PACKERS PROMISE AID IN COST FIGHT

Chairman Wilson of American Institute Tells Purpose to Assist in Getting Facts.

IS LEADING QUESTION TODAY

Variety of Causes Contribute to Situation It Is Claimed—Says Packers Not to Blame.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Thomas E. Wilson, chairman of the executive committee of the Institute of American Meat Packers, telegraphed President Wilson today that the institute, an organization representing the great packers, and anxious, desired to aid in the cause of lessening inquiry in the high cost of living.

Similar telegrams were sent to speaker Gillett, chairman of the house committee; Representative Lever, chairman of the house committee on agriculture; Representative Hasting, chairman of the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce; Representative Haugen, member of the house committee on agriculture; Senator Cox of Ohio, author of the profiteering bill; Senator Gronna, chairman of the senate committee on agriculture and forestry; Senator Harrington of Michigan, member of the senate committee on agriculture and forestry, and other members of congress interested in inquiries into the high cost of living.

"The high cost of living is today the most important question before the American people. It will undoubtedly be found that a variety of causes contribute to the situation. The public is entitled to know the full and exact facts. The Institute of American Meat Packers, speaking authoritatively for its 200 members, invites a thorough investigation by a competent certified public accountant of their business and audit of their books. Such an examination will show the facts and we think will show that the packers are not responsible for the prevailing high prices of meats and other products which they handle, the telegram to the president said.

"NO FLIES ON US" SAPULPA IS CLAIMING

Special to The World.

SAPULPA, July 30.—"Sapulpa now is one of the cleanest cities, both physically and morally, of any city of its size in the state," declared Fred C. Fowler, commissioner of public affairs.

"Sapulpa is almost a flyless city. I believe that fewer flies will be found here than in almost any other town in the state. We have had but one complaint regarding the screening of bakery supplies, and in this case the party had ordered his screens.

"In order to more successfully handle the garbage, our sewers are flushed with chemicals each week, which will kill off flies and prevent the propagation of more in the sewers.

"With the completion of our work on the streets, Sapulpa will be a real city beautiful."

Mr. and Mrs. Bragg were so pressed with the summer fever that they purchased lots on Presbyterian hill, as did Ralph Childs, one of the delegates from Tulsa to the annual Presbyterian assembly at Hollister.

Hungering For Child She Adopts Baby of Negroes

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—A cooing little baby of five months, dressed in clothes of finest texture, and with a skin that is gradually becoming darker, is waiting in New York for some one to adopt it.

It is a Negro baby, and since its birth it has had a good home in a well-to-do family, members of which until a few days ago did not dream that the little stranger they had adopted was not of white blood.

A scene of tragedy and heartache was enacted in the office of Dr. Mary Halton, 30 East Thirty-eighth street, when the discovery was bared. Doctor Halton had advertised for a home for an infant girl (white) whose parents had died. When Doctor Halton arrived at her office a few days ago, a woman who gave her name as Mrs. Marion Blake of Albany, was waiting. She told this story.

"I am a widow of comfortable means and live with my mother in Albany. For years I had one servant girl. A year ago she married a soldier but came back to us when he sailed for France.

Makes Awful Discovery.

"A few days before she gave birth to a child she received word her husband had died in a French hospital. The shock killed her. She died as the child was born. For years I had wanted to adopt a child and I took her baby.

"The babe was small and plump, reddish, as new-born infants usually are, and had bright, pretty brown eyes. I adopted her legally and had her christened 'Barbara.' The lives of both my mother and myself were glorified by the advent of the little orphan. Every day found the tiny mite occupying more and more room in our hearts.

"It was when she was three months old that we first noticed that her skin seemed to be growing darker each week. Neither my mother nor myself put fear into words, however, until the baby was four months old.

"Finally I took her to a hospital for an examination. I had to go home and tell my mother that Barbara was a colored baby.

"But I vowed that I would never part with her. Then I realized with a pang that Barbara would not always be a baby. Each morning I would awake and remember and each day tell myself it was only a bad dream.

Takes White Child.

"The last month has been one of agony. She is five months old now, and I realize that sooner or later I must give her up. It would eventually bring unhappiness to all concerned and the most unhappiness of all to herself.

"When I read that you had an infant girl for adoption I thought 'Perhaps if I had another baby near me it would be easier to part with mine.'"

The exchange was made.

Doctor Halton is concerned about Barbara. That the drama may end happily for all, little "Blake" too, must find a home. Doctor Halton said.

"Somewhere there must be good colored people who want her. I want to find a good home for her with her own people."

