REGISTER NOT OPEN FOR BOND ELECTION

All Men and Women Otherwise Qualified May Cast Ballot on March 25.

Every qualified voter in Tulsa will be permitted to vote at the special school bond election on Tuesday, March 25, whether registered or not.

The qualification of a voter is that he or she shall be 21 years old and shall have resided in the state one year, in the county six months and in the precinct 30 days.

Fred L. Kitchen, chairman of the election board, said yesterday that the date of the election did not permit the opening of the registration books within the time designated by law and, as there is no opportunity for the voter to register, he will not be deprived of his electoral right.

All women qualified to vote will have the privilege of casting their ballots at this election.

MISSOURIAN ARRESTED HERE ADMITS ROBBING SAILOR

Earl C. Kenney, arrested in this city on a fugitive warrant by federal officers, charged under indictment returned by the federal court at Springfield, Mo., with forging a government certificate of payment for allotment to a mother of a sailor, admitted his identity Wednesday before J. H. Wilkins, United States commissioner, and was held under bond of $500 for removal to Springfield for trial.

Kenney admits obtaining possession of an allotment warrant due the mother of a sailor and cashing the instrument, after forging the name of the payee. He is held in the city jail awaiting removal to the Missouri city.

OIL COMPANY SUED ON NEW JERSEY CLAIM

Asking judgment in the sum of $18,622.50, declared to have been awarded the plaintiff in a trial of the case before the courts in Essex county, New Jersey, suit was filed in superior court Wednesday by Jaehnig & Peoples, incorporated, of New Jersey, against the Colorado Oil corporation of Delaware, the plaintiff alleging the original judgment has not been paid.

My Word—And It's Come to This!

THE DUKE OF DILBURY WHOSE CARD WAS TAKEN UP BY THE LOCAL BECAUSE HE WORE PANTS—SAY A BUTTON AT LADY ORDINGTON'S GARDEN PARTY LAWST SUMMER!

According to recent cable dispatches the 27 English dukes have taken the first step to form a union. They hope in this way to turn the encroachments upon their rights that have been made of late by the common people and to combat the growing sentiment that they should be of some use. That the dukes' union will have other functions is the opinion of the artist.

MAN ABSENT SEVEN YEARS SUED HERE FOR DIVORCE

Alleging her husband for the past seven years has failed to notify the plaintiff of his place of residence, Bessie Hoffman filed suit for divorce in superior court Wednesday against Louis Hoffman, alleging desertion since September 12, 1911.

Mrs. Hoffman asks decree of divorce and the custody and control of their minor child, Jack Hoffman.
