Of Interest to Women

Informal

Mrs. Ralph M. Darnell and Mrs. Garland Marrs were hostesses last Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Darnell entertaining a company of more than 40 matrons and young women with a delightful afternoon at cards.

Approaching spring was the keynote of the decorations which were in a variety of early blossoms, used throughout the card rooms. Ten tables of the game were played with high scores going to Mrs. Rex S. Walker and Mrs. Bruce Martin. Mrs. R. Otis McClintock, Mrs. W. T. Bennett and Miss Mary Nicholson assisted the hostesses in serving luncheon at the card tables. The guest party included Mesdames Bruce Martin, Rex S. Walker, Earl H. Hastings, Stanley F. Hisey, E. P. Mrs. Emerson C. Higgins was hostess of an eight table bridge party Saturday afternoon, with members of the Whee club and a group of additional friends as guests. Besides matrons and girls of the club the following were present: Mesdames John W. Bates, Harold McKenna, Frank I. Louis, Young O. Mitchell, Roscoe M. Griffith, A. C. Fowler, Carl C. Simmons, Harry C. Ashby, Arthur L. Murphey, Charles F. Martin, William H. Pomeroy, Arch L. Smith; Harry Gable of Marion, Ind., Misses Dorothy Miller, Irene Delaney, Susan Lipscomb, of Auburn, Ala.

A group of mothers and daughters were guests of Mrs. Claude T. Hendershot on Tuesday, when Mrs. Hendershot entertained with a pleasant informal afternoon for her mother, Mrs. J. V. Anderson. The guests included Mesdames Frank B. DeShone, D. D. Mickleson, H. N. Cole, D. C. Rose, F. E. Baker, H. L. Sutton, J. E. Huff, F. A. Beal, F. J. Campbell, Dickerman, J. A. Abel, Harry Campbell, Hall, O. H. Leonard, Ralston, L. M. Bennett of Cedar Falls, Iowa, Mealy of Warren, Pa., C. C. Cole of Kinsman, Ohio, F. A. Estill of Montgomery City, Mo.

Mrs. Samuel Boorstin entertained with a party of attractive appointments Friday afternoon when she had 25 matrons and girls as guests in compliment to Mrs. Morris Pepis of New York. Mrs. Julia Goodman, whose marriage to Mr. M. Rosenberg is to take place on Sunday, March 23, shared honors of the affair and in anticipation of the approaching nuptial event was made the recipient of a shower of gifts.

Mrs. John R. Woodard entertained with a four table party of pretty appointments Friday afternoon for her sister, Mrs. Grace Campbell of Chattanooga, Tenn. High scores were made by Mrs. Joseph P. Byrd and Mrs. C. S. Avery. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. W. Albert Cook in serving a luncheon from the card table, which held decorations of spring flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dresser arrived during the week from Bradford, Pa., for a visit with Tulsa friends.

Luncheons

Mrs. Murray M. Doan brought pleasure to quite a large company of matrons and young women Monday afternoon, when she entertained at luncheon, followed by bridge in the Country club. Appointments for the affair were appropriate to the season of St. Patrick, with an attractive green and white table centerpiece of fresia, carnation and greenery. After luncheon five tables of bridge were formed in the big living room of the club. Invitations for the affair were to Mesdames George M. Camerbury, L. R. Davis, R. Otis McClintock, E. J. Lambert, M. Moran, Howard W. Anders, Bert Goodman, R. W. Castle, J. L. Taylor, I. G. Rosser, James B. Diggs, Harry F. Castle, Paul M. Paine, Floyd J. Bradford, John W. Cunningham, Letha Stanley Lawhon, J. Asa Johnson, Misses Sara Davidson, Elsie Birmingham and Gwynne.

Mrs. O. F. Sinks entertained a small party at luncheon Wednesday afternoon in her home.

Mrs. William S. Cochran paid Mrs. Leo Powers a pretty compliment Friday, when she entertained at luncheon and bridge at the Country club, in the visitor's honor.

The luncheon table, centered in spring flowers had covers for a group of eight; young matrons and girls. Several rounds of bridge in which Miss Jeanne Shea made high score, followed the serving. The guest party included: Mesdames A. E. Stubler, Frederick P. Walter, Joseph McCune, Leo Ludlow, Fred Brinegar of Bartlesville and Miss Jeanne Shea.

