OILERS DIVIDE WITH OKLAHOMA CITY—HERMAN REFUSES TITLE TILT

TULSA GETS TWO OF THREE GAMES

Same Teams Will Tangle at Capital After Series at Wichita.

WANO FLUNKS; IS RELEASED

Abbott Forced to Face Old Enemies in Pair of Hurlers in Field.

Before a crowd which set a new record for Tulsa baseball attendance Tulsa and Oklahoma City broke even in yesterday's double header at McNulty park. The invaders took the first game 5 to 3, and the locals got away with the second 4 to 2.

Today the Oilers open a four game series with Wichita, and as soon as this can be taken care of they drop back to Oklahoma City on June 4 to resume the argument with their ancient enemies.

After that it is home plays for most of the remainder of the season, a series at Joplin June 14, 15 and 16 being the only break.

Tulsa went into yesterday's game greatly handicapped. Just before the game President Spencer Abbott received a telegram saying Johnny Burke belonged to Fort Worth and could not be played by Tulsa. This caused the return of Wano to first that Brokaw might be released from the infield to take Burke's place in center. Later when Wano's inefficable work made it imperative that Brokaw be placed back on first Abbott was forced to shift Hewitt to center and send Bayne, another pitcher, to left, thus leaving Tulsa only one regular outfielder.

While only one error was charged up against the locals in the morning game, it was poor fielding support and poor base running that cost Haines a victory. Wano went to sleep a time or two on first and there were other errors of omission which were costly.

Tulsa got busy in the fourth round of the second contest and settled it then. Two had been retired before they made their way. Then Cleveland got a life on Spritzer's error. Davis drove him home with a two-baser to right. Davis registered on Hewitt's double and then Hewitt romped over when Brokaw also went one in against the center field fence. When Wano checked the rally with a measley grounder to the pitcher Abbott's powers of endurance were taxed beyond the limit and he immediately benched the chief.

In the next inning Bayne, who was sent into left to fill a vacancy made in the switching about to put Brokaw on first, made one of the prettiest fielding plays of the season when he went to the left field bank to take Griffith's long fly which looked like a sure double. Just a trifle more spectacular was the one-handed catch of Griggs' liner to left center made by Hewitt.

Welters Expected to be Headliners on July 4th

Special to The Herald

FORT WORTH, May 30—Johnny Celmars stopped Young Denny of New Orleans in nine rounds. Celmars dealt out severe punishment to Denny and it was remarkable how he stood under it. Denny went reeling to his corner in the ninth round all but out. He was unable to answer the bell for the tenth round. It was a great fight and a large crowd attended. Celmars was given a big ovation as he left the ring, leaving for Tulsa tonight, where he is scheduled for another 15-round fight next Monday night with Willie Loughlin. He also has been offered a match with Ted Lewis, former welterweight champion of the world, whom he claims ran out on him last winter.

By CHARLES J. DRILL.

If $10,000 will get Jack Britton to face the winner of next Monday night's tilt between Knockout Loughlin and Johnny Celmars, here on July 4, in a championship match, that will be the Independence day program for Tulsa. Announcement to this effect was made yesterday by Promoter John Reisler upon his return from St. Louis, where he went to try to close a match between Pete Herman and Earl Puryear on that date. He was unsuccessful in his quest for although Reisler raised his original guarantee from $6,000 to $7,500, he could not get Sam Goldman to agree to stake his title against this sum.

Yesterday was pretty much a holiday for Loughlin. After stepping around in his gym and discovering that he was not stiffened up, following his long tour from Ohio, he cut short his original program for the afternoon and wended his way to McNulty park in Ohio to see Tulsa trim Oklahoma City in the second game of the doubleheader. Celmars, however, spent a more or less busy evening down at Fort Worth, where he went up against Young Denny.

A Celmars heir story brought back from Kansas City by Reisler and sprung on Loughlin yesterday failed to shake the confidence of the South Bethlehem native. From two sources in all Lodge Reisler secured evidences of Celmars' hitting ability.

