LOSE NATIONALISM BY LEAGUE ADOPTION

Republican Publicity Association Points Out Destructiveness of Scheme Advocated by Wilson

AMERICANISM IS THE ISSUE

Internationalism With War Is Alternative facing People of Country for Decision at Once.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The Republican Publicity association tonight in a statement from its headquarters here, gave out the following statement from its Washington headquarters:

"Attempting to create unfounded prejudice, the proponents of the league of nations attempt to throw themselves as constructive and to the opponents of the league as destructive. These people try thus to blind the eyes of the people to the fact that they propose destruction of American independence, destruction of American institutions.

"Attempting a sophistry too transparent to be effective they also attribute the opposition to partisanship. Imagine this to read the American people to believe that practically half of the members of the senate are so base in character, so void of patriotism and so blind to the judgment of history as to be guided solely by party advantage. Such an effort must also fail, for no man of sound reason could believe that patriotism would be subordinated to partisanship by men whose long and honorable careers in public life vouch for the purity of their purpose. To ascribe unworthy motives to such men is no more a reflection upon them than an insult to the voters by whose ballots they were sent to the senate of the United States.

"Resort to absurdly false assumptions as a means of gaining support to their cause should in itself cast suspicion upon the soundness of the league of nations scheme. If the welfare of America requires surrender of our sovereignty, if the future happiness of our people demands that we acknowledge allegiance to a super-state in which we have a relatively small representation, if peace at home compels us to engage in every foreign war then let the facts be clearly stated to demonstrate the deplorable extremity to which this nation has been forced. If we must sign a treaty that would be humiliating to vanquished power, let us know the reason for this 'sacrifice supreme.' If we must traduce the wisdom of our progenitors, let us at least justify ourselves to posterity. This cannot be done by mere aspersions upon the patriotism of those who stand for undiluted Americanism.

"Among those who oppose the league of nations are men upon whom the party yoke has rested lightly. By no flight of fancy could it be imagined that they are guided by party prejudice. Among them, also, are men whose long careers have been filled with constructive work of which the proponents of the league might well be proud. It is preposterous to ascribe to them a policy of destruction. Men who make the general accusation of partisanship and destructiveness dare not name individually the senators against whom they make the charge.

"'Americanism with peace, or international with war,' has become the issue in national affairs. Through the persistence of the president in placing the league scheme as a rider on the treaty of peace. Preservation of American independence and perpetuation of American institutions is a constructive task requiring defeat of the treaty unless the league scheme can be eliminated. To place the welfare of the nation first, is the highest duty of a citizen, as also, his highest contribution to the interests of his party. Measured by this standard, the soundness of which cannot be questioned, those who oppose the proposed league covenant are in the highest sense constructive, and partisan only in the sense that they are American without qualification, without hyphens, without 'ifs,' or 'ands,' or 'buts.'

"Of that character of partisanship and constructiveness this nation is in direst need."

Europeans to Come.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Representatives of seven European countries will attend the world's cotton conference at New Orleans next October, according to Fuller E. Callaway, chairman of the cotton commission of 11 members who today returned on the Rotterdam from a two-months visit overseas. "Europe, facing higher costs of raw material, labor and distribution," he said, "quite naturally desires to join with America in a neffort to reduce country damages and other unnecessary losses and in developing new economies as an offset."

Round Up Saloon Keepers.

PHILADELPHIA, July 22.—Federal authorities today began prosecutions against saloonkeepers in Philadelphia for selling beer containing more than one-half of one per cent alcohol in alleged violation of the wartime prohibition act. Eleven saloon keepers and a number of bartenders were arrested.

Menaced by Fire.

MISSOULA, Montana, July 22.—Fire in the Cabinet forest was within a mile and one-quarter of the town of Thompson Falls and the town is menaced with destruction if a high wind should arise, according to a telephone message received here tonight from Forest Supervisor Baker.

A decision as to whether the proposed new rules shall go into effect or be suspended is not expected for some days.

Independence Body Starts Big Drive Against League Covenant

Special to The World

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Opportunity to the proposed league of nations covenant outside the United States is gradually concentrating in the league for the preservation of American independence. The organization is cooperating with the movement in the senate against the covenant and has the sympathies and of many of the opposing senators.