REWARD FOR KANSAS BANDITS

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 1.—A reward of $600 for the arrest and conviction of bank robbers was announced today by State Bank Commissioner Walter E. Wilson. The announcement specifies that every yeggman killed in a man-hunt or attempt to arrest will count as a conviction.

"REMOVE CARRANZA" PROPOSED SOLUTION

William Gates Tells House Committee That Is Only Way Out of Mexican Muddle.

FLETCHER WITHHOLDS FACT

Archeologist Declares Wilson and Nation Do Not Get Real Facts From Ambassador.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Elimination of President Carranza "with the least damage possible" is the only solution of the Mexican problem, the house rules committee was told today by William Gates, an archeologist of Baltimore, who resumed his testimony on a resolution proposing an investigation of the relations between Mexico and the United States.

Mr. Gates said Henry P. Fletcher, the American ambassador to Mexico, insisted that Carranza was "impossible" and added that the ambassador had not obtained the real facts in the Mexican situation for President Wilson.

Mr. Fletcher's conception of his functions, the witness said, was that a "representative of one sovereign to another" which fact, the witness said, prevented the ambassador from obtaining all information on the Mexican situation. One concerning his duty from a different angle, he added, "would have got the facts and reported them to Wilson."

"If we had had a 'Morgenthau, a Whitlock or a Hoover in Mexico,' he cited Gates, "the German minister, von Eckhardt, would have had to leave Mexico and Mexico would have come into the war on the side of the allies."

American military intervention in Mexico was not favored by Mr. Gates except in that he thought some soldiers might be sent in to aid anti-Carranza forces "in relieving the country of a tyrannic."

Ninety-eight per cent of the Mexican people, he declared, would approve such action by the United States if they understood the motive.

DISAPPOINTMENT IN FULT.

Democrats and Republicans in House Express Criticism of Wilson.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Heeding the request of president Wilson, the house committee tonight abandoned its five weeks' recess, scheduled to begin with adjournment tomorrow. The president's request, coming unexpectedly, provoked informal and bitter comment from both republicans and democrats, but only a single protest was heard on the floor—it coming from Representative Johnson, democrat of Texas, who asserted that his opposition was due to the "railroad brotherhoods trying to hold up the country for about the seventh time." The Texas member, however, conducted only a single-handed and unavailing fight against upsetting the schedule. The resolution setting aside the recess was adopted without a record vote, with only a few "noes" being heard.

Society Gamblers Escape Raiders.

Special to The World.

MINEOLA, N. Y., Aug. 1.—Nearly 40 handsomely gowned women rushed panic-stricken from a residence in Cedarhurst near here early yesterday following a raid on the house where gambling is said to have been in progress. Despite a heavy downpour the women succeeded in forcing their way past the guards and escaping over muddy fields.

The raid was made by members of the state constabulary and several special policemen, although it is said to have been instigated by wealthy Nassau county residents who for some time have been aroused by reports of society gambling in their midst.

the tribunal may respect reasonable old prices, in order to give real relief of the employes concerned.

Mr. Hines also asked that the railroad administration be allowed to continue to handle questions of rules and working conditions, saying these could not be satisfactorily separated from the current handling of railroad operations.

Director General Hines informed the president that inasmuch as the increases being asked by an classes of railroad workers aggregated $900,000,000 a year, he hoped something might be done to reduce the cost of living as an alternative, because he doubted that his powers were sufficient to increase rates enough to meet the wage scale.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—It is up to Germany when the forces of the allied and associated powers are to be withdrawn from the Rhine, under an agreement signed by President Wilson and Premiers Lloyd George and Clemenceau, which Senator Lodge, chairman of the foreign relations committee, read in the congressional record in the senate this afternoon. Lodge said the agreement had been published at London, although the senate was still waiting for the president to send it.

Yes; S. S. S. Is Purely Vegetable; Nature's Safe Blood Treatment

Known for 50 Years as the Best Remedy for Rheumatism, Catarrh and Skin Diseases.

Ventures have discovered that the forest and the field are abundantly supplied with vegetation of various kinds, that furnish the ingredients for making a remedy for practically every ill and ailment of mankind. Medicines made from roots, herbs and barks which nature has placed at the disposal of man, are better than strong mineral mixtures and compositions. Mineral medicines work dangerously on the delicate parts of the system, especially the stomach and bowels, by eating out the lining membrane, producing chronic dyspepsia and often entirely ruining the health.

S. S. S. is made entirely of gentle-acting, healing, purifying roots, herbs and barks, possessing properties that build up all parts of the system, in addition to removing all impurities and poisons from the blood. P. S. S. is a safe treatment for Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases and all disorders of the blood. It cleanses the entire system and it's permanent; get S. S.
