BAYNE EFFECTIVE AND TULSA EASILY BEATS OKLA. CITY

SEVENTEEN HITS MADE BY OILERS

Hard Hitting and Perfect Fielding Nets Impressive Victory.

WUFFLI RETURNS TO GAME

Popular Infielder Strengthens Club's Defense and Offense.

BY LARRY DAILEY

Spectacular pitching by Lefty Bayne, perfect support and hard and timely hitting on his mates netted the Tulsa Oilers victory over Oklahoma City in the second game of the series yesterday, 12 to 1. The game was closer than that of the day previous, because the one sided score.

Bayne, delayed by veteran players who have battled against him in the past, as much on more stuff than any pitcher in the league was really great yesterday and the Indians never had a look in. Bayne let down after Tulsa had put the game on ice with nine runs in the third inning, but even then he only permitted the visitors six hits. Bayne's control of his fast ball and hook was equally good, only one base on balls being taken by the southpaw.

Every man on the home club hit safely at least once, several of the blows going for extra sacks. Jimmy Burke and Dilts led in the attack with three hits each in five trips. Two of Burke's drives went for two sacks and one by Dilts was good for the keystone bag.

Accepts Nine Chances

Johnny Wuffli was back in the game and added greatly to the club's defense and attack. While Roche is a good outfielder and first baseman, the club has been crippled by the loss of Wuffli, as he with Tierney, for mone of the best keystone combinations in the league. Wuffli handled nine chances in the field flawlessly and secured two hits in four trips.

It looked like a pitchers battle between southpaws for the first two innings. Powers and Bayne rocking along well, each permitting but one hit. In the third, however, the tocsin started a barrage of hits and drove Powers off the rubber, also batting Stoner, his successor, hard, and aided by errors, coupled nine runs.

O'Brien, first up, was hit by a pitched ball. Bayne filed to Griffin but Burke doubled, scoring O'Brien. Wuffli's single sent Burke to third and when Benson threw wild on Slattery's grounder to force Wuffli, the Oiler outfielder counted. Dilts was safe on an infield hit, and Powers was called off the hill. Cleveland walked, forcing in a run. Davis out at first, Benson to Adams, counted another. Tierney's double scored Dilts and Cleveland. O'Brien singled Bayne walked. Wuffli singled to right scoring O'Brien, when Griffith dropped Benson's relay from Griggs. There was no further counting in the third.

Two Added in Eighth

After Wuffli had singled in the sixth, he and Slattery were retired on a double play. Dilts and Cleveland were safe on infield blows and the former scored on Davis' single to right. Two more were added to Tulsa's total in the eighth. Burke doubled to right but was out trying to stretch the hit. After Slattery had grounded out to Benson, Dilts drove one to deep left for two sacks, scoring from that station when Falk dropped Cleveland's fly.

Oklahoma City never threatened but once until the ninth. In the fifth Benson singled and Griffith doubled but Bayne tightened, striking out Spreitzer and Stoner and throwing Lindamore out at first on an easy roller.

The only Indian rally was made in the final stanza. Adams' fly to left went for two bases, Dilts' slow fielding permitting the first sacker to make two bases and spoiling a possible shutout. Griffin grounded to Wuffli, Adams going to third, from which he scored on Benson's sacrifice fly to Burke.

NEW TULSA PITCHER TO WORK IN TODAY'S GAME

Garlen, a left-handed pitcher from Springfield, Mo., one of the most highly touted independent pitchers in that section, and added to the local pay roll several days ago, will probably make his debut before Tulsa baseball fans this afternoon in the final game of the Tulsa-Oklahoma City series. Garlen will top the bill if Manager Abbott does not elect to start Carten.

Fred Fulton Should Clean Up in His Battles Abroad

Despite Kayo by Dempsey, Fulton Is Great Boxer; Should Defeat Best.

NOT AFTER DEMPSEY NOW

Should Plasterer Beat Carpentier and Beckett He Will Seek Title Bout.

Unless Fred Fulton, the confessing plasterer, has gone back woefully in boxing skill Jack Dempsey is not apt to have much trouble sticking to his determination to defend his heavyweight championship exclusively in this country. Fulton, who is at present in Europe, should make it easy for Dempsey to refuse to fight outside of the United States.

He should do this by knocking out every European championship contender who faces him in the ring. The present crop of heavyweights across the pond should be easy for the lanky confessor.

Despite his woeful showing against Dempsey, by alleging that the foul between them was a fake, Fulton is a good heavyweight. He proved that before he met Dempsey. He knocked out some of the best men in the country and very probably could have beaten Jess Willard.

Outclasses Foreigners.

He undoubtedly outclasses men like Georges Carpentier and this Joe Beckett of England. In fact, if either of these boxers meets him in the ring he will not go more than half a dozen rounds with Fulton unless he has gone back woefully.

The European boxing fans are certain to be surprised when they see Fulton in action. He is really a remarkably clever boxer for a big man, and his left hand is sure to be a revelation to them.

When old Tom O'Rourke knew what he was doing when he took Fulton abroad. Tom foresaw that Dempsey would probably win from Willard. And he knew that he had little chance of building up Fulton for a match with the new champion in this country.

O'Rourke Is Wise.

O'Rourke has been in the boxing game so many years that he knows how the public is prone to forget if you give it a chance. If he kept Fulton fighting in the United States every time the big fellow went into action he would be dubbed a confessed faker and other things that would hurt him as a card.

In England and France Fulton can make a fresh start. Besides the heavyweight aces there are not of much account.

With victories over Carpentier and Beckett to his credit, Fulton will be able to come back here with something to back up his challenge to Dempsey to battle for the championship of the world.

DAILY DOPE By Larry Dailey

It is refreshing to talk with a man like Ira Thomas, former star Philadelphia American league catcher and now one of Connie Mack's scouts, who was in Tulsa yesterday looking over Tulsa and Oklahoma City players. Thomas, when first string wind pacifier for the White Elephants, was rated as one of the smartest players in the game and formed one of the members of Mack's board of strategy.

With his keen insight of the game strengthened by years of association as player, manager and scout, Thomas is well qualified to speak on the development of baseball. The famous ivory hunter deplores the break of the major and minor leagues, but declares it is his belief that the break will be repaired before a rupture, detrimental to the best interests of baseball, occurs. Thomas has seen practically every minor league in operation this season and declares that ba
