FRIDAY'S LOP-SIDED VICTORY PUTS TULSA IN THIRD PLACE

17 HITS AND 15 RUNS FOR TULSA

The Oilers Fattened Batting Averages Yesterday While Defeating Joplin.

ERRORS BY MINERS' HELP

After Today's Game Oilers Go to Oklahoma City for 3 Games; Then Home.

(Staff Correspondent)

JOPLIN, Mo., Aug. 22.—Tulsa ran its string of victories on this road trip to 11 by winning a free-hitting game from Joplin today, 15 to 5. Aside from the hard batting of both clubs, the game was not devoid of features.

Differing from recent games in which the Oilers have played, there were numerous fielding errors, five by Joplin and two by Tulsa. All of the miscues were on ground balls, three being made by Joplin on sacrifice bunts in the sixth inning.

Williams, new pitcher acquired by Manager Abbott from the Louisiana Independent parks, was sent to the hill and showed well until the sixth inning. His control was much better than in his first appearance against Wichita. Williams was relieved in the sixth frame by Dennis, with two out after three Miners had crossed the plate on four hits and a base on balls. Hubert retired the side and was never in danger thereafter.

Burwell was touched for five hits in five innings, two in succession in the second and third innings, but Tulsa could not make them count. In the sixth Burwell was derricked after the Oilers had scored eight runs. Dick Turpin, veteran southpaw and former Western association pitcher, essayed the mound burden but he was little better.

There was no scoring by either club after the first inning for five innings, though Joplin had two hits in the second inning and Tulsa in the second and third. Tulsa won the game in the sixth inning. Dilts first tripling to right. Slattery singled to left, scoring Dilts. Thompson fumbled Cleveland's sacrifice hit. Davis singled through Thompson, filling the bases. Tierney singled to center, scoring Slattery. Cleveland counted when Thompson fumbled Manion's sacrifice hit. On the third straight error of a sacrifice, that by Burwell on Williams' roller, Davis scored. Tierney was thrown out at the plate on Burke's grounder to Claypool. Manion was also caught at home on Wuffli's bounder to Lamb. Dilts was walked, forcing in Williams. Slattery doubled to right, his second hit of the inning. Nutt and Briebeck singled, filling the bases. Hall walked, Bachler counting. Claypool doubled to center, and cleaning the sacks. Cleveland filed to Thompson.

Joplin came back in its half and scored three. With one out, Boehler, scoring Nutt and Briebeck.

Tulsa made one in the seventh, a base on balls, sacrifice and single being responsible. Four were added to the total in the eighth, singles by Cleveland, Davis and Wuffli, Tierney's double, two bases on balls and an error netting that number. The locals added two in the ninth, due to an error, Dilts' single and Slattery's triple.

Joplin made one in the ninth. Claybrook singled with none out. Brandt walked. Hart, batting for Turpin, grounded to Wuffli, the runners moving up a base. Wuffli's error of Thompson's grounder permitted Claybrook to register.

Notes of the Game.

Tulsa made two errors, more than they have made in the last four games. One was charged to Cleveland, the other to Wuffli.

The Oilers are giving the pitchers great support, both in the field and at bat. Such playing is bound to win.

The road record is now 11 victories and six defeats.

After playing Joplin today we move on to Oklahoma City for three games, including a doubleheader Sunday, then home for the remainder of the season.

In fact, the entire club hit like champions.

"THAT LITTLE GAME" --- --- Caught In the Act

MUSKOGEE SOON TO START BOXING AGAIN

Launching of Oklahoma Boxing League Will Revive Ring Game; First Bout Next Month.

Special to The World.

MUSKOGEE, Aug. 22.—Following the organization of the Oklahoma Boxing league, a society formed for the purpose of "purifying and popularizing the manly art of self-defense," a strong effort will be made in the near future to revive the boxing game in Muskogee.

The war put boxing on its feet again, and after the soldiers began swarming home from overseas and training camps in America there has developed an irresistible demand for the squared circle entertainment all over the United States. In many a city where the ban had been on boxing for years, it has been lifted because of the demand of the returned soldiers for the sport. They had been taught to box and had learned to love the game while in the army. The clean popularity secured by boxing during the war also has resulted in making boxing a much cleaner sport. In most cities the game is now in the hands of sportsmen who realize that it pays the promoter to put on honest and evenly contested exhibitions.

To Run Game on Square.

