MUSICAL.

An interesting and pleasant occasion of Thursday evening in music circles was the recital program in which Mrs. Edla Lund, teacher of voice presented three of her advanced pupils at Boston Avenue Methodist church. The program was given by Mrs. A. C. Robertson of Oklahoma City, and Mrs. N. C. Roberts and Mrs. H. B. Harts of Ardmore. It was to exemplify her work and success as a teacher that Mrs. Lund brought these three students of voice here to appear before a Tulsa audience, and their singing was such as to reflect great credit upon her methods of instruction in voice culture. Each showed excellent foundation and conscientious schooling. Miss Mildred O'Shaughnessy another of Mrs. Lund's pupils who took first honors in the state federation vocal contest and later the honors of the southwest in Memphis, was unable to be present at this time. A group of women representative of the club and social life of the city patronized the occasion as follows: Mesdames William A. Aggers, L. C. Barton, A. A. Bass, C. E. Bush, Fred S. Clinton, James R. Cole, Douglas W. Franchot, William Richard Gunderson, Frank H. Greer, D. K. Hill, A. W. Hine, Clarence J. Hindman, O. H. Leonard, R. F. MacArthur, W. M. Mount, Frank Neff, Albert W. Roth, John Roy, A. J. Rudd, C. G. Spindler, C. E. Stronvelle, John Knowles Weaver and Miss Myra Cogswell.

Last Friday night at Kendall college John Knowles Weaver presented a group of piano pupils assisted by organ and voice pupils of Mr. Robert Peice Carson, in an interesting recital.

The piano pupils, in varied numbers, displayed reliable memory, well-developed technic and good taste in the interpretation. Particularly enjoyable were the organ numbers given by the Misses Moore and Lenox. Miss Moore played with fine effect "The Old Hundredth" (Truette) and "Concert Caprice" (Edward Kreiser). The latter is familiar to Tulsa music lovers, having been played here several times by the composer. Miss Lenox played the "Jubilant March," by Solly, tastefully bringing out various orchestral effects from the organ that were delightful to the hearers. The vocal numbers given by the Misses Drewer and Bedford were decidedly pleasing and reflected credit on Professor Carson, their instructor. The program:

Old Hundredth (organ) ..... Truette
Jennie Moore.
Polish Dance ..... Scharwenka
Wilma Asoin.
"Consolation" ..... Leschetizky
Edith Frost
Mazurka No. 1 ..... Morrison
Mildred Scott

(b) "I Love Thee" ..... Sobeski
Elizabeth Bedford.
Minuet ..... Mineti
Ella Yeldell
"The Trifler" ..... Skelton
Mabel Croft
Jubilant March (organ) ..... Solly
Evelyn Lenox
No encores.

With the productions of Carmen and Il Trovatore by the Ellis Grand Opera company, a beautiful memory and the appearance of the Russian Ballet not many weeks distant, the next event following the coming of these imperial performers to Tulsa on December 11, will be the Lucy Gates concert under the auspices of Trinity Episcopal church Tuesday, December 12, at Convention hall. Miss Isabel Fonda, and her assistants Mrs. Alfred Theobold and other women of the church have outlined a ticket selling campaign which is proving successful and it is confidently expected that every seat in Convention hall will be filled on the night of the appearance of the charming coloratura soprano assisted by Mr. M. Boguslawski, pianist of Kansas City, and Miss Lynette Kimmons of Tulsa, accompanist.

Mr. Boguslawski has just concluded a tour of the east and New York critics who are chary in their praise of a new artist wrote most favorably of this brilliant young pianist of whom his teacher, Leschetizky, said he could do almost anything conceivable technically and who has been called the Paderewski of the future. Of Miss Kimmons, who is a familiar figure among musicians of the city, little need be said when she is asked to appear along with musicians of the rank of Miss Gates and Mr. Boguslawski.

The first open meeting of the season in the Cadman club will be held Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at First Baptist church. The program has been selected from the American composers and will be rendered as follows:

Remarks ..... Mrs. J. L. Pierce
Folk song ..... Mac Dowell
The Sea ..... Mac Dowell
Thy Beaming Eyes ..... Mac Dowell
Mrs. Ollie Vance Crawley.
That's the World in June ..... Spross
Joan ..... Spross
The Awakening ..... Spross
Mrs. George C. Renshaw
Waltz de concert ..... Liebling
The Sleep That Flits on Baby's Eyes ..... Carpenter
The Day is no More ..... Carpenter
Lotus Bassett Williams
Allah ..... Chadwick
Thou Art So Like a Flower ..... Chadwick
The Dream ..... Mrs. J. C. Woolsey

A special program of music has been prepared by the choir of First Presbyterian church for the Thanksgiving services today. Mr. Robert Peice Carson will direct and Miss Lynette Kimmons will be at the organ. The numbers:

MORNING.