Ed Wray, sporting editor of the Post Dispatch, asked Reisler to early a warning to his friend Al Lippe to be on the lookout for a surprise next Monday night. He said that unless Loughlin played a knight conservative game Celmars was very likely to do some damage. He characterized Celmars as a rugged scrapper with an unusually stiff punch and one to keep a distance. Promoter Sullivan of St. Louis complimented Reisler on making the Loughlin-Celmars match saying he had been trying to land Celmars for his club but was having trouble finding anyone who would take him on. Sullivan said his record while he was in the ring was one that proved his ability.

There is not likely to be any squabble on the referee question this time. Al Lippe says he considers Ed Cochrane second to no referee in the country, and Cochrane's manager is not expected to object to him. Reisler always has been strong for him and will be able to override any objection Celmars's manager might make.

Lippe says he thinks it is next to a certainty that Cochrane is going to be selected to judge the Willard-Dempsey engagement at Toledo.

Lippe has just come from Ohio, and despite the mention of several other names in press dispatches he says everybody up that way figures only four to have a look-in with Cochrane far in the lead. Cochrane is believed to be Willard's choice. Jack Welch of California, a friend of Tex Rickard's, is known to have been given serious consideration. Owing to the fact that Willard is playing a leading role in moving pictures that are now being made and would be expected to carry several hundred feet of the fight film, some think Douglas Fairbanks, athlete and movie star, may be selected to serve in the big fight, while Barney Oldfield is advocated by many.

Cochrane is regarded everywhere as one of the most competent referees in the game. Lippe called Lippe yesterday in addition to knowing the game thoroughly and knowing how to act in the ring, his honesty is unquestioned.

Asked what he thought would be the outcome of next Monday night's fracas when Loughlin goes up against Johnny Celmars, he replied that he had no misgiving "Loughlin can lick anything in the game today under 175 pounds."

St. Lawrence, Kan., Willard is due to arrive tomorrow, but if he stops off at Lawrence his arrival will be delayed until Sunday.

DEMPSEY WORKS OUT BEFORE LARGE CROWD

Capacity Crowd Sees Challenger Go Through Training—Four Preliminaries Precede Bout.

TOLEDO, May 30.—There will be four preliminaries to the world's heavyweight championship contest between Jesse Willard and Jack Dempsey here July 4, Ad G. Thalheimer, matchmaker of the Toledo Athletic club, announced tonight. The huge arena, with a seating capacity of 20,000 persons, will be opened to the public at 9 o'clock in the morning, and the first preliminary contest will be started at 11 o'clock. There will be a bouts every hour thereafter until Willard and his youthful challenger comes into the ring at 3 o'clock. Dempsey expects to leave Manhattan Island in the shores of Madison lake this afternoon. There are some women visitors in camp this week. The women seemed to be wonderfully impressed by the big good-natured boxer, and they crowed about him in droves. The fair sex seemed to be Jack Dempsey's strong suit. Dempsey, in the opinion of many of the morning papers, will be a formidable opponent for Willard, who is expected to prove an easy problem for Jack Dempsey.

Dempsey works with the gloves on for the last time tomorrow afternoon. He expects to work with the gloves for the last time next week. He expected to do his last hard work today and after a rest will go to work.

Kid Lewis, former welterweight champion of England, who is now boxing with Jack Dempsey, has been out to see Willard a few times. Lewis, who is a friend of Willard, said he thought Willard was in good condition and would look Willard over off and on during January. Manager Kearns will work with Willard for the championship fight, which, Jack Curtiss, Willard's manager, has been training at Harlem, and Curtiss will be with Willard for the championship fight.

Jack Curtiss said tonight from Willard and Jack Dempsey, who will be in the ring, and Dempsey and Harlem, Kan., Willard is due to arrive tomorrow. Willard's manager, Jack Curtiss, said tonight from Willard and Jack Dempsey, who will be in the ring, and Dempsey and Harlem, Kan., Willard is due to arrive tomorrow.
