DIED

TAYLOR—Of pneumonia, on Friday, the 29th of May, HON. JOHN TAYLOR, in the 52d year of his age.
The deceased was an affectionate husband, a kind, indulgent father, a good citizen, an honest man. His sudden death is widely felt and deeply mourned. A quiet, unobtrusive man, he yet abounded in works of charity, and gained the affections of many who feel that in his death they have lost a friend. He was loyal to his country, and ready to make any sacrifice for its preservation. He gave much of his time and influence to what he believed to be the cause of suffering humanity, and beneficent government. Herein this community has sustained a loss. But the bereavement falls most heavily on his family. May God be a husband to the widow, and a father to the fatherless. May they know the power of divine sympathy, and reap the fruits of sanctified affliction.

On the Death of John Elliott, Soldier.
Weep not dear wife for thy husband dead,
Though 'tis but a few days since thou wast wed;
Your journey with him but measured a span,
But those that part will meet again.
No braver soldier could ever be found,
But all human flesh must lie under the ground.
He had troubles and trials in this world of tears,
And then was cut off in the prime of his years.
Grieve not, dear parents, 'tis hoped he's at rest,
With angels in heaven and his Redeemer so blest,
He'y led his life here faithfully,
He has finished his fight but he's still with the brave.
AMANTINA VICKROY.
