BAD BOUND BEATS TULSA IN 14TH; REDS TOP GIANTS

Breaks Are Against Oilers in First Tilt With Miners

Winning Run Is Registered When Lamb's Grounder Dodges Tierney.

BURWELL GOES THE LIMIT

Shackleford Relieves Barham —Davis Batting Hero of the Day.

By CHARLES J. ROLLO

Often you have heard of the breaks of the game. Yesterday you saw them take a concrete form in Joplin when Joplin won from Tulsa, 6 to 5 in 14 innings.

Four of the five hits which scored four tallies for the visitors in the fourth inning were of the infield variety, Texas leaguer variety, very likely not to be fielded for out, but yet most disastrous break of all came in the final inning when, with Thompson on third and two out, Lamb's grounder took a sudden notion to go wood and hopped over Tierney's head and hopped over Davis's head. Thompson scored easily and that run decided the combat.

Throughout it was a labored game. The day was intensely hot and sultry, neither team being able to stir up any great demonstration of pep although both were trying hard at every stage of the game. Interest tightened as the innings rolled by until there was a thrill in nearly every play executed.

Barham Unsuccessful.

Barham started on the mound for the homefings but he had only indifferent success. With him on the mound the plate didn't seem to have corners and seven hits and five runs were recorded against him before he was taken out in the last of the fourth to permit Manion to drive in a tally. Then Shackleford took up the heavy work and held the visitors scoreless until the fatal fourteenth.

Opposed to the Miners all the way was Bill Burwell, he who pinch hits when he is not toiling on the hillside. There were only four innings in which he did not yield up hits but he managed to stop the scoring after the seventh, actually looking better at the close than at the beginning.

Joplin was not entitled to their first tally. Thompson took one on the wrist. On a pitchout O'Brien caught him off the bag but Slattery dropped the ball and he scooted around to third an instant later when Davis mussed up Boehler's drive to right. He scored on Hulswitt's infield out.

Burke Springs Surprise.

Great base running on the part of Jimmy Burke accounted for Tulsa's first marker. He doubled down the right foul line and then scored from second on Wuffli's sacrifice bunt.

Joplin hung a four-run handicap on the locals in the fourth. Hulswitt got a flock of wide ones as a starter. He advanced to second while Slattery was retiring Hall and scored on Nutt's Texas leaguer to left. Claybrook scratched an infield hit and so did Brandt, Barham missing a dive to catch his popup bunt. With the bases loaded, Briebeck lifted a popup over first scoring Nutt and Claybrook and sending Brandt to third whence he scored on Burwell's infield out.

Nothing daunted by this handicap the locals buckled down to the business of neutralizing it. They got a good start in the fifth. With Davis in the discard, Tierney scratched a single to left. O'Brien also singled, Tierney going to third. Thereupon Manager Abbott relieved Barham from any further participation in the affair and sent Manion in to bat for him while Shackleford started to warm up. Manion delivered the goods, cracking a single to left scoring Tierney. O'Brien went home on Burke's sacrifice fly. Wuffli delivered a hit, sending Manion to third but the rally stopped when Dillo forced Johnny at second.

Slattery's single and Davis' three-bagger added one in the sixth. The score then was knotted in the eighth, a bad throw by Brandt gave Wuffli a life. Dillo sacrificed. Slattery couldn't do anything but Cleveland delivered a single to left scoring Wuffli.

Tulsa had an excellent chance to send the fans home to supper on time and happy in the eleventh, but missed out by a hair's breadth. Davis opened with a double. He made third on Burwell's belated attempt to catch him at third on Tierney's tap. Tierney then stole second. Mickey O'Brien had a chance to immortalize himself by doing one of half a dozen things but he struck out. Davis tried mightily to register on Shackleford's roller only to be caught sliding for the plate.

Burwell struck out when Thompson started the winning offensive in the fourteenth. Boehler's infield out gave him an opportunity to reach third. It then was up to Lamb. He sent a roller down toward Tierney. The cotton topped captain came in to make the play, but just as he was about ready to snatch the ball, it took a sudden about anyward bounding for over his head and rolled into center.

Tulsa went out in order in the last half.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Manager Hulswitt of the Miners was forced to retire at the tenth after being struck on the knee by a ball off Cleveland's bat in the sixth. Lamb replaced him.

Boehler was passed to first and Smith was sent to left in the tenth when Smith was sent in to run for Claybrook.

Shackleford caught Brandt asleep off third for the final out in the tenth.

At the opening of the tenth Davis drove a long fly to left of center. Believing it a sure hit, he lowered his head and dashed around the path as far as third when he came up to see what had become of the ball. He could hardly believe his ears when told that Jimmy Burke had caught it.

Davis also made a sensational catch of a fly ball in the same frame, Nutt being the victim.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 1.—The Reds, by defeating the Giants, 6 to 2 today, passed them and went into first place in the National league race. Ring pitched shutout ball for five innings, but became wild after a hard shower in the fourth and fifth innings had made the field and the ball wet and slippery and was relieved by Eller after walking the first three men up in the sixth. Toney came in late in the fourth and fifth innings and drove from the mound. Dubuc relieved Toney in the sixth and allowed two runs on a single by Bresh, a walk to Bressler and a three-base hit to right by Wingo. Douglas pitched the last two innings without being scored on. Bill did well with the sticks when he passed the first three men up. Eller went in and two of the runners scored on a single by Fletcher and a double play. Eller was very effective in the last three innings, striking out five men.
