

THE HOME JOURNAL FOR 1863

We have much pleasure in informing the public that one of our contributors for the coming year, will be our old friend and colleague...

THEODORE S. FAY. We confess to uncommon pride and pleasure in this renewal of intercourse with the friend and inmate of other days...

VERY THRILLING STORIES. Some of the ablest of living pens are engaged for us in translating from the French and German our own original narrative writers are among the first...

Sketches of Travels and Adventures. But the future of our journal, which we have not yet mentioned, is perhaps the most cherished of all its prominence as THE EXPONENT OF REFINED SOCIETY...

Our correspondence with the leaders of fashion in New York and the other capitals, is especially valuable in this respect, keeping us unerringly informed of the changes and progress of what is commonly understood by the "gay world"...

The Editors will give the Journal their constant attention, as before. Of the coming year, Mr. Willis's pen will give photographs as usual. General Morris's songs and sketches will be embroidered on the thread of the passing moment...

TERMS. For one copy, $2 00. For three copies, 5 00. For six copies, 10 00. For a club of fifteen copies, 20 00.

MORRIS & WILKS, Editors and Proprietors, 10 Fulton Street, New York.
