Tuxedo

The Perfect Pipe Tobacco

Thousands of the most famous men in America endorse Tuxedo. It is the favorite tobacco of a majority of the critical pipe smokers of this country.

Tuxedo is made of only the finest Burley tobacco grown in Kentucky, mellow, ripe and full flavored. This leaf is cured and aged until it has reached the tip-top of perfection. Then it is treated by the original "Tuxedo Process" which completely eliminates every trace of bite and sting and develops the wonderful Tuxedo mildness and fragrance which no other tobacco has ever successfully imitated.

Tuxedo makes it possible for any man to smoke a pipe, no matter how sensitive a tongue he may have. There's never the slightest tongue-bite.

have passed since the day on which the city administration, a month previously definitely promised that it would furnish an ample supply of good drinking water, though the city needs and that promise has not yet been fulfilled.

The publication of The World at any time the city has not a generous supply of good water available for drinking purposes, has been the most important function it has performed in this direction since it was established.

"Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Hall, who found th' hatchet on Washington's Birthday, are parted again." New Mexican news paper item.

CURRENT COMMENT.

General Villa wired a friend to bet big money that the rebels would capture Torreon. If the friend hasn't bet it is impossible to make up a quorum.

It is impossible to make an odd's pay attention to the safeguarding of the life and property of the people. It is impossible to make anything but excuses for the safeguarding of the life and property of the people. It is impossible to make anything to carry out obligations incurred in good faith and reasonably justifiable. And what a spectacle it is that when a great corporation or a great enterprise which has weathered the storms of years then a generation falls on the ground, the reformers have a grand dance around the wreck and declare that the calamity is a great step toward insuring the rights of the people. Looking at the deserted homes and the hungry families and hearing the cry of distress ringing in our ears, we would not like to have the conscience of these politicians.

Wonder if the secretary of state isn't pulling for war in Ireland to divert attention from his farcical Mexican mission.

Mrs. Roosevelt says that she is not a bit worried because she has not heard from the colonel for some time. The colonel's collection for a lecture delivered shows his ample ability to take care of T. R.

Governor Colquitt has issued a call for men who can shoot. The qualification are inclusive. If ability to shoot refers to mouths, we commend the governor's attention to our army of politicians.—Oklahoman.

Most housepeople would object, middle at least, to their wives help for them in the way that the French minister's wife "helped" him.

Some weary fathers probably think that the president has an unfair advantage over the ordinary man, judging from the success he has in securing sons-in-law.

"Writes Article on Clover," says a headline in the University Missourian. And it must be admitted that this is quite a feat of penmanship.—Kansas City Times.

Railroad men in the south have decided to unite against the robbers. They'd better be careful. Rebellion against the government is treason.—K. C. Journal.

Why is it that a "free thinker" is generally a free lancher?

Governor Colquitt mal be shy on judgment, but he is there with the decision.—Joplin News Herald. Still, snap decision is almost as worthless as snap judgment.

Westinghouse, inventor of the air brake, left an estate worth $35,000,000. Now the question is: Can an heir break the airbrake inventor's will?—Oklahoma News.