All of the men connected with the new Oklahoma Boxing league are well known in sport circles and their every effort will be to conduct the game on such a high plane that it will never come into the ill repute of the days before the war. C. W. Samson, better known as "Sammy," an Oklahoma City man who has fought for clean boxing in Oklahoma for more than a decade, is president of the boxing league. B. A. Bridgewater of Muskogee, managing editor of the Times-Democrat, is vice president, and Charles J. Brill of Tulsa, sporting editor of The Tulsa World, is secretary. A charter for the league was issued a few days ago by Secretary of State Joe Morris, and no less than six of the leading cities of the state already are planning to actively become members of the movement.

If conditions are found favorable, the revival of boxing in Muskogee will in all probability be celebrated about the middle of September, with two well matched and well known bantamweights as the opponents in the main go.

There is talk of bringing Bobby Hughes of New Orleans and Mult McKee of Oklahoma City, two top notch 116-pounders, here as an opening attraction. Both of these lads are in the southwest now, and the cost of bringing them to Muskogee would not be as great as would ordinarily be the case.

They "Saved" Tulsa Shows.

McKee and Hughes gained much favorable attention in Tulsa on two occasions, when, appearing in semi final bouts, they put on such classy exhibitions that the fans overlooked mediocre main events. The first instance of this was on June 14 when Hughes and McKee appeared in the first half of an all-star bill, with Nate Jackson and Brown winding up. They put the spectators in such a good humor it saved the day when the last go was a flivver. They practically did the same thing July 4, boxing before Harry Greb and Bill Brennan engaged in a main event in only fair style. An engagement between Hughes and McKee would mean that local fandom would be treated to a whirlwind affray, with two of the very best bantams in the country participating.

Hughes is now matched with Frankie Mason in the main event of the Labor day show at Tulsa. Mason, who weighs only 108 1-2 pounds, is the only bantam to hold a unanimous decision over Memphis Pal Moore, the lad who defeated Jimmy Wilde, British flyweight champion, before the National Sporting club in London.

Convention hall Labor Day under the auspices of the Tulsa Trades and Labor council. Last Sunday was boxing Woodrow's night for Labor day and Bobby Jones to celebrate the occasion with a victory one week from tomorrow night.

I'll Bet My Daddy Can Lick Your Daddy an' You'd Better Look Out

Woodrow Wilson Hughes.

Someone has remarked that few of the youngsters born during the last few years have been named after the president of the United States for fear people would think that he is the son of Bobby Hughes, the New Orleans lad, who meets Frankie Mason at Tulsa tomorrow night.

Outfielder Kopp to Atlanta.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 22.—Merlin Kopp, outfielder, has been purchased from the Philadelphia Americans and will play outfield for Atlanta beginning tomorrow, Manager Frank Ireland announced tonight. Outfielder Miller, is sick, Frank said, but he declined to say what disposition, if any, he would make of Miller later.

Manion, Tulsa Catcher, Is Sold to Jennings; to Report Next Month

By LARRY DAILEY.
Staff Correspondent.

JOPLIN, Mo., Aug. 22.—Catcher "Matty" Manion of the Tulsa baseball club was sold to the Detroit American league club by Manager Spencer Abbott today. The announced purchase price was $3,000. Manion is to report to the Tigers at the close of the Western league season.

Jim McGuire, Detroit scout, has been watching Manion's playing for some time. Earlier in the season he endeavored to buy the star catcher, but Manager Abbott refused to sell him at that time.

Manion is one of the best throwing and fielding catchers in the league and a timely batter. His ability to work the Oiler pitchers was a big factor in his sale. Manion is 23 years of age and playing his second year of professional baseball. He was with the Topeka-Hutchinson club last season.

ST. LOUIS GOES BACK BY FRIDAY'S DEFEAT

Bitterly Fought Game in Which Two Fights Threaten, Is Finally Won by New York Yankees.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 22.—In a bitterly fought contest in which a fist fight was narrowly averted, New York triumphed over St. Louis today, 7 to 6, in the odd game of the series and by losing the locals moved back to fifth place in the loop. In the first inning when order was at last in comparison that Mays was delaying the balls, Umpire Sherlock, after condemning four balls, walked out to the box and examined Mays' glove and clothing. The pitcher then made a remark to Sisler, who hurried toward him, but trouble was prevented by the interference of Manager Burke and players. When the locals took the field the New York players continued to heckle Sisler, and when the umpire admonished them Hawkey beckoned him aside to settle the dispute. Hawkey was promptly banished.

The score:
