ARMORY PLAN BRINGS PROPOSAL OF ATHLETIC CLUB

RALLY BY TULSA FALLS ONE SHORT

Nosed Out by St. Joseph After Winning Six Straight Games.

DOUBLEHEADER BILL TODAY

Monday Contest Shoved Up to Make Extra Card This Afternoon.

Special to The World.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Aug. 9.—St. Joseph mowed Tulsa down here this afternoon in the first game of the series between the two teams, flagging the Tulsa win streak and stopping the Oilers. The final score was 2 to 3.

Visitors staged a fast finish due to a pair of hits and two St. Joseph errors. However, the rally lacked one run of tieing up the count. Up to the time the Oilers had started to rally they had obtained but two hits off of Hoffman. Hoffman was effective throughout, a pass and a man hit by pitched ball were the only two to reach first base until the sixth inning, and a man did not get to second on the Oiler team until the sixth. The Saints batted Vangilder freely, getting 11 safe bingles off of him, and having men on bases every inning except in the eighth.

Fielding Fast.

The game was fast and the fielding of both teams exceptionally good.

The locals got all of their runs in the second and third innings.

Benowitz started things with a long hit to right field, which Dilts fumbled, Benowitz reaching the second sack. Brubaker singled, scoring Benowitz. Beall forced Brubaker out at second, then stole second. Beckak singled. Hoffman bunted and beat out the hit, Beall scoring.

In the third the Saints counted again. Kelleher singled and Jackson doubled and would have made he hit a triple had he not fallen, but he was caught out at the third bag.

Tulsans Challenge.

That was all of the scoring until the sixth. Burke started off inning by going out at first. Then Wuffli singled over second. Kelleher dropped Dilts' fly ball to the short outfield and Slattery singled down the third base line, Benowitz tumbling the ball. Both Wuffli and Slattery scored. Cleveland flied out and Davis went out at first closing the rally.

Manager Spencer Abbott protested decisions of Umpire Meyer from the bench and was ordered off in the sixth inning.

The teams will combine Monday's game with tomorrow's and play a double header at the park tomorrow afternoon.

Giants Determined to Get Hornsby to Brace Them in Closing Dash

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—According to a report in circulation here today the Giants have made St. Louis a tempting offer for Rogers Hornsby, star infielder of the Cardinals.

Manager McGraw, it is said, will leave no stone unturned in bolster the slipping Giants. One report has it that the New York club has offered Heinie Zimmerman, Larry Doyle, Lee King and cash for Hornsby.

DAILY DOPE

By Larry Dailey

The east has shown a slight superiority over the west in the first three inter-sectional series closed last week-end. Both leagues battled very close, with the east having the margin in the National league, honors being even in the American.

Forty games were played in the American the three series and 20 were won by each division. All eastern clubs have improved considerably in their play since their invasion of the east, though three western clubs, the White Sox, Indians and Tigers still are able to hold their own.

Eastern National clubs have won 23 and lost 17 games in the three series played to date. To offset the improvement of the east's play in the American league, the western National clubs have shown a better class of ball.

The play of Philadelphia and Cincinnati has been the sensation of the National league race. The Reds have won eight games out of 11 played games, including two out of three from the Giants, the latter victories giving them undisputed possession of first place. The Phillies won seven out of eight games played.

Frank Isbell, one of baseball's most beloved characters and idol of all Wichita fandom and popular throughout the western wheel, is to be honored by an Izzy Booster day, August 19. This is Wichita's first game at home after returning from the northern trip and Princess City fans are making extensive plans to honor the "Charlie Comiskey of the minors" in a fitting manner. Tulsa is to plays at Wichita on that date.

One thing we have always liked about Jack Dempsey is his devotion to his mother. Through his early days as an ambitious but unknown preliminary boxer, Jack never forgot his mother in her home in Salt Lake City. So when Dempsey became world's champion, his first move was in wiring his mother of his victory and in providing for her future, the purchase of a fine residence being one of his means of expressing his love for the little woman who always believed in the new champion.

Young athletes may take a lesson from Ray Caldwell, former star New York American league hurler pitcher and released last week by the Boston Red Sox. Caldwell is one of the greatest natural players in the game. Possessing every requisite necessary for a winning hurler, a terrific hitter and splendid fielder, Caldwell had all the capabilities for a great career. But he refused to heed training rules, cared more for the bright lights and a good time than his career on the diamond. Thus, at an early age, when he should, with his remarkable talents, be good for several years as a star, Ray Caldwell passes out.

RANK OUTSIDERS CAPTURE GRAND CIRCUIT FEATURES

CLEVELAND, Aug. 9.—The biggest crowd of the Grand Circuit meeting came today when Russell Boy, an outsider won the free-for-all pace, purse $4,500, the feature of the getaway card at North Randall. The coolest was figured as a sizzling two-horse race, between Miss Harris M. and Fingle G., but Russell Boy led all around in the first two heats, winning with plenty to spare. In the third heat, however, after leading most of the way he succumbed to Directum J., near the wire, and finished half a length back.

Neither Russell Boy nor Directum J. was given much consideration by the specialists. They sold at $120 in the auction pool, while Miss Harris M. brought $300 and Fingle G. $250.

Britton Forbes and Amardale were the only favorites to win.

Most of the members of the Down-and-Out club go in by waiting for something lucky to happen.
