HOME BOYS GRAB BELATED VICTORY

David Kraft Pitches His Teammates to Another Win Over Senators.

THE SCORE WAS 4 TO 3

Ninth Rally by Producers and Moore's Home Run Ruins Opponents.

Special to The World.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 1.—Sent in as substitute pitcher after Brandom had been withdrawn in the seventh for a much hitter, Bill Phillips handed Tyler today's game in the ninth inning, 4 to 3. Ed Moore in knocking the ball out of the lot in the seventh inning for the only run up to that time of a pitchers' battle between Kraft and Brandom was responsible for the situation that demanded a pinch hitter when in the last half of the same round Clements' single, Blue's sacrifice and Dameron's infield out placed a runner on third. Dowie being passed on purpose brought up Brandom to the plate. Boss Baerwald immediately sent Phillips to warm up and called McCabe to bat. Kraft liked the looks of Bobbie McCabe no better than Bob whom he had just walked, so he started to pitch wide to the pinch hitter. Taking a chance on drawing a bad blow so that Clemens could sprint home, Dowie hotfooted it for second, but Moore's aim was true and swift and he was caught, retiring the side. This is how Phillips came to get into the fray.

Digs Another Hole.

Although he managed by the help of good backing to get out of a hole in the eighth, he dug a pitfall for himself in the ninth and plunged into it. He got his downward start when he muffed Lamb's easy popup, which landed squarely in his hands. Price sacrificed, but was safe on Dowie's wide throw to first, which pulled Fillman off the bag. Phillips hit Moore with a pitched ball, loading the sacks with none out. Then he fumbled Murphy's grounder long enough to let Lamb score, when he should have been an easy force and Murphy should have been doubled out at first. As it was, he caught Murphy, but Lamb reached home safely. Heatley's drive to right scored Price and Moore and the ruination was complete. Jordan relieved him and retired the side.

Might Have Won.

But for this nightmare of the ninth the Senators would have grabbed them a ninth inning victory. Nagle opened the home half of the session with a double to left. Baerwald also doubled, and Nagle, playing safe, pulled up at third. Both scored on Clemens' single to center. Blue drew four balls and skitted on around to third when Dameron beat out a bunt. Dennis sent in to bat for Jordan, drove one which Wooley had to back up almost to the center field fence to take.

Clemens scored on the sacrifice fly. Blue and Dameron still were on bases when Shaffer, batting in place of Fillman, popped out to Lamb for the final out.

Tulsa Federals and Colts will mix at Association park at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The Feds have a strong lineup to present and the Colts are admitted dark horses. It is possible that Crowson, who made a sensational debut in the city league last Thursday, will work in the box for the Feds.

The east triumphed over the west Friday, when George M. Church and Dean Mathey, both of New York, retained the doubles championship of the United States on clay courts by defeating Willis E. Davis and Harold Van Dyke Johns of San Francisco 7-5, 6-0, 6-2 in the challenge round of the doubles event in the seventh annual national clay court tennis tournaments on the clay course of the Lakewood club, Cleveland, Ohio. The champions more than lived up to their reputations, Church, in particular, played spectacular tennis. Mathey played an excellent game, considering that he has not been on the courts as much as Church this season. The Californians performed cleverly in the first set, but from then on were very erratic.

Bartlesville claims the distinction of having organized a gun club whose members did not join so much for the pleasure to be derived from weekly shoots as to help to enforce the game laws. The state game warden will be asked to issue a commission to each member, giving them police power, and when this is done woe to the game law violators. The club probably will take up the movement started by local men to introduce a new bill in the state legislature providing for stricter game laws.

E. F. Schoffner and F. N. Harper made a short fishing trip to Stone Bluff Thursday, returning Thursday.

Fishing seems to be a past art in Tulsa. With the exception of a few millionaires who will take their regular trip to Colorado or Canada or some place just as remote, Tulsans have forsaken the art of rod and reel. S'matter? Aren't they bitin'?

Hall, rightfielder of the Exchange team, played stellar ball for the money-changers Thursday, according to the Carter bunch. Well, anyway, they say he can play shortstop.

Freeman of the Carter city league baseball team sustained a smashed hand on the first pitched ball of the Carter-Exchange game in the city league Thursday and was forced to withdraw from the fray.

It has always been a conceded fact that the Carter city leaguers were strong in the pitching line with Davis and Estes for steady work, but a surprise was sprung Thursday when both of these men were relegated to the field and Crowell enconced himself in the box. It was not long before it was seen that Crowell is to rank with the best of 'em. He held the Exchange to five scattered hits and fanned ten men. Young started the game for the Exchange, but grew discouraged and turned the job over to Friend, who finished it in perfect manner. As a consequence the Carter won 17 to 1.