Mrs. Howard N. Cole entertained with a small luncheon of pretty appointments Friday afternoon in honor of Mr. Cole's mother, Mrs. C. C. Cole of Kinsman, Ohio. Covers were laid for Mesdames H. L. Sutton, J. V. Anderson, F. E. Baker, Tiffany and E. G. Rutherford of Robinson, Ill.

Dances

Mrs. Winnifred Washabaugh entertained with an informal house dance Thursday evening in her home.

Dinners

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Kendrick, who have recently come from Philadelphia, for residence in Tulsa, entertained with a pleasant dinner party Friday evening in the Country club honoring Captain and Mrs. E. P. Kendrick, who are en route home to Mineapolis, Minn., from Washington.

Dancing followed the dinner at which there were covers for Messrs. and Mesdames Frank L. Bartlett, Arch L. Smith, Charles E. Braden, Seth Ely, Charles D. F. O'Hern, J. Raymond Burdick, Edwin R. Perry, Lynn R. Wallace, Carl Dresser of Bradford, Pa., Mrs. I. K. Eddy of Philadelphia, and Mr. Earl W. Sinclair.

Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Buel were hosts of a delightful dinner last evening in the Petroleum club, entertaining in compliment to Mrs. Buel's mother, Mrs. C. H. Peeples of Musogee, and a group of other visiting matrons including Mrs. Dan M. Hyndes of Billings, Mont., and Mrs. J. T. Ridgway of Kansas City.

Jonquils decorated the table which had covers in addition to those of the three visiting matrons, for Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe M. Griffith and Mr. and Mrs. Bird S. McGuire.

Mr. and Mrs. Lea McBirney were hosts of a large dinner at which they entertained a group of members of their family and friends Friday evening in their home.

Decorations for the affair were suggestive of St. Patrick's day, the table centerpiece having been of fresia and fern. Covers were laid for 24.

A dinner at which men of Trinity Episcopal parish are to be guests, has been set for Tuesday evening in the sub-story of the church, at which time the matter of a new home for the congregation is to come up for discussion and action.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Miskell entertained with a dinner for 10 Thursday evening in the Petroleum club. Mrs. Lou Connolly of Muskogee and Mrs. Charles Madison of New Orleans were guests from out of town.

Clubs

The regular monthly meeting of the association of collegiate alumnae, which for this occasion was in the form of a luncheon, was held Saturday afternoon in Hotel Ketchum, with Mrs. George M. Ransom presiding. Preceding the serving there was a short program of songs by Mrs. Claude H. Priddy.

During the transaction of the large amount of business which had accumulated, Mrs. Max A. Pishel was appointed chairman of a committee to investigate the local needs for a college loan fund, which the branch has established for next year. The secretary read a letter from Senator Robert L. Owen, acknowledging the branch's indorsement of the Hoke Smith educational bill, which is being worked out by Senator Smith personally. After an enthusiastic talk by Mrs. Richard A. Conkling on the need of co-operation between the A. C. A. and incoming college women, Miss Florence N. Hanson and Miss Margaret L. Campbell were appointed a committee to formulate some definite plan for meeting and coming in contact with these women. The secretary read a communication from the national secretary in regard to the national convention to be held at the Planters' hotel in St. Louis, March 31 to April 3. Mrs. George M. Ransom was elected delegate and Mrs. Raleigh S. Shade chosen councilor from the local branch. Mrs. Shade, who was named as chairman of the program committee for next year will announce the personnel of her committee upon her return from the national meeting. Members and guests in attendance were Mesdames George M. Ransom, Edmund Lashley Williams, Ida B. Thayer, Claude H. Priddy, C. E. Vehe, Harry D. Murdock, Raleigh S. Shade, S. Spencer Williams jr., Howard A. Parker, Carl Pleasant, C. E. Haggard, Max A. Pishel, Richard A. Conkling, Elton B. Hunt, William Bottom, E. A. Westhafer, Lynn R. Riddle, I. I. Underwood. Misses Florence Hanson, Fannie Wray, Leona Axis Smith, Margaret L. Campbell, Esther Franz, Fredericka Propst, Eva Adams.

Two days which Tulsa women have been anticipating with interest—Monday and Tuesday, when Mrs. Helen Huntington Downing, domestic science expert will talk in the assembly room of the library, are almost here and it is a certainty that they are not going to be disappointed. Those talks which are to be on the art of cooking, food conservation and so on, have been arranged for by The Tulsa World free, to all women who may be interested and indications are that the capacity of the library assembly will be taxed. Mrs. Downing comes to Tulsa from Chicago, where her talks on how to conserve as well as prepare food attracted hundreds of women daily and that she has a message which will interest women of this community there is no doubt. The lectures have been set for 3 o'clock Monday and Tuesday afternoons. On Monday morning Mrs. Downing will speak at the regular high school assembly.

