, will take offence at being reminded of their duty. If they do, we hope they will get in a good humor.

The notes are in our hands and must be paid. Oct. 21, 1859. JESSE & SHANNON.
