

An Ordinance in Regard to Hay and Coal.
Whereas, The Burgess and Council of the Borough of Bedford, have erected Hay and Coal Scales within the limits of said Borough.
Therefore, It is hereby enacted, by authority granted to said Burgess and Council, that all hay and coal sold in said Borough, shall be weighed on said Scales; and that the party selling shall pay to the Weigh-Master the sum of twenty-five cents for each and every draught or load weighed thereon; and further, that any person or persons who shall fail, or refuse, to be so weighed, or who shall sell any hay or coal, shall be subject to a fine of five dollars—half of said fine shall be for the benefit of the Borough of Bedford, and the other half to go to the informer.
Also, that any person desiring to have stock, or property of any description weighed on said Scales, shall pay to the weigh-master the sum of twenty-five cents for each and every draught.
Also, that the weigh-master be required to keep a register in his office, in which he shall inscribe the names of all persons having made any of the above described weighings, with the amount of each draught and date of weighing.
The weigh-master shall be sworn to fulfill the duties of his office with fidelity to all parties concerned.
All former ordinances conflicting with any thing contained in this Ordinance, are hereby repealed.
Approved, December 12, 1862.
JOHN H. RUSH, Chief Burgess.

Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whiskey, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters. Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in phlegmatic bottles, and bell bladders under the modest appellation of Bitters; which, instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivaled by any similar preparation.
The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent
CLERGYMEN
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS,
AND CITIZENS,
Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?
If you do, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS:
From J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.
Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.
I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.
J. NEWTON BROWN.
Philadelphia, June 23, 1861.

From the Rev. JOSEPH B. KENNARD, Pastor of the Fifth Baptist Church.
Dr. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as one of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined, but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters. I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually I doubt not it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above cause.
Yours, very respectfully,
JOSEPH B. KENNARD.

From the wife of ALDERMAN WUNDER, Germantown.
Germantown, June 1, 1861.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON—SIR:—It gave me pleasure two years ago, to give you a certificate, testifying what the German Bitters had done for me. I am now perfectly cured of all those diseases your medicine professes to cure, viz:—Dyspepsia, Chronic and Nervous debility, diseases of the Kidneys, &c. The powerful influence it exerts upon Nervous prostration is surprising. I have been consulted frequently in reference to your Bitters, and without hesitation, have recommended it for the above complaints, and in every instance it has effectually cured. Your medicine has a great reputation in Germantown and is now sold in every Drug store, and in most of the grocery stores here. If any one should question what I say, let them come to Germantown, and I will prove to their satisfaction, that the Bitters have cured in this vicinity more than twenty cases of the above disease.
Respectfully,
HANNAH WUNDEF.
