EYES TESTED FREE—When we say free we mean free, we don't mean to test the eyes free to charge you $10 or $15 on the lenses. The prices will be the same as before, only on lenses for very difficult cases. And remember, we expect to keep as high grade lenses as there is in the United States (we buy Hertel and Kryzik). We will handle ground lenses only and at living prices. For special ground lenses for near or far vision of course will come much higher. Prices ranging from $7 to $10 pair, a range from $5 to $10. Prices on ground lenses, average strength, will run as before, as the testing is absolutely free, will be $2.50 to $5 pair. Remember these lenses are absolutely the high grade. Prices as cheap as the Unlimited States and guaranteed to order and guaranteed to give you a perfectly clear vision. Mountings and frames . . . We will have them at 50c and up to $5 pair. By the 24th of this month (this the Ring Man) will have a graduate registered optician. Remember the date. Then we will be equipped with a complete optical store and we want to notify all those people, also every man who knows how rare it is to dislike that our goods will be absolutely the standard and at living prices. John's policy has always been quick sales and small profit. John is an old time card man and will give 10 per cent discount to all men with a union card. Bring your card. One good deed should help the other. John can save you money on a watch, and remember John is the Ring Man of Tulsa, having about 2,000 rings displayed set with beautiful stones, also plain and engraved. John has the genuine golden and white sapphires, also the Mexican and Arizona topaz. They sparkle like a real diamond.
