Too Dry for Plowing

Special to The World.

DUNCAN, CITY, Okla., Aug. 11.—The prolonged dry weather is preventing farmers plowing for next years wheat planting, and if the present weather continues much longer there will be no attempts made to plant anything but a late sowing. Only those farmers who have tractors are able to get into their fields with any success at the present time, as they report the wheat stubble too dry and hard to be plowed with horse power.

Daily Dope

By Larry Dailey

Northern clubs reversed the decision of the Western league nines in the second series, closed yesterday, winning eight and losing five games. The south still shows a balance on the credit side, however, thanks to the 10 victories with only two defeats in the first series. Out of the 25 games played to date in the first two series, southern clubs won 15. There are two more series to be played, the third starting today.

After getting a good start by taking three straight from Omaha, Tulsa ran into a snag at St. Joseph and won only one out of three. All games were brilliantly played affairs, however, and as they were fought right up to the finish, getting away with one game in the league leaders' own ballwick is good baseball.

Omaha and Oklahoma City showed the greatest reversal of form: Oklahoma City had swept the three-game series with the league leading St. Joseph club, while the Bourkes had dropped a like number of games to Tulsa in the first series. Omaha won three out of four from the Indians.

Wichita has displayed the most consistent game of any Western league club the past month. The Izzies continued their brilliant play by taking two out of three from Sioux City.

Joplin has not won a series in the two played. The best the Miners could do with Des Moines was to win one out of the three.

Wichita has the best record: five victories in the six games being the Izzie's total. Tulsa is second, with four wins and two reversals. Oklahoma City won four and lost three, while Sioux City broke even in six games. St. Joseph also won three in six attempts. Omaha won three out of four, with Des Moines and Joplin having the poorest record, two victories in six games.

The major and Western league pennant races are tightening closer than ever and will start the last lap of the flag hunts with closely bunched fields. Not for a long time has there been such a good race as that in the American, National and Western leagues and the box office is reaping the reward. The hectic pennant chase is proving several things, two: That the game is back, bigger and better than ever before and that the future of baseball is brighter than that foreseen by even the most enthusiastic optimist when the armistice was signed.

Here's a funny one. The New York American league club owners have an injunction to prevent umpires or opposing club managers to interfere with the playing of Carl Mays. Then, what if Carlos should become ignorant in a game and the umpire would order his banishment? By the rules of baseball, Carl would go. But for the injunction, would not the field judges be powerless to bench the storm center, even if he became objectionable?

HARD FOUGHT MATCHES IN NATIONAL DOUBLES

NEWTON, Mass., Aug. 11.—Two hard fought four-set matches comprised the play in the opening round of the national lawn tennis doubles championship tournament on the Chestnut Hill courts of the Longwood Cricket club today. The winners were R. Norris Williams, II, of Boston and Watson M. Washburn of New York, holders of the New England title, and Maurice E. McLoughlin and T. C. Bundy, both of Los Angeles, Pacific coast champions.

McLoughlin and Bundy defeated another California pair, Willis Davis and H. Alvin Dixon Johns, who held the western national title. The score was 6-4, 9-7, 4-6, 8-4.

R. Norris Williams II, Boston, and Watson M. Washburn, New York, New England champions, defeated Ichiya Kumagae, Japan, and Harold A. Throckmorton, Elizabeth, N. J., holders of the middle states sectional title. The score was 6-4, 3-6, 6-1, 8-6.

GROUND BROKEN FOR KENDALL GYMNASIUM

New $100,000 Athletic Hall to be Completed by Start of Next Basketball Season.

Ground was broken yesterday for the erection of the new $100,000 Kendall college gymnasium and work is to be pushed rapidly. Dr. Arthur Lee Odell, president of Kendall college stated last night that the gymnasium would be completed by the start of basketball season, providing no unforseen obstacles develop.

A gymnasium at Kendall college has been contemplated for several years and students, faculty members and citizens have been endeavoring to insure its erection for some time. This spring, when, with the war over and Kendall back on a firm footing, efforts toward that end were renewed, which culminated in the construction started yesterday.

The Kendall college "gym" will be one of the largest and most complete in the state. Plans call for a swimming pool, basketball court and spacious and comfortable lockers, which will accomodate both home and visiting basketball players.

Kendall, besides being in line for the state football championship, will probably present a formidable basketball team. Coach Paul Smith will return to direct the basketeers. Francis Schmidt, ex-athletic director at Kendall, is still in the army. He will not return to the local college.

