KENTUCKY HANDICAP AT CHURCHILL DOWNS

Nine Thoroughbreds to Face Barrier Today—Cudgel, Last Year's Winner, Given Top Weight.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 23.—Nine thoroughbreds, regarded as the best handicap horses ever sent to the barrier on an American race course, are carded to go to the post at Churchill Downs tomorrow afternoon in the seventh Kentucky handicap, for three-year-olds and upwards at a mile and a quarter for a prize which carries $10,000 in added money.

Interest centers tonight in Commander J. K. L. Ross' Cudgel, the mighty son of Broomstick-Eugenia Burch, which won it last year. Exterminator, sensational winner of the Kentucky derby in 1918 for Willis Sharp Kilmer and Royce Rools of the A. K. Macomber stable, which took Cudgel's measure in the King's county handicap at Jamaica less than a week ago.

Cudgel is given top weight. Vulcanite, which led the field in the Kentucky derby on May 10, is given the lightest impost. The field, weights and jockeys of the declared entries are:

| | |
|---|---|
| Cudgel (Sande) | 135 |
| Exterminator (Morys) | 134 |
| The Porter | 129 |
| Midway (Thurber) | 122 |
| Royce Rools (Buxton) | 113 |
| Free Cutter (Groth) | 112 |
| Beaverkill (Robinson) | 108 |
| Vulcanite (C. Howard) | 101 |
| St. Bernard (Poole) | 102 |

Daily Dope By Larry Daley

When Bill Wano was relegated to the bench in yesterday's game at Des Moines Spencer Abbott made a move toward strengthening the club which has been impending for some time. The flowers that bloom in the spring and ball players that star in early weeks suffer about the same fate. Wano seems to have failed to deliver, even his hitting falling away. Injuls in the road trip, Bill hit the straight pitching served in exhibition games hard and often and for about a week following the opening of the championship season continued his heavy slogging. But with the rounding into form of the pitchers, Wano's batting fell off especially on the road while his fielding throughout the season had been weak.

The placing of Hal Brokaw on first base is a wise move by Manager Abbott, who has undoubtedly contemplated this change for some time. Members of the Kansas City American association club, declared while here for two exhibition games in the spring that Brokaw is a splendid first baseman. Hal's work yesterday was all that could be desired. Two runners were caught off the initial bag by Jess Haines and one by Mickey O'Brien, something Wano hasn't done throughout the entire 19 games in which he played.

Lefty Hewitt is a good man to play the outfield in a pinch and his hitting is all that could be desired, but Lefty is too good a pitcher to be kept there permanently.

Tex Covington has yet to win a game, and unless he is able to deliver soon looks about ready to get the envelope. Tex has received poor support, it is true, while the club doesn't hit so well when he is in there as when other pitchers are on the hill. But the opposing clubs have been getting more than their share of the blows off the former Tiger. Covington is an old head and is strictly a hot weather pitcher. Abbott is probably carrying Tex in the hopes that the slim hurler will come through when Sol's rays are beating down. If Covington regains his old time form with warmer weather his retention will have been justified.

Would Deport Bolshevikl.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Deportation from the United States of "bolshevik agitators" who caused disturbances in many cities on May day was urged in the house today by Representative Johnson, republican of Washington, chairman of the immigration committee. He also advocated passage of legislation which would prevent aliens from coming into the country "until the United States has been cleansed of its impurities."