Prelude ..... Wagner
Quartet—Praise the Lord ..... Wooler
Offertory ..... Williams
Quartet—Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem ..... Maunder
Postlude ..... Elgar

EVENING.

Prelude ..... Specker
Quartet—Then Will Keep Him ..... Peace
Offertory ..... Saint Saens
Postlude ..... Kilmer

Mrs. Storey-White contralto soloist and musical director of the choir of Trinity Episcopal church announces her program for this morning's service as follows:

Prelude—
Te Deum Laudamus ..... Cline
Jubilate Deo ..... Foster
Offertory—"O Rest in the Lord" ..... Mrs. White
Mrs. White.

Following upon the success of its initial concert of the 1916-17 season, the Apollo club is enthusiastic in its anticipation of the next number of the series, Mischa Elman's appearance on February 14. Mischa Elman, who is rapidly taking a place with the world's foremost violinists comes on March 27.

Mrs. George Wightler left yesterday for Pittsburgh, Pa., where she was called unexpectedly by the death of her father, Mr. J. P. Sheffler, who passed away during the morning. Announcement of Mr. Sheffler's death conveyed none of the details, nor is there any information as to arrangements for the funeral as yet.

PERSONALS.

At a dance of pupils of the Burke Dancing academy, No. eight 20, ballroom dances will be demonstrated as follows: Miss Louella Gregg and Mr. Arthur Fiske, Montgarte, one step; Miss Ia Nora Elliott and Mr. Harold Flower, national fox trot; Miss Ruth Pasolles and Mr. Roy Wa Simon, Hesitation; Miss Irene Campbell, waltzes; Miss Frank le Brecht and Mr. E. G. Clarke, tango.

Miss Marguerite Gavin will come on Wednesday from Kansas City, where with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Gavin, she is spending the winter, to be the guest of Miss Virginia Cobb during the Thanksgiving season. Miss Marie Cobb who is a student of Oklahoma university, will also come during the week for the brief vacation visit at home.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis C. Chandler was the scene of a gathering of some fifty guests Friday evening, entertainment of the party having been made with cards, progressive games and music. Mrs. L. Jones and Dr. M. C. Kimball were winners of the prizes at cards. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. John S. Grace and two young sons, Parker and Arthur, will leave on Thursday for the east to remain until February with Mr. Grace's home folks. Mr. Grace will join the family for Christmastide. The Clarkes, who have recently designed of their home in Sixteenth street, expect to build in the spring.

The Thursday Auction Five Hundred club met with Mrs. P. M. Greer for the past week's game, which was an enjoyable affair, with 3 tables playing. Mrs. W. A. Anderson made high score. Mrs. H. C. Childs will be hostess at the next meeting in two weeks.

Mrs. Laura B. Packscott of Stillwater, state commander of the W. R. association of Maccabees, met a large number of members of the local organization yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. Blewett, where she addressed the women on the work of their organization.

The Misses Mary Delaney and Bessie Crennins of Tulsa and Miss Josephine Farrell of Hutchinson, Kan., who are students of Trinity college, Washington, D. C., this year, will go to New York for the Thanksgiving vacation as guests of Miss Farrell's sister, Mrs. Harry F. Sinclair.

Mrs. E. K. Moody of Titusville, Pa., will arrive on Monday from Independence, Kan., where she has been visiting the home of her son, Mr. Nelson K. Moody, to spend the Thanksgiving season with Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Moody.

Mrs. Uley Holderman was hostess at the meeting of the J. R. C. club on Friday, when three tables of rook were played. The very pleasant afternoon spent in pursuit of the club's pastime was followed by the serving of a luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Hindman have gone to Kansas City for the Thanksgiving season, their visit at this time having been planned in order that they might attend the Missouri-Kansas football game.

Mrs. J. Wesley West, who was very painfully injured in last Sunday's automobile accident, has been removed from the hospital to her home, 1314 South Main street, where she is convalescing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dillard who since their marriage have been residing with Mr. Dillard's father, Judge F. B. Dillard, will go to housekeeping on East Seventeenth street at the first of the year.

Mrs. George Dillard and Miss Mary Dillard of Washington, Ga., who have been visiting the home of Judge F. B. Dillard for a month, will leave on Monday for their home.
