

Official information received from the battlefield Saturday morning, 8.30, says that Lee, under cover of the night and a heavy rain storm, withdrew his forces in the direction of Fairfield and Cashtown. Our army was put immediately in pursuit. The details of which are not at liberty to publish.

Important from Louisiana.
[From the Richmond Inquirer, July 1.]
JACKSON, Miss, June 29, 1863.—Official dispatches from General Dick Taylor, dated Alexandria, June 26, says he stormed and carried at the point of the bayonet, with unloading guns, the enemy's position at Berwick's Bay. The loss in killed and wounded is not known.

The same dispatches say that the enemy's position at Thibodeaux was also carried, but by whom is not stated. It is thought to have been done by General Walker.

This gives us the command of the Mississippi above New Orleans, and enables us to cut off General Banks' supplies.

Lieut. Wilson, with a volunteer party captured Captain Manners and an entire party of fifty-three men, after killing four, who had burned a train of cars at Brookhaven a few days since.

MISSISSIPPI SUMMIT, June 29, 1863.—The New Orleans Daily True Delta of the 24th, reports that a fight took place at Lafourche Crossing on the 23d.

The Federal forces engaged were six regiments. The Confederates charged and captured a Federal battery and prisoners, but reported the loss of fifty-three killed, including Colonel Walker, of the Second Texas regiment, who was buried under a flag of truce. The Confederates retired while the enemy was waiting for reinforcements to pursue them.

A gentleman from Pascagoula reports the capture of the Nineteenth Connecticut regiment and two batteries from New Orleans.

Our pickets are near Algiers, opposite New Orleans.

OCCUPATION OF TULLAHOOMA BY ROSECRANS' TROOPS.
WASHINGTON, July 2, 1863.—The following was received this evening:—
Headquarters, Department of the Cumberland, Tullahoma, Tennessee, July 1, 1863, via Murfreesboro, July 2.

Maj. Gen. HALLECK, General-in-Chief—
I telegraphed you on Sunday the occupation of Shelbyville and Manchester. On Monday it rained hard all day, rendering the roads impassable. It was found impossible to move our artillery or to get our troops into position until this morning, when a general advance was ordered.

General Thomas yesterday made a reconnaissance on two roads, and General McCook on one road, reporting the enemy in force at this place, with the addition of Buckner's division, which arrived Monday evening.

On advancing this morning, it was found that the enemy had fled in haste last night, much demoralized, leaving strong fortifications, a small quantity of stores and three siege guns in our possession. They took the direction of Winchester, Tennessee.

General Thomas should be on their flank to night. General Sheridan and Brannan marched into town at half-past eleven o'clock to day taking a few prisoners.

W. S. ROSECRANS, Major General.

We publish the following letter as it was handed us, without crossing an i or dotting a t. It speaks for itself. How the Abolition opponents of the Union will write under its lash! Let every body read it:

Bedford, July 8d, 1863.
Believing for the Union and the Constitution has become the stock in trade of the rebel sympathizers who have been caught in the act. It is like the thief crying stop thief.

It has become an established fact in the minds of all thinking men, that the United States of America is one Great estate, bequeathed by the Great fathers as an undivided inheritance of the Great family Politic. And that the Constitution is the approved Will of the fathers: that the President of the United States is the executor of that Will: and Congress and the legislator is our trustees. that the great end of all Good Government is to secure life liberty and property: and that Government is the best under which the People are the most Prosperous. Under the laws of the United States We enjoyed this blessing in a Greater degree than any other People in the world: and the great object to be obtained in the present contest is the authority of the United States Government over every foot of Soil that our Charters claim: to put down any attempt of any person or local class to usurp or seize any part of our undivided estate: We Want No Union With Men Who do not Want to live under and abide by the laws of the United States. Nor Will We ever Sheath the avenging Sword until the last Author of usurpation and secession shall atone with his blood for the crime of breaking our laws and the declaration of Independence that all men are free etc. Shall be acknowledged as the fundamental principle of our Government.

JOHN S. MCKINLEY,
Co. B, 1st N. Y. Cavalry.

"As the bird is its sheltering nest,
When the storm on the hills is abroad,
So Alice's spirit hath flown from this world
To repose on the bosom of God; [unrest,
Where the sorrows of earth never more
May fling o'er its brightness a stain;
Where, in rapture and love, it shall ever adore,
With a gladness unmingled with pain;
And its thirst shall be slaked by the waters
which spring,
Like a river of light, from the throne of the King!"

Children owe much of their Sickness to Colds.—No matter where the disease may appear to be seated, its origin may be traced to suppressed perspiration or a Cold. Croup and Lung Complaints are direct products of Colds. In short Colds are the harbingers of half the diseases that afflict humanity, for as they are caused by checked perspiration, and as five-eighths of the waste matter of the body escapes through the pores, if these pores are closed, that portion of disease necessarily follows. Keep clear, therefore, of Colds and Coughs, the great precursors of disease, or if contracted, treat them up immediately, by a timely use of Madama Parrot's Curative Balsam. Sold by all Druggists, at 13 cents and 25 cents per bottle.

NEW ESTABLISHMENT! SADDLES, BRIDLES AND HARNESS!
The undersigned would respectfully inform the citizens of Bloody Run and vicinity, that he has just opened out a new shop for the manufacture of Saddles, Bridles, Harness and everything usually in the saddle line of business, and that he will be warranted as good, as the best and as cheap as the cheapest. Having been employed, for some time, in some of the best manufactories in Pittsburgh, he flatters himself that he is able to give entire satisfaction to all who may become his customers.—The public are invited to give him a call. Shop next door to the store of Captain Wm. Stiles.

THE UNION Volunteer Refreshment Saloon, PHILADELPHIA.
Established for furnishing meals to soldiers on their way to and from the war, and the temporary care of the sick.
Having been in operation two years, supported by private contributions, the ladies of the committee propose holding a Fair in aid of our fund, commencing at the Saloon on the 15th inst., to continue ten days.
The success of our first fair was due to the liberal patronage from all sections of the country, and to the assistance of the ladies of the committee, who were granted to the undersigned, by the Register of Bedford Co., all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate, are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims, will present them properly authenticated for settlement.
