"YANK" DAVIS GETS HOMER

Tulsa Outfielder Adds to His Total With Clout in First Game Yesterday.

Special to The World.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Aug. 13.—Tulsa opened its last series of the season here today by outplaying the Boosters and winning both ends of a double-header with scores 8 to 4 and 2 to 1. The slipping Des Moines aggregation resembled a set of cellar champions compared to the Tulsa Drillers and never had a chance to cop either contest.

In the opener Winn, Allison and Keiser, who took turns at hurling against the enemy, were completely surrounded by errors, a total of eight being perpetrated by the home club.

In the second the Boosters played better ball, but one of their two errors resulted in the winning tally. The Oilers wasted no time in getting down to the work and before three hands had been retired in the first frame six runs had filtered over the plate. Winn started for the locals, but a home run by "Yank" Davis after singles by Wuffli and Slattery, an error by Coffey and a late throw to the plate by the pitcher himself, caused him to depart abruptly for the players' pew. Allison came to the rescue, but a dropped fly by Milan and singles by Barham, Burke and Wuffli, all of which would have been cut with sharp fielding, netted a sixth run.

A brace of hoots by Hartford and singles by Slattery and Cleveland increased the Tulsa lead to eight tallies in the fourth, but Keiser, who took the mound in the fifth, pitched shutout ball the remainder of the distance. "Des Moines merely went through the formality of ball playing in all except one round, the sixth, in which it scored all its runs.

In the sixth Barham, who had hurled steadily passed Breen with one out. Walker singled. Hartford walked. Marr singled. O'Hara hit safely and Coffey doubled. This combination was good for four tallies. Vangilder took the mound in the next inning, and kept the Tulsa lead from spoiling. The locals could not hit him except in the ninth, when two blows were wasted.

Although the visitors did not win the aftermath in the first inning, they did score a run. It came as a result of Payne's fumble of Wuffli's bunt following Burke's infield hit and a great piece of base running by the Tulsa centerfielder, who Ty Cobbed all the way from second to the plate while Payne was throwing Slattery out at first. Hasbrook's throw home was a trifle high and Burke easily slid under the ball and was safe.

The Boosters knotted the count in their half of the same inning. O'Hara led off with an infield hit. Hasbrook singled and while Burke toyed with the sphere in centerfield, O'Hara took third and Hasbrook advanced to second. Connelly's sacrifice fly put O'Hara across the plate. After that Bayne of Tulsa southpawed his way through the Boosters with brilliance and was never in danger. Payne also hurled good ball for the locals except in the second frame, when Manion doubled behind Tierney's single for the winning run of the contest, which was called at the end of the seventh inning by agreement.

GREB AND O'DOWD MEET FOR 158-POUND CROWN

Harry Greb, Pittsburgh middleweight, and Mike O'Dowd of St. Paul, middleweight champion, have been matched for a 15-round bout at Toledo, Labor day, with the 158 pound crown at stake. It is understood some of the reform element in Toledo will oppose the bout on the ground that the Willard-Dempsey affair was not up to the advertised standard.

"THAT LITTLE GAME" --- --- The Blow-Off

Daily Dope
By Larry Dailey..

Cincinnati baseball fans weren't much more pleased with the double victory of the Reds over the Giants yesterday than those right here in Tulsa. Practically every bug in this city is pulling for the Morans to cop the National league gonfalon and when they increased their lead to six and a half games by yesterday's victories, predictions were made that the National flag is cinched.

With the last lap in the flag hunt started, play is now at its best, as seen by yesterday's National league games. All of the five games played were brilliant, hard fought contests, and all were won by one score. Two were extra-inning affairs, the second Chicago-Brooklyn fray going 13 stanzas and the Pittsburgh-Boston tilt going 14 innings before the Pirates were able to win.

Ever since the Federal league started its raid on the personnel of major league baseball clubs, baseball affairs have been in an unsettled state. The scrap over Carl Mays this season is but one of many such incidents which, it is believed, will culminate in a wide-spread change in the governing control of major and minor league baseball.

Last season, the Perry case, involving the question of the property of "Hope" Perry, of the Philadelphia Athletics and whose services were contested by the Boston Braves, threatened to develop into serious trouble. However, with the nation absorbed in the war and the subsequent settlement of the case, it was forgotten.

Last winter, almost immediately following the signing of the armistice, signs were evinced tending to show that great dissatisfaction exists over the control of the game. Efforts were made at that time to form a one man national commission, which, however, were dropped after much agitation had developed.

Minor leagues, feeling they had been dealt with unjustly in the past, withdrew from the fold, declaring they would rock along by themselves. This did not cause serious alarm, as it was felt that the independence shown by the smaller fellows was only the result of agitation by certain disgruntled persons. However, with the minors showing they are firm in their demands, their refusal to recognize the time honored draft and the subsequent declaration of the majors that the draft is in force, has resulted in statements from both powers that open warfare exists.

Now comes the Carl Mays case; the threat to oust Ban Johnson as president of the American league and renewed agitation for a one man National commission, with Federal Judge M. K. Landis as the probable incumbent. It is difficult to forecast where it all will end, but one thing is certain, organized baseball, in all its phases, is in need and is due for a big and vital change.

