SAPULPA MAN HIT BY INTERURBAN CAR

Injured Man Brought to Tulsa Hospital Is In Serious Condition—Companion Escapes.

W. H. Cunningham, 68 years old, a carpenter, living at 1024 East Denton avenue, Sapulpa, was run down by an east bound interurban car at the crossing near the tannery in Sapulpa at 7:20 o'clock last night and suffered a broken leg and a serious fracture of the skull.

The car, in charge of Motorman Walters and Conductor C. C. McWhorter, was running slow and the whistle was sounded and the air brakes applied when the men were seen on the crossing. Cunningham was unconscious when picked up by the motorman and passengers. An ambulance was called and the injured man was brought to Tulsa hospital where it was said last night that he was in a serious condition.

Another man who was walking with Cunningham escaped injury and was not seen after the car hit Cunningham. The two men were said to be standing on the crossing examining a shotgun.

R. L. Francis, a machinist in the Frisco shops at Sapulpa and son-in-law of Cunningham, accompanied the injured man to the hospital.

The car that hit Cunningham stopped within its length, the man's body being even with the back steps of the car when picked up.

BOSTON, March 17.—Two deaths attributed to lethargic encephalitis were reported by physicians in this city and Brockton today. Mrs. Michael S. Russo, who had been asleep for nine days, died here last night. The death of a child four years of age from the same cause was announced in Brockton.

IRISH FREEDOM DEMANDED IN ST. PATRICK PARADE

NEW YORK, March 17.—Picturesque costumes and banners demanding liberation of Ireland and release of Jeremiah A. O'Leary, anti-British editor now on trial here charged with violating the espionage act, marked the St. Patrick's day parade in Manhattan today of 38,000 "wearers of the green."

About 7,500 marchers turned out for a parade in Brooklyn.

"England, damn your concessions, we want our country," was the legend of one of the largest banners displayed. Others were lettered: "We stand for a free and independent Ireland," "a true American is a true Sinn Feiner," "our country for ourselves," "we demand the release of Jere O'Leary and all other political prisoners," and "perjury, bribery and persecution vs. Jere O'Leary."

John W. Goff, retired justice of the New York supreme court was grand marshal of the parade and several score Irish organizations with many bands were in line.

Governor Smith with his military staff, Mayor Hylan and Most Rev. Patrick J. Hayes, newly appointed archbishop of New York, were among those who reviewed the parade.

American Ship Burns.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The American auxiliary vessel, the City of Guilport, was destroyed by fire on March 14, in the La Plata roadstead, Buenos Aires, Argentine, according to advices to the state department today. An investigation to determine the cause of the fire is being made, it was stated, but no other details were given.
