Miske Arrives in Tulsa—Both Boxers Are Confident of Winning Monday Scrap

BRENNAN A HARD MAN TO DEFEAT

Billy Says He Has One of the Hardest Matches of Career Monday.

LEO FLYNN BACKS BRENNAN

Manager of Bill Says He Is Confident; Both Boxers to Work Today.

BY LARRY DAILEY

Smiling and boyish as when he met Jim Flynn here during the winter, Billy Miske, one of the most popular boxers to ever show here and who meets Billy Brennan at Convention hall next Monday night arrived in Tulsa yesterday morning. He worked yesterday afternoon at the Brady hotel. Miske has a host of admirers who believe he will some day be world's champion and his bout with Brennan will be watched with undue interest.

Billy admits it is a hard proposition to beat Brennan. "Of course I am confident," said Miske last night. "I always am. But this fellow Brennan is one of the greatest scrappers in the ring today. He has reach, height, weight, the fighting heart and everything that goes to make a tough fighter. This is my best chance to prove that I am the logical man to meet the winner of the Jess Willard-Jack Dempsey battle and I'm going to do my best to prove that I'm the guy."

Miske Worked Hard.

Miske worked hard yesterday. He has been training at his home in St. Paul and will add finishing touches to his work, here. He put in nine rounds boxing yesterday, three each with Britt Sims, Bully Smith and Kid Everest. Miske will work at the Brady today and tomorrow at 2:30 o'clock.

Brennan, (also a great favorite in Tulsa) will work the last day this afternoon at the Brady at 3:30 o'clock. Brennan is in great shape and the large gathering of fans at the workout yesterday were unanimous in their opinion that it should be one of the greatest heavyweight tilts ever held when Billy and Bill get together.

Brennan boxed eight rounds yesterday, six with Kid George and two with Roughhouse Ware. He will concluded his training today with his most strenuous workout since coming to Tulsa.

Flynn is Positive.

Leo Flynn, manager of Brennan, and Kid Norfolk, crack heavyweight, also under the direction of Flynn, arrived in Tulsa last night. Norfolk will work with Brennan this afternoon. Flynn fairly radiates confidence in Brennan's ability to beat Miske. Brennan is sure of himself, but Flynn is more voluble in his declaration that Brennan will whip Miske. "I have two great heavyweight scrappers in Brennan and Norfolk," said Flynn. "Norfolk can beat any negro boxer in the game today. And in Brennan, I believe I have the future world's heavyweight champion."

HIGH SCHOOL TRACK TEAM TO STILLWATER

Local Scholastic Athletes to Participate in A. & M. Track and Field Meet Today.

The Tulsa high school track team, accompanied by Coach G. B. Clayton, left this morning for Stillwater to take part in the track and field meet there, after which they depart for Norman, where they are entered in the fifteenth annual Oklahoma interscholastic meet at the state university.

Georgetown Athlete Pentathlon Winner in Annual Carnival

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 25. Consistent performances in all five events enabled R. Legendre of Georgetown university, to carry off the pentathlon championship today at the first day's carnival of sport of the 25th annual relay races of the University of Pennsylvania on Franklin field. This is the first time since the pentathlon was established four years ago that it has been won by any other athlete than a University of Pennsylvania man. Howard Perry captured it three times and "Johnny" Bartels won it last year.

Legendre scored 14 points, Bartles was second with 20. The others who finished were Lewis of Missouri, 21 points; Butler, Dubuque, 24; Eckberg, Dartmouth, 25, and Ensign, Ohio Wesleyan, 28. There were more than a dozen starters.

Legendre won the 200-meter race, and finished second in the broad jump, discus throw and 1,500-meter race, and seventh in the javelin throw. Bartels was last in the broad, first in the javelin and discus throws, fourth in the 200-meter and fifth in the 1,500-meter events.

Three pentathlon records made on Franklin field were broken. Butler broke the broad jump figure and Bartles made new marks in the javelin and discus throws.

HANK GOWDY DISCHARGED, READY TO SIGN CONTRACT

NEW YORK, April 25.—"Hank" Gowdy, former star catcher for the Boston National league baseball club, who was the first major league ball player to enlist, returned on the Leviathan today as a color sergeant in the 166th infantry of the "Rainbow" division. Gowdy had received his discharge papers on board and less than two minutes after the liner docked he scampered over the gangplank and announced his intention of going to Boston to sign up for the season.

The Tulsa Oilers will make their final appearance here before the start of the Western league championship race today meeting the fast Post Field Aviation club of Fort Sill, Oklahoma. This game will mark the initial appearance of Jess Haines, pitching ace, on the mound for Abbott's nine.

Several fast semi-professional clubs have been defeated by the fliers which have one of the few remaining fast service baseball nines in the southwest. The aviators were to come to Tulsa after playing the Oklahoma City Western league club yesterday.

Work on the stands has been completed and the fans will be protected from the sun and rain by a covering. The regular Oiler lineup will of course be presented. This is the last chance to look the gang over.

A NEW GOLP RECORD IS ESTABLISHED BY KIGHT

PHILADELPHIA, April 24.—Fred W. Knight, jr., of Bala, Pa., today completed seven rounds of golf over the Whitemarsh valley course at an average of 84 6-7 strokes a round, establishing what is claimed to be a new American record. At the end of the fifth round he had an average of 8 3-5, but a stiff wind slowed him down in the last two rounds. His scores by rounds were: 83, 79, 82, 83, 80, 96 and 90.