Too many errors is the definition of the game between the Twin-State and Gulf Friday. Foreman of the Limeliners having poor support. The Twin-State won 4 to 1. Payne of the Twins allowed six hits, while Foreman gave out only five bingles.

Standing of the City league now is:

Carter	5	2	.714
Exchange	3	3	.500
Gulf	3	3	.400
Twin-State	2	5	.286

The defeat of Terry by Greer in the first round was the feature of the open city tournament which opened on the Y. M. C. A. courts yesterday afternoon. The former was touted as one of the strongest men in the lists, but lack of practice made him easy play for Greer, the score being 6-1, 6-1. In the second round Greer fell before the steady attack of Iams, who looms as a probable contender in the finals with Sloan.

The remainder of the day's matches were almost devoid of interest on account of the onesideness. The second and third rounds will be played Monday at 5 o'clock. The semifinals and finals are to be played Tuesday, the Fourth of July.

Following are the results:

First Round.

Young defeated Lockwood by default, Howendobler defeated Clark, 6-0, 6-2; Breckinridge defeated Harry, 6-1, 6-2. Burbans defeated Chandler by default; Gappe defeated Graham, 6-2, 6-2; Sloath defeated Alexander, 6-1, 6-2; Preston defeated Stewart by default; Smith beat Murray, 6-1, 6-0; Rinehart defeated DuBoies by default; Greer defeated Terry, 6-1, 6-1; Iams defeated Daniels, 6-1, 6-0.

First round matches postponed. Kennedy vs. Davis, Martin vs. Zahn, Wakefield vs. Freeman, Cook vs. Benedict.

Second Round.

Howendobber defeated Breckinridge, 6-2, 6-4; Gappe defeated Burbans, 6-0, 6-3; Iams defeated Greer, 6-2, 6-2.

The tennis singles championship of the United States on clay courts was won by Willis E. Davis of San Francisco at Cleveland yesterday when he defeated Conrad B. Doyle, Washington, in the final match, 6-2, 7-5, 6-3. There was no challenge round because R. Norris Williams II of Philadelphia was not in condition to defend the title he won last year.

At the Country Club

(By HAROLD ORR)

A TRAGEDY IN THE ROUGH.

Perfect day! Feeling gay!
Tee up and slice away!
(Animated profanity,
None of which rhymes
Or preserves the meter).

Blind bogey will be the order of the day on the links July 4, according to the plan of J. D. Collins. In order to inject a little spirit into the regular patrons, Mr. Collins is arranging a blind bogey contest for the entire day. He will set a bogey for the nine holes and anyone may enter the contest. A contesant may pick his own handicap and the prize will go to the player coming nearest the mark he sets for himself. Golf balls will be trophies.

Attendance at the club is not so good as the weather warrants on account of so many regular patrons being out of the city. On an average of a dozen are on the links every afternoon, but few new faces were seen last week.

Two interesting foursomes stand out as the feature of last week on the green. On Saturday Collins and Painter drove far ahead of Bliss and Gwinnup in an 18-hole match. The latter showed to better advantage than any of Tulsa's entrants in the recent state tournament, Gwinnup being present state champion. Collins and Painter had six up and four. Matson paired with Gwinnup on Sunday and played a 36-hole match with Collins and Painter. The morning round left Gwinnup and Matson one up, but they increased their advantage during the afternoon, finishing three up.

Although the concrete tennis court at the club is in perfect condition, recquet wielders having been scarce since the burning of the old clubhouse. Not more than two or three games are played during the week. One reason for the lack of patronage is the extreme heat reflected by the concrete, making it better for spring or fall wet weather. The clay court has been abandoned.

Weekly canny advice from the caddy: He who putts and looks away will have another putt to play.

This is the busiest season of the year of the golfer who likes to follow the career of eastern stars of the green. Tournaments are being held all over the United States and rarely a day passes but what a new champion is announced. Robert W. Hodge of Blue Hills became Missouri state champion on his home club's links in Kansas City last week when he defeated Carl Anderson in the final round of play. Miss Laurie Kaiser of the Bellerive club, St. Louis, won the women's title.

J. Painter made the Country club course in 42 Wednesday afternoon, coming near the course record of 37.

Mrs. Winston Henry, Miss Frances Shultz of New Orleans and Mrs. Jesse Terry were the only fair followers of the niblick on the green last week.

Among the members who took the course last week were L. J. Martin, H. Y. Arnold, C. E. Dent, M. T. Stauffer, Ralph Stauffer, A. L. Funk, W. M. Black, F. S. Henry, J. H. McCune, F. G. Walling, Jesse Terry, C. B. Nelson, G. A. Matson, J. C. Painter, H. G. Gwinnup and Bliss.

BRISTOW BOOSTERS MEET CLEVELAND

Two Strong Semi-Pro Teams Will Stack Up Sunday; Setley Will Umpire.

