Ex-Rough Rider Stabbed

BAKERSFIELD, June 7.—(Special.)—Henry Grammer, a former rough rider, was perhaps fatally stabbed in Burbank, Kings county, and taken to a hospital at Arkansas City.

According to story of officers Grammer had just arrived in Burbank from his ranch when Bob Williams walked up to the former with a big knife in his hand. Williams made a vicious stab at Grammer, the blade penetrating the left breast. Williams then pulled the knife out and as his victim wheeled about struck him in the back cutting a long gash.

I beg to announce to my friends in Tulsa that I have bought out the Lauck Studio in the Gillette building, 17 East Third street, and will be glad to meet there all of my own patrons as well as those of Mr. Lauck. The same conscientious effort will characterize my work as in the past, and I am sure Mr. Lauck's friends will have no cause to regret the change. Don't forget the location: Gillette building, 17 East Third street. A. A. Bass, photographer.—Adv.