Henryetta Wins From Allen and Takes $500 Purse in Fast Game

HENRYETTA, Okla., Aug. 11.—The largest crowd ever assembled on the local baseball grounds yelled itself hoarse when Henryetta trimmed the Allen team, 8 to 5, in a spirited battle for a $500 purse Sunday.

The Allen players arrived in a special coach, bringing with them more than 100 rooters from their home town, and gave out the warning that they intended to take back with their their own forfeit money, together with the $500 iron men posted by the Henryetta boys, and from their brilliant beginning it looked as if they would make good their boast, but they appeared to have shot their wad early in the game, while Henryetta warming up, took the lead and held it to the finish, making the score 8 to 5.

Whitefield No. 4 will play a return date Thursday, August 14, and the Okmulgee Chiefs promise some good playing Sunday, August 17th.

Party of Kansans Going to Alaska to Search of Brown Bruin.

LAWRENCE, Kan., Aug. 11.—Equipped for a stay of two months in Alaska, where the party will follow the trail of the Alaskan brown bear in an effort to obtain specimens for the University of Kansas, seven men left this area for Seattle, bound for the Arctic circle.

Upon arriving at Kenai, on Cook's inlet, a base will be established, but no hunting will be done until the party reaches the vicinity of Mount McKinley. The hunt for specimens also will include Alaska moose, caribou, either fur bearing animals of the Arctic circle, and northern birds.

Oilers Play at Des Moines Three Days Starting Today

With four victories and two defeats in the two northern series, finished Sunday, the Tulsa Oilers start the third series at Des Moines today.

Play of the club has been equal to that of any in the league in the six games played. Hard hitting, with especially timely swats concentrated at opportune moments, splendid fielding, including four errorless games in the six and the best pitching Manager Abbott has received this season, are the reasons of the four victories.

After playing three days at Des Moines, the gang is scheduled to play at Sioux City three days, with Monday, August 18, an off day. The Oilers start their swing around the southern end of the circuit at Wichita Tuesday.

From the outlook now indications are bright for the Tulsa team to end their northern invasion much better than a 50-50 break. To break even on a road trip is pleasing fast baseball—and that is what the club is doing now.

Two games are scheduled to be played at Wichita, August 19 and 20. Then three are played at Joplin. The final road trip of the year is concluded at Oklahoma City August 24 and 25, six games being scheduled. August 24 The Oilers were idle Sunday, Monday's game having been played Sunday. Other Western league games were also played on a day.

HEAVY LEAD IS NOW HELD BY CINCINNATI

Reds Gained on Giants Last Week and Hold 5½ Game Lead, Including Sunday Games

DETROIT GAINS ON CHICAGO

White Sox Continue to Lose While Jungleers Are 4½ Games Back of Gleasons

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Cincinnati gained considerable ground on New York in the National league pennant race last week, and yesterday enjoyed a lead of five and one-half games. The Chicago Americans, continuing their losing battle, are threatened by the rapid advance of Detroit, four and one-half games in the rear.

Barnes of New York and Cadore of Brooklyn held the Cincinnati batsmen in check but in the other four contests the Reds pounded the ball hard. Eller blanked Brooklyn Thursday with two hits. New York, which will have an opportunity this week to redeem itself in a six-game series with Cincinnati, dropped a series to St. Louis and batted weakly against Chicago.

Before meeting New York the Cubs shared two games with Philadelphia and lost two games out of three to Boston. Keating of the Braves outpitched Alexander, five hits to three, and won the game with a home run.

Brooklyn won twice in three games with St. Louis and took turns with Pittsburgh in shutout victories.

Boston won three straight games from St. Louis.

In the American league Chicago lost a close battle to Boston in which Ruth was passed four times. Philadelphia, tail-enders, held the league leaders even in four games, one contest lasting 13 innings. Washington batted out Mayer of Chicago. Cicotte won his twenty-first victory today in a 12-inning one to nothing pitchers' battle with Shaw.

After losing to New York last Sunday Detroit won four straight games, taking three from Washington and one from Philadelphia.

Cleveland was only a step behind Detroit, winning three out of its five games.

Ban Johnson Is Not at Conference Over Disposal of C. Mays

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Ban Johnson, president of the American league, failed to arrive here today to attend a conference of American league magnates over the Carl Mays case.

Presidents Comiskey of the Chicago club, Frazee of Boston, and Ruppert of New York, at a conference here today decided to call a special meeting of the board of directors for Thursday, the day before the court argument will be heard. They constitute three-quarters of the directorate of which Johnson is a member only ex-officio. The Mays case will be considered in all its phases.