Officers of the league for the preservation of American independence have been elected in Washington. Henry Watterson, the famous editor, is president; George Wharton Pepper of Philadelphia, vice president and James of the board of directors. Henry A. Wise Wood of New York is secretary, and Seymour Cash of New York treasurer.

Drive Is Started.

While the organization has been active for several months, yet the recent meet held Monday in Carnegie Hall, New York, addressed by senator Johnson of California, Senator Reed of Missouri and George Wharton Pepper of Philadelphia, marked the beginning of a powerful drive against adoption of the covenant in its present form. The meeting was attended by 4,000 persons. Even during Warren G. Harding, Senator Johnson and Senator Reed have taken no sides under suspicion of the league. Expressions of other senators include the middle West, our form and southern states.

From the Washington headquarters speakers are being directed and literature prepared.

"Dissatisfaction Grows."

"The growing opposition to the league with the league of nations covenant in its present form has been reflected in the enormously increased volume of correspondence with the league for the preservation of American independence. The league for the preservation of American independence has received from all over the country," said George Wharton Pepper, vice-president, "A few weeks ago the question was whether the covenant should be amended. Today the question is whether the life of the covenant can be saved by any amount of application known in our jurisprudence.

"The central office of the league is now Southern building, Washington, D. C., and the widespread representation of its membership are not so much an evidence of achievement on our part as of a popular demand for some established channel through which this growing dissatisfaction can be expressed."

Henry Watterson, president of League for Preservation of American Independence.

FAST TIME ORDERED FOR PACIFIC ARMADA

Admiral Rodman Issues Instructions to Speed Up in Order to Reach Canal July 25.

ABOARD FLAGSHIP U. S. S. NEW MEXICO, Monday, July 21.—(By wireless to the Associated Press.)—Admiral Rodman has issued orders to increase the speed of the Pacific fleet so that it will arrive at Panama on the morning of July 25, when the first dreadnaught in the history of the waterway will negotiate the canal.

The fleet was off Cape Canaveral, Florida, this morning steaming southward for San Salvador.

"This cruise means a great opportunity to train men," said Admiral Rodman today. "While the purpose on this run is to make passage we shall use the opportunity to drill the crew in every phase of ship life and put the dreadnaughts through various maneuvers to bring it to the high state of efficiency that marked the work of the sixth battle squadron which has proved the value of keeping divisions intact and making as few changes as possible."

While the fleet was wheeling into single column formations Saturday night civilians on board the New Mexico were startled to see the Mississippi bearing down on the starboard quarter of the flagship. To the untrained eye a collision of two dreadnaughts at sea seemed inevitable. The New Mexico was quickly veered to starboard and the Mississippi swept clear of her stern by what seemed a matter of feet.

WIFE OF "HARD-BOILED" SMITH ASKS FOR DIVORCE

SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 22.—Mrs. Marguerite Michel Smith filed in the superior court today a petition asking for a divorce from Lieutenant F. H. Smith, who was given the sobriquet of "Hard Boiled" by the men of the American army. She alleged brutal treatment. Smith's career as commander of prison camp No. 2 in France recently came in for congressional investigation.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Lieutenant F. H. Smith, termed "Hard Boiled" Smith by the American expeditionary force because of brutality to American soldier prisoners, for which he was convicted in France whose wife today began suit for divorce in San Diego, is now in the disciplinary barracks on Governor's Island where he was taken on his arrival here Sunday night from Brest.

Since his arrival Smith has kept to himself. He appears to distrust everybody and acts like a man whose life is constant fear his fellow prisoners say.

To Try Officers.

NEW YORK, July 22.—A general court-martial appointed by Major General Thomas H. Barry, commanding the eastern department of the army, was convened today to complete arrangements for the trial of several ranking officers recently returned from France. The names of the defendants and the charges filed against them have not been disclosed. They are said to include four colonels who are accused of being intoxicated and of conduct unbecoming an officer. The trials start the latter part of August.

Mail for Germany.

NEW YORK, July 21.—Twelve hundred sacks of mail for Germany, the first to be sent to that country since the United States entered the war, were carried by the Scandinavian American line steamship United States which sailed today for Copenhagen. From Denmark the mail will be sent overland to Germany.

Both negroes were cut in several places and Smith is in the Washington hospital with a cut in the stomach that probably will prove fatal. Staples was arrested by police.