Shakespeare club observed its annual meeting and election Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Frank H. Greer, at which time Mrs. John Roy was chosen president, Mrs. John D. Hill vice president, Mrs. James B. Diggs secretary, Mrs. Charles D. F. O'Hern corresponding secretary. Responses to roll call were from Shakespeare's quotations on "Love at First Sight." The club voted a sum of money to the Travelers' aid work in Tulsa and accepted an invitation to attend the lecture and exhibit of Adam Albright's canvasses Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. A. J. Rudd. Mrs. Greer conducted a quiz prepared by Mrs. Preston C. West on the chapter. The club will be Mrs. Greer's luncheon guests on March 21.

There will be a meeting of the mothers and fathers of students of the high school at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the high school building, called by Mr. Merl Prunty, principal. Mr. Prunty has had no opportunity to meet and become acquainted with the parents of the student body of the school and every mother and father who has a boy or girl in school is urged to be present.

Mrs. J. M. Temples was hostess at a meeting of the Progress club, Friday afternoon when Mesdames A. Ray Wiley, Ira Pilcher, Robert Shipman and L. C. Holt of New York were special guests.

Drama league will meet for its regular program of study Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Robert M. Galer, 1315 South Boston avenue. The numbers: "The Romances of the 19th Century" (Scrive, Augier, Pailleron), Mrs. James C. Thompson. Reading, "The Ladies' Battle" (Scrive), Miss Gatzendanner, Mrs. M. R. Flesher, Mrs. J. P. McLain, Mrs. C. E. Walson and Mrs. Hal Rambo.

Hattie Grayhill Missionary society of First Presbyterian church will meet for its annual all-day session Thursday in the church. The session will open at 10 o'clock a. m. and the morning will be given over to reading of the reports and other business. Luncheon is to be served at the noon hour, followed by installation of the new officers and a talk by Miss Helen Streator of New York, a field secretary of the home mission board.

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Childs, Messrs. and Mesdames J. C. Thompson, A. D. Sloan, Mrs. J. W. Sayles and Miss Florence Babcock were special guests at the meeting of El Casado club, Friday evening when Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Rogers were hosts. High scores were made by Mrs. J. C. Thompson and Mr. Claude H. Rosenstein.

Ruskin Art club members and their friends will meet in the home of Mrs. A. J. Rudd Monday for an exhibit of the paintings of Adam Albright, well known artist of Chicago, who will talk to the club on art.

The Woman's auxiliary of Temple Israel, anounced to meet at 2:30 Wednesday in the temple, will meet at the Y. M. C. A. instead.

Music and Art

Seldom is a community enabled to hear two such rare musical treats in the brief space of 10 days, as is the privilege of Tulsans, who last week experienced all the delights of a Heifetz program and who this week on Wednesday are to be entertained by Alma Gluck, the charming young contralto. Mme. Gluck is to be assisted by Signor Salvatore de Stefano, harpist, with Miss Eleanor Schieb at the piano. The program will begin promptly at 8:15 o'clock and no one will be admitted to Convention hall, where the artist is to sing, during the numbers.

Mme. Gluck, accompanied by her two children and traveling in a private car, will arrive in this city Tuesday night and on Wednesday will make her second appearance before a Tulsa audience, under the direction of Robert Rose, Caters. Mme. Gluck is accompanied by her two small children and is traveling in a private car. The program:

Richard, age 6, and Basil, 4 years old, two bright, interesting young laddies, are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Poulton. Mrs. Poulton, who was Miss Mary Hooper before her marriage, now is the mother of three fine sons, the youngest, a baby of 6 months, who has been named Robert.

Catharine CHOCOLATES

"SWEETS to the Sweet" is an old-fashioned tribute we shall always hold dear. The gallant of today is practicing it as did the beaux of yesteryear. But today he takes pains to see that the "sweets" are the very choicest his money can buy. He buys his chocolates by name. Catharine Chocolates are his choice because everyone likes these variety tidbits, knowing they will not find a "plain" cream in the box. Next time try this kind.

DANDRUFF SURELY DESTROYS THE HAIR

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Adv.
