ANNOUNCEMENTS

FUNERAL NOTICES 2

Mrs. John Kelsey was born at Fairfax, Mo., August 25, 1895; was married July 4, 1916. Died Saturday, April 5, 1919, at Tulsa hospital, where she had gone for an operation. Was buried Wednesday, April 9, in Rose Hill cemetery. Her mother, Mrs. W. P. Blevins, and sister, Mrs. T. F. Williams, were called home from Mound City, Mo., where they had been called on account of the severe illness of a brother, Elton Blevins. Mrs. Kelsey united with the Christian church in her earlier girlhood. She leaves five brothers and five sisters, namely, Thomas Blevins, Electra, Texas; Mrs. Lela Thompson, Perry, Okla.; Clyde, Earl and Pearl Blevins, Mrs. Roy Ecker, Mrs. Lowell Coulson. Mrs. T. F. Williams, mother and father, W. P. Blevins, husband, John Kelsey. Rev. Dutt of the Christian church officiated. Out of a family of seven children she is the first to be called. All are grown. Both mother and father are living. We want to thank especially the local painters' union No. 915, for their floral offering. There were many beautiful flowers. The minister likened her to a beautiful fall flower, whose beauty would fade and go back to earth but its fragrance would never be forgotten. She was of a happy, sunny disposition. She was happy in dying.