CINCINNATI TAKES 2 GAMES FROM GIANTS

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—New York's pennant hopes received a crushing blow here today when Cincinnati won both games of a doubleheader and advanced its lead to six and a half games in the National league championship race. The Reds won the first game 4 to 3 and the second 2 to 1.

The crowd that saw the two games has never been approached here before outside of world series games and it was needed most of these, being estimated close to 40,000.

The Giants fell before the skill of Cincinnati's two lefthanders, the youngster Hughie and the veteran Sallee. Rucker beat Nehf, the newly acquired lefthander, in the first game, while Sallee won a tight pitcher's battle from Douglas in the second game. It was the first time Nehf and Douglas had appeared on the polo grounds in New York uniforms.

Errors by the Giants lost the second game for Douglas, and Cincinnati's two runs were made in the fourth inning on Giant errors. Chase fumbled on Roush, who advanced to second on Neale's sacrifice. Kopf was safe on an error and stole second. Roush and Kopf scored on Magee's single, the referee's only bit of the day.

Sallee pitched a remarkable game against his old comrades, as only 2 Giants went to bat. He permitted only three hits.

NEWTON, Mass., Aug. 13.—As a result of victories today in two long, hard fought games, both of which developed exceptionally brilliant tennis, Norman E. Brookes and Gerald L. Patterson, the Australians, will face the San Francisco pair, William M. Johnston and C. J. Griffin, winners of the northwestern sectional title in the final round tomorrow of the national doubles championship tournament on the Chestnut Hill courts of the Longwood Cricket club.

MAY HOLD 'ROUNDUP' IN TULSA THIS FALL

Fred "Foghorn" Clancy, Promoter of Big Roundups This Summer, May Bring Show Here

HEADLINERS ARE SOONERS

Two-thirds of Champions Are From This State—Tulsa Logical Place, Says Clancy

Tulsa probably will have a big "fall roundup," some time during the first two weeks of October, according to Fred "Foghorn" Clancy, promotor of roundups, who was in Tulsa for a few hours yesterday en route to Tucumcary, Ariz., where he has booked his next exhibition.

During his short stay in Tulsa he breached the plan to Secretary C. B. Douglas of the chamber of commerce, Mayor C. H. Hubbard, W. A. Vandever of the Retail Merchants' association and E. A. Guise, secretary of the Advertising club. All were favorably inclined and a definite proposition will be placed before the Ad club next Tuesday by Secretary Guise.

"It will be a great thing for Tulsa," declared Clancy. "I have just come from Hutchinson where we attracted crowds as large as the state fair does. At Aurora thousands of visitors came to the city, Mayor Thompson heading a delegation from Chicago alone. At Cheyenne we averaged more than 40,000 a day and 25 per cent of the patronage came from east of the Mississippi river.

"Two thirds of the champions and headliners are Oklahoma cowboys and cowgirls, and Oklahoma ought to put on one of the greatest roundups ever staged. Tulsa is the logical place for such an exhibition and I believe it will be brought here."

The events will consist of steer roping, goat roping, trick and fancy roping, trick and fancy riding, wild steer riding, bareback riding, cowgirl bronco busting, cowboy bronco busting, wild steer bulldogging.

Clancy declares the cruelty which once went with roundups has been eliminated from this program. Instead of throwing and tieing the steers, the acts which injure them, the lariat is fastened to the saddle, by a cotton cord which snaps when the horse sets for the throw.

TULSA KIWANIANS BEAT OKLAHOMA CITY RIVALS

Tulsa has one ball club that can beat Oklahoma City. The local Kiwanians won from the Capital city Kiwanians at McNulty park yesterday 16 to 10 in seven innings, in which all sorts of baseball, some that even Bill Phelon never saw or never will see, was played. There were no casualties.

Court Order Forces Johnson to Testify in Carl Mays Case

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The York American league club announced tonight it had obtained from State Supreme Court Justice Lydon an order compelling Ban Johnson, president of the league, to appear before a referee next Friday and testify concerning the nature and extent of his alleged interests in the Cleveland club, in connection with his suspension of Carl W. Mays.

The New York club owners added they intended to question Mr. Johnson also concerning "the extent and nature of the Cleveland club's indebtedness to him," and "the circumstances of his controversy with Mr. Frazee of the Boston club."

In connection with the order, Mr. Johnson is restrained "from using any portion of the sinking fund of the American League of Professional Baseball clubs for or in defense of the injunction proceedings now pending."

One of the affidavits on which the order was granted was made by Charles Comiskey of the Chicago White Sox.

Big League Baseball Players Come and Go With Great Rapidity

As an instance of how rapidly major leaguers come and go it is interesting to note that since the opening of the current season eight players have been added to the roster of the Giants and seven have been released. The eight who have joined the club do not include three young collegians who are not included in the player limit and are therefore ineligible to take part in championship games.

Pat Ragan is listed among those who have come and gone, for that is what Pat has done. Those who have donned Giant uniforms since the season opened are Ragan, Jean Dubuc, Lee King, Frank Snyder, Mike Gonzales, Joe Oeschger, Frank Frisch and Phil Douglas. Besides Ragan, those who have departed are Jim Thorpe, Bob Steele, Ferdie Schupp, Dave Robertson, George Smith and Eddie Sicking.

Ragan came to the Giants from the Braves via the waiver route; Dubuc was signed following his outright release by the Red Sox; King was obtained from the Pirates on waivers; Snyder and Gonzales were purchased from the
