Two Wives, One in Jail, Is Worry to J. Phillips

Special to The World.

LAWTON, Sept. 9.—Willie John Phillips and his first wife, Myrtle, in the Oklahoma prison today, and Susie, his second wife, refusing to prosecute on adultery charge, the Dillon authorities are wondering what they can do to get back about $10 in costs that they have spent on the case thus far. Dillonites a more complicated case has not been in the courts for some time and present indications are that it will slip by without prosecution.

John Phillips has been living on a farm west of Dillon since last May, coming over from Tulsa where he had some trouble with his second wife, Susie Phillips, and their baby boy. He had been married to Susie, it develops, for about two years. Phillips is about 4 years old, Myrtle about 23 and Susie about 19.

So He Gets Divorce.

It is charged that Phillips married Susie, whom he met and admitted, without the trouble of getting a divorce from Myrtle. Later, however, Susie learned that Phillips had been married before and demanded an explanation. Accordingly he secured a divorce from Myrtle but was not remarried to Susie, to whom he could not have been legally wed because of already having a wife. And under the law he would have to remain single six months before he could marry legally.

When Phillips came to Dillon last May to go to work on an oil lease, he bought some furniture in Dillon and said he was going to send for his wife. Later developments show that he did not if it was for Myrtle instead of Susie, and it was not long until Dillon became suspicious and started an investigation. She found that Phillips and Myrtle were in Dillon. Both came here yesterday and had them both arrested on an adultery charge, and they were placed in jail.

To Settle It.

Only a wife can swear to an adultery charge and as Susie was married illegally through no fault of her own, however, she could not, perhaps, swear legally to the complaint. Nevertheless, Susie appeared again today and refused to prosecute. Myrtle has expressed a desire to leave if the authorities will release her and it is said that Phillips and Susie have patched up their differences and will be remarried and live on the lease where Phillips and Myrtle have been living.

Executive Board to Meet.

Special to The World.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 9.—State Superintendent R. H. Wilson today stated that the executive committee of the State Teachers' association would meet in Oklahoma City next Monday and make final arrangements on the program for the teachers' meeting to be held in the latter part of November. The convention will be held in the auditorium, and it is estimated that fully five thousand teachers will be in attendance.

Refuses Requisition.

Special to The World.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 9.—Governor Williams refused to honor a requisition from the governor of Colorado for J. D. Dunbar of Enid, wanted in Colorado on a charge of forgery. It developed in the hearing before the governor that Dunbar had borrowed money from a bank in Colorado and paid more interest than the principal. Under the circumstances Governor Williams stated that he would not allow the man to be taken back.

SOUGHT NEGRO TO LYNCH; ARRESTED

Special to The World.

ANTLERS, Sept. 9.—Eight local citizens are under arrest here and charged with having been members of the mob that searched the county jail Tuesday night looking for George Washington, a negro accused of lurking, attempted to commit an assault upon a white woman.

Sheriff Wilson had the negro in custody Tuesday. Those who called at the jail Tuesday night and demanded possession of the negro searched the jail in vain in their attempt to locate the negro. The sheriff permitted them to search the jail but refused to reveal the whereabouts of the negro.

CHICKASHA MAN SAYS HE KILLED A COUSIN ABOUT 5 YEARS AGO

Special to The World.

CHICKASHA, Sept. 9.—Information charging Ed Stevens with having murdered his cousin, Oscar Stevens, was filed here Thursday. Stevens is now in the county jail.

The information is based upon Stevens' confession. He says that after killing his cousin five years ago he buried the body in a corn field in the northern part of Grady county, and that to his knowledge the body has never been discovered. Stevens says that after having killed his cousin he circulated the statement that his cousin had gone away to join the army.

Stevens was arrested Tuesday at noon near El Reno after having resisted the officers for three hours. The officers were seeking Stevens having been told that he was insane. When they arrived at the house where Stevens was staying they found the doors barricaded and Stevens armed with a rifle and revolver.

After a three hours' siege Stevens surrendered. He told the officers that if he was insane it was because he had murdered his cousin five years ago, and had buried the body in a corn field. Stevens was brought here from El Reno, and has reiterated his confession here.

"We quarreled about some work and I shot my cousin to death," said Stevens in jail here.

KUSA HAS ITS FIRST WEDDING

First Child to be Born to be Given Valuable Corner Lot.

Special to The World.

KUSA, Okla., Sept. 9.—The first wedding ever held in the new town of Kusa was solemnized today, the contracting parties being Claude Posten of Sand Springs and Miss Grace Long, daughter of the superintendent of the Kusa Spelter company. The young couple will make their home at Sand Springs, where the groom is employed on the zinc smelter.

The president of the Kusa Townsite company said today that the first child born on the townsite would receive a valuable corner lot and indicated that a neat little sum in cash would be given and put at compound interest to provide for its education.

Mosquitos Interfere.

Special to The World.

KUSA, Sept. 9.—The festive mosquito is playing havoc with workmen employed on an eight-inch gas pipe line which is being laid from a large gas pool near Sculter for use of Kusa and the big zinc works. The line crosses Deep Fork bottoms, where recent rains have flooded the country for more than a mile. Men working there digging a ditch for the gas line are literally eaten up with mosquitos. Among the 87 men employed by the zinc works on the line about twenty are down with fever, all on account of the pestiferous insect.

S. S. CONVENTION TO BE CLOSED TONIGHT

W. A. Brown of Chicago Spoke Yesterday; 100 in Attendance.

With practically every Sunday school in the county represented by one of more delegates, the eighth annual session of the Tulsa County Interdenominational Sunday school convention opened yesterday morning at the First Presbyterian church, and will continue until tonight.

When the afternoon session opened yesterday a large crowd was in evidence. The morning was given over to assigning the various delegates to homes where they will stay while the convention continues. The reception committee met all incoming trains and accorded the visitors a hearty welcome.

Splendid Address.

More than a hundred delegates arrived yesterday and more are expected today. Among the pleasing features of the convention yesterday was the singing of the ladies' quartet of Broken Arrow and the excellent addresses by W. A. Brown of Chicago. Mr. Brown addressed all three sessions yesterday. His subject in the afternoon was "Building Up the Sunday School."

Following his talk a "round table" was conducted in order that the delegates could get together and present their own ideas on what was necessary in building up and maintaining interest. Mr. Brown spoke last night on "Sunday Schools the World Around." He is an excellent and convincing speaker and at various times he would interrupt his own talks to ask questions of the delegates.

Two Sessions Today.

But two sessions will be held today. The morning session will convene at 10:15 o'clock and in the afternoon at 2:30. The feature of the morning meeting will be a conference led by W. A. Brown and assisted by Mr. Nichols. The subject will be "The Rights of the Child." Work with beginners, primaries and juniors will be talked over.

The convention ends with the afternoon session when reports of all county officers will be heard, together with three-minute talks by various superintendents.

The winding up of miscellaneous business by the delegates will be the signal for the closing of the most successful convention ever held in the history of the association.

Tit for Tat.

"Dear Clara," wrote the young man, "pardon me, but I'm getting so forgetful. I proposed to you last night, but really forget whether you said yes or no."

"Dear Will," she replied by note, "so glad to hear from you. I know I said yes to some one last night, but I had forgotten just who it was."—Red Hen.