Special to The World.

CLEVELAND, Okla., July 1.—The fast ball club known as the Bristow Boosters will be in Cleveland for a game Sunday. This game is looked to with pleasure, for to date the Cleveland club has been very unfortunate in getting games with clubs that would hold the interest of the spectators. Cleveland's only defeat was the first game of the season with the Tulsa Federals, and Bristow has won practically all of its games. "Bill" Setley will be the official umps.

THOSE DAYS ARE GONE.

Oh, somewhere in the gleaming past I hear the stands aroar,
I see the hits go hurtling out, and watch the runners score;
I feel again the joyous thrill which surged through bone anr brawn,
As down the dust-dimmed pennant track our team went rushing on.
But dreams of yesterday I trow will not efface the blight
Of latter days when servile foes surpass us in the fight;
And hits of days when we could drive straight through the foeman's gall,
Will not atone for June time slumps not stop our dizzy fall.

It's Worth Worrying Over.

Or in other words it isn't what we have been or what we may be in the next century or so that will stake us in the fair land of the chosen people, but what we are at the present time. And it is what we are at the present time which is seaming slight crinkles in the placid brow of Owner Scott and his good man Friday, Manager Price. Both of these aforesaid Producers have raked the bushes on all sides in an effort to switch the fortunes of the local club, but seemingly of no avail. What we need at present is a punch, a fifty or sixty or one hundred and twenty horse power kick. We win a game, then lose two, win two and lose one. This kind of baseball will never swing us pennantward and this is the objective Manager Price and his good master have their hearts set on.

And while we are rapping allow us to whisper this little message into the ear of Manager Price. Castoffs from ehre and there, men who have planked up records of fair proportions in the days that were, are going to do little to aid us in our final plunge.

But the fact of the matter is, Manager Price has found that players are as scarce as booze is in William Jennings Bryan's home at present. All, or that is most, of the players of marked ability are drawing down fat stipends and are all tied up to somebody's apron strings.

And What I Thought I Might Require, Etc.

The ball team won another game they say,
In fact they rather murdered the old ball,
And so I've grabbed again my jaunty way,
And look to brighter prospects in the fall.
I feel like giving vent to one "hurrah";
A happier thought has seized me—after all
I think I will not kill myself today.

Turner Is Coming.

It gives us a great deal of pleasure in this connection to announce that Peck Turner, by far the best college infielder in the south a couple of years ago, and one of the best all round ball players on southern diamonds of whatever plane, has agreed to finish out the season with the Producers. Turner has just concluded his law course at Vanderbilt university, where he was captain of the team, and wants to limber up a bit before tackling the stern business of shooting technicalities at some legal umpire's head.

Will Return Monday.

The Producers will be back among us Monday. On that day they clinch with their arch rivals, the McAlester Miners. The Miners will also take us on for a couple on the fourth of July. If the Producers—note that this is a remote contingency—if teh Producers can manager to batter down the visitors' lines three times in a stretch the betting will immediately take a flyer towards the top again.

DAVIS WALKS OFF WITH TENNIS TITLE

National Clay Court Tournament Taken by Californian, Norway Woman Wins

CLEVELAND, July 1. — For the third time since the introduction of the national clay court tennis tournament the championship in the men's singles was captured today by a star from California. Willis E. Davis, San Francisco, acquired possession of the hard court challenge bowl this afternoon at the Lakewood Tennis club where the seventh annual renewal of the fixture closed this afternoon by defeating Conrad B. Doyle of the Columbia Country club, Washington, D. C., 6-2, 7-5, 6-3.

R. Norris Williams II, Philadelphia, 1915 champion, did not defend his title. Davis decisively outplayed Doyle in today's match. The westerner's speed was amazing and Doyle could do little with his service.

Miss Molla Bjurstedt of Norway retained the ladies' championship on clay courts by defeating Miss Martha Guthrie of Pittsburgh, Pa., 5-6, 6-3. Miss Guthrie won more games from the Norwegian star than any other opponent she has encountered this season.

George M. Church, Tenafly, N. J., and Miss Bjurstedt won the mixed doubles championship by defeating Conrad B. Doyle and Mrs. Harry Pickle, Toronto, Ontario, 6-1, 6-2.

Des Moines 1, Lincoln 2.
Sioux City 4, Omaha 9.
Denver 8, St. Joseph 6.

Rather Difficult.

Cheerful One (to newcomer, on being asked what the trenches are like)—"If yer stands up yer get sniped; if yer keeps down yer gets drowned; if yer moves about yer gets shelled; and if yer stands still yer gets court-martialed for frost-bite."—Punch.

Common Inheritance.

"The world owes me something."
"Well, you'll probably collect those ills that flesh is heir to."