Col. T. L. Huston, half owner and secretary of the New York American league club, also attended the conference. After these four and their legal advisers had been in session for several hours, they gave out a statement, in which the following was added:

"Mr. Byron B. Johnson, the president, secretary-treasurer and a director of the league, is specially requested to attend the meeting," added the notice of the meeting, signed by Comiskey, Frazee and Ruppert.

AVOID FRAZZLED NERVES BY HELPING NATURE AT WORK

Get Back the Old "Pep" and Work as You Used to Do

HERE'S WAY TO DO IT EASILY

Nervous? Well, a little. Don't like to admit it eh? No one does. But the nerves of all of us get a wee bit frayed at times. Shouldn't, but they do. Nature intended that we should feel natural jags. We don't—at least all of us do. Sometimes too much work, sometimes too much play. Then an attack of "nerves."

Then is the time for Pepsinol. Nerves overtaxed by a burden which we have ourselves imposed, is unable of itself to restore the health equilibrium which we have thoughtlessly removed. Nature needs help. To give that help the formula for Pepsinol was worked out.

Most physical ailments may be traced to an acid stomach followed by a torpid liver. The kidneys and other organs of come deranged. Constipation develops. Then insomnia wears down the strength that should be rebuilt nightly. The daily exercise that should keep the muscles fire is abandoned because one is too tired to walk, or ride or play outdoor games.

Next the daily headaches develop, continued irritation, even at the smallest trifle. Biliousness brings a sour stomach and a fetid breath, making their possessor an annoyance to those nearby.

Finally a mental depression, a lessening despondency evidenced by dislike of anything and a physical exhaustion that seems to make living a torture.

Nature's load has been increasing all this time. Things appear hopeless, life does not. Take Pepsinol. It is a necessary aid to Nature. Pepsinol is a gentle laxative tonic. It is specifically to take when one is well. It is the BEST thing to take when one is run down, when Nature has been overtaxed. It is wholly corrective in its effects. It causes no turn such as results from the use of mineral purgatives.

Pepsinol helps Nature by removing the conditions (poisons) to health. It helps also to build up the strength that has been diminished by these conditions.

Take Pepsinol, to help Nature remove the fermenting food bile and waste matter that have accumulated in the bowels. This removed, will be accumulated anew, not with the wrenching that accompanies the use of strong cathartics. With Pepsinol comes the opportunity for the bowels to resume its normal functions. The kidneys co-operate.

Digestion gets the help it needs from Pepsinol. Sour, undigested food is expelled from the stomach by Pepsinol. Acidity disappears. The bowels move and becomes sweet after taking Pepsinol. The stirrings after a night spent in sound sleep without that dark brown taste in the mouth which was common before Pepsinol got rid of it. Gone, too, the feeling of mental depression and kindred ailments. Nature is again master of the situation, thanks to Pepsinol.

Influenza has been a terrible scourge in the world during past months. In Germany were so great in England and Wales that the death rate exceeded the birth rate. Fortunately it has not been so severe in this country, but nevertheless tens of thousands in the United States have died.

The after-effects of influenza may be most serious. The disease leaves the physical powers of resistance greatly weakened. The convalescent may easily be mediately fall victim to some other disease. To prevent this the power of resistance must be strengthened. Pepsinol will be a strengthener. Now, when there is a paucity of tonic, it should be taken in preference further causes of a constructive agent to disease.

Time and mothers were not so exacting and fretful children were not so much seen in Pensinol. Today many mothers are outcomes of children's nervousness. Pepsinol should be taken again.

Airplane Fishing Is the Newest "Thing" With Coast Sports

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 10.—The newest thing in sports is seaplane fishing. It originated in Santa Barbara at the suggestion of Allan Loughead, an aviator.

Seven young women acted on the suggestion. They boarding the Loughead seaplane, flew out to the fishing banks and value to an anchorage. After an hour's sport, when they had made a fair catch, the return was made. All went off as nicely as if seaplane fishing was an established thing.

The distraction of being members of the first party to try out this sport belongs to Mesdames L. A. Spaulding of Pasadena, Miss Irene Hodges of Denver, Miss Dorothy Lord and Miss Eleanor Morgan of San Francisco, Miss Mary de Genne of Los Angeles and Mrs. Mary Bennett and Miss Lois Bennett of Pasadena.

"Many subjects have will be discovered for the seaplane," says Aviator Loughead "since the people become accustomed to the fact that flying is a practical rather than a wonder thing, they will begin to get some good out of it."
